

Master of Theological Studies – Focus Paradigm

This program is currently in the process of being approved by the Divinity Faculty. Any currently enrolled student with graduation dates of Fall 2017, Spring 2018, Fall 2018, or Spring 2019, should work closely with the M.T.S Directors to ensure the student's curriculum is set. An approved paradigm should be posted to this website by September 1, 2018.

The M.T.S Focus degree, like the M.T.S Core degree, requires 16 courses. The M.T.S. Focus allows students to focus their research interests in a specific area as determined by the faculty. Currently those concentration areas are Bible, History, Theology & Ethics, and Ministerial Studies. Dual degree students are not eligible for the M.T.S Focus Degree.