The Anglican Episcopal House of Studies (AEHS), through Duke Divinity School, offers the Certificate in Anglican Studies. To receive the Certificate in Anglican Studies, students need to:

- complete the Certificate in Anglican Studies Tracking Form and give it to Kori Robins, Registrar, in 108B Gray,
- complete at least 3 courses in Anglican Studies,
- complete at least one Field Education placement in an Episcopal or other Anglican setting,
- fulfill either the Middler or the Senior review for the student portfolio (which is required of all Duke Divinity students) with an Anglican/Episcopal faculty advisor,
- commit to the program of Anglican Spiritual Formation (ASF), normally throughout one's course of study at Duke Divinity School. For details on ASF, please see below.

Anglican Spiritual Formation (listed on ACES as CHURMIN 704)

The ASF Commitment encompasses a Rule of Life for students individually and for the community as a whole. The aim is Christian ministerial formation: to help one another develop the skills, habits, character, and collegiality that will foster growth in the Christian faith and underpin a lifetime of ministry and service (ordained or lay) within an Episcopal or other Anglican setting. The expectation is that students will participate in ASF throughout their time at Duke; if a student needs to withdraw from ASF for a period of time, he or she can discuss this with the AEHS Director or Associate Director.

The ASF Rule of Life includes:

- worshipping Mondays through Fridays with AEHS in Goodson Chapel. Regular attendance is also encouraged (although not required) at the Divinity School's main worship services in Goodson Chapel. Please see "Anglican Spiritual Formation Attendance Policy" for details.
- attending AEHS events marked with an asterisk (*) on the AEHS calendar.
- participating in weekly Listening Groups of three to four students, modeling mutual prayer and formation, accountability, and confidentiality
- attending the AEHS Lenten retreat from 9:30 am to 4 pm on Saturday, February 13 at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Hillsborough NC.
- meeting regularly with a spiritual director or a mentor in the faith to explore God's call and God's presence in your life. The Associate Director can advise on finding a spiritual director.
- meeting in both fall and spring semesters with the AEHS Director or the Associate Director, after completing and sending in a beginning-of-year and an end-of-year Personal Review Form to reflect on goals, challenges, and areas of formation and growth in faith and ministry.

Those wishing to enroll in ASF should register for CHURMIN 704 on ACES.
