Fain would I in my earliest days
Fain would I, Lord, from earth remove Fain would I, Lord, my household lead
Fain would I, Lord, the word receive
Fain would I my Redeemer see
Fain would I put my trust in thee
Faint my head, and sick my heart
Faith and love the breast-plate make Faith holds on thy great might
Faith the foundation sure remains
Faithful, and true, for this we wait
Faithful and true, we trust in thee
Faithful, I account thee, Lord
Faithful, O God, thy threatening word
Faithful, O Lord, thy mercies are Farther, and farther still I run
Fast bound with the fetters of woe
Father, by right divine
Father, create my heart again
Father, for Jesu's sake alone
Father, for power I groan
Father, help, by covenant ours
Father, how kind thou art
Father, how wide thy glories shine
Father, I all thy fullness want
Father, I ask in Jesu's name
Father, I dare believe
Father, I do at last relent
Father, I joyfully believe
Father, I know my day is nigh
Father, I now my sin confess
Father, I still his passion plead
Father, I will, I do repent
Father, if thou must reprove
Father, if thou my Father art
Father, in Abraham's steps I tread
Father, in Christ my father, thou
