

Hymns and Sacred Poems (1747)<sup>1</sup>

[Baker List, #141]

Editorial Introduction:

The first Methodist society in Ireland was established in Dublin in the summer of 1747 by Thomas Williams, one of the lay assistants of the Wesley brothers. In response to encouragement by Williams, John Wesley made his first visit later that year. It was a short visit, with John arriving at the port in Dublin on August 9 and departing August 23. But Charles Wesley was soon dispatched to spend extended time shepherding the emerging work. He touched land in Dublin on September 8, 1747 and stayed through March 20, 1748; leaving only after John had relieved him (arriving on March 8).

A prominent concern in providing for this new Methodist community was publication of hymn collections for their worship. This concern was initially overseen largely by Charles, since John had little time to devote to it during his short visit. Charles cultivated a relationship with Samuel Powell, a printer, soon after his arrival. His MS Journal records dining at Powell's house on September 17, 1747. In a journal letter he speaks of spending the entire evening at Powell's the next week and of receiving a bill for printing on October 13.

Among items that Powell issued in 1747, which may have been covered in this bill, were Dublin editions of several specialized collections that Charles had published in England in recent years—see Nativity Hymns (1745); Funeral Hymns (1746); Resurrection Hymns (1746); Ascension Hymns (1746); Whitsunday Hymns (1746); Gloria Patri (1746); Graces (1746); and Redemption Hymns (1747) elsewhere on this website. But there was also one publication which, while under a familiar title, was a distinctive collection. Sometime in the latter third of 1747 Powell issued a volume in the name of John and Charles Wesley titled Hymns and Sacred Poems. This was not a Dublin printing of the combined form of HSP (1739) and HSP (1740) currently circulating in England. It was a much shorter selection of thirty-seven hymns, mostly drawn from HSP (1739). Its size reflected the desire to get a short and inexpensive collection in print for emerging Methodist worship in Ireland. The selection and minor editorial revisions made in the collection most likely reflect the hand of Charles Wesley, but this cannot be established for certain.

Whoever shepherded the production of this shorter selection, it was not reprinted. Rather, in 1749 Powell issued a Dublin edition of Collection of Hymns (1742), an even shorter selection of hymns from HSP (1739) that the Wesley brothers had previously cooperated in producing for use among poorer Methodists.

HYMNS AND SACRED POEMS.

Psalm 122.<sup>2</sup>

- 1 O how overjoyed was I
When the solemn hour drew nigh,
Summoned to the house of pray'r,
Flew my soul to worship there:
Come, my cheerful brethren said,
Let us go with holy speed;
Let us haste with one accord,
To the temple of our Lord.

- 2 Running at his kind command,
There our ready feet shall stand,
Still within the sacred gate
Will we for his mercy wait:
Love the channels of his grace,
Reverence the hallowed place
Where our Lord records his name,
Stay we in Jerusalem.

- 3 God hath built his church below,
Laboured all his art to show,
Each with each the parts agree,
Framed in perfect symmetry:
There the chosen tribes go up,
Testify their gospel-hope,
Praise and bless th' incarnate Word,
Shout the name of Christ their Lord.
- 4 There are Aaron's mitred sons,
There the apostolic thrones;
Moses' legislative chair;
God's great hierarchy is there.
Pray, my friends, and never cease,
Wrestle on for Sion's peace;
Make her still your pious care,
On your heart forever bear.
- 5 Hail the venerable name,
Lovely dear Jerusalem;
Thee who bless shall blessed be,
Prosper for their love to thee.
Dwell within thy ramparts peace,
Plenty deck thy palaces,
Jesus send thee from above,
All the treasures of his love.
- 6 For my friends' and brethren's sake,
Thee my dearest charge I make;
England's des'late church be mine;
Sion, all my soul be thine!
O thou temple of my God,
For thy sake I spend my blood,
Longing here thy rise to see,
Glad to live and die for thee.

John 15:18–19.<sup>3</sup>

- 1   Where has my slumb'ring spirit been,
      So late emerging into light!
      So imperceptible, within,
      The weight of this Egyptian night!
- 2   Where have they hid the WORLD so long,
      So late presented to my view?
      Wretch! Though myself increased the throng,
      Myself a part I never knew.
- 3   Secure beneath its shade I sat,
      To me were all its favours shown:
      I could not taste its scorn or hate;
      Alas, it ever lov'd its own!
- 4   Jesus, if half discerning now,
      From thee I gain this glimm'ring light,
      Retouch my eyes, anoint them thou,
      And grant me to receive my sight.
- 5   O may I of thy grace obtain
      The world with other eyes to see:
      Its judgments false, its pleasures vain,
      Its friendship enmity with thee.
- 6   Delusive world, thy hour is past,
      The folly of thy wisdom show!
      It cannot now retard my haste,
      I leave thee for the holy few.

- 7 No! Thou blind leader of the blind,
I bow my neck to thee no more!
I cast thy glories all behind,
And slight thy smiles, and dare thy pow'r.
- 8 Excluded from my Saviour's pray'r,
Stained, yet not hallowed with his blood,
Shalt thou my fond affection share,
Shalt thou divide my heart with God?
- 9 No! Though it rouse thy utmost rage,
Eternal enmity I vow;
Though hell with thine its pow'rs engage,
Prepared I meet your onset now.
- 10 Load me with scorn, reproach and shame;
My patient Master's portion give;
As evil still cast out my name,
Nor suffer such a wretch to live.
- 11 Set to thy seal that I am his;
Vile as my Lord I long to be:
My hope, my crown, my glory this,
Dying to conquer sin and thee.

Farewell to the World.<sup>4</sup>

- 1 World adieu, thou real cheat!
Oft have thy deceitful charms
Filled my heart with fond conceit,
Foolish hopes and false alarms:

<sup>4</sup>Source: Antoinette Bourignon. First appeared in HSP (1739), 17–19.

Now I see as clear as day,
How thy follies pass away.

- 2 Vain thy entertaining sights,
False thy promises renewed,
All the pomp of thy delights
Does but flatter and delude:
Thee I quit for heav'n above,
Object of the noblest love.
- 3 Farewell honour's empty pride!
Thy own nice, uncertain gust,
If the least mischance betide,
Lays thee lower than the dust;
Worldly honours end in gall,
Rise today, tomorrow fall.
- 4 Foolish vanity, farewell,
More inconstant than the wave!
Where thy soothing fancies dwell,
Purest tempers they deprave:
He, to whom I fly from thee,
Jesus Christ shall set me free.
- 5 Never shall my wand'ring mind
Follow after fleeting toys,
Since in God alone I find
Solid and substantial joys;
Joys that never overpassed,
Through eternity shall last.
- 6 Lord, how happy is a heart,
After thee while it aspires!
True and faithful as thou art,
Thou shalt answer its desires:
It shall see the glorious scene
Of thy everlasting reign.

Discipline.<sup>5</sup>

- 1        O throw away thy rod,
          O throw away thy wrath!
My gracious Saviour and my God,
          O take the gentle path.
- 2        Thou seest my heart's desire
          Still unto thee is bent:
Still does my longing soul aspire
          To an entire consent.
- 3        Not ev'n a word or look
          Do I approve or own,
But by the model of thy book,
          Thy sacred book alone.
- 4        Although I fail, I weep;
          Although I halt in pace,
Yet still with trembling steps I creep
          Unto the throne of grace.
- 5        O then let wrath remove:
          For love will do the deed!
Love will the conquest gain; with love
          Ev'n stony hearts will bleed.
- 6        For love is swift of foot,
          Love is a man of war;
Love can resistless arrows shoot,
          And hit the mark from far.

7       Who can escape his bow?
          That which hath wrought on thee,
Which brought the King of Glory low,
          Must surely work on me.

8       O throw away thy rod;
          What though man frailties hath!
Thou art my Saviour and my God!
          O throw away thy wrath!

A Prayer Under Convictions.<sup>6</sup>

1       Father of light, from whom proceeds
          Whate'er thy every creature needs,
          Whose goodness providently nigh
          Feeds the young ravens when they cry;
          To thee I look; my heart prepare,
          Suggest, and hearken to my pray'r.

2       Since by thy light myself I see
          Naked, and poor, and void of thee,
          Thine eyes must all my thoughts survey,
          Preventing what my lips would say:
          Thou seest my wants! For help they call,
          And ere I speak, thou know'st them all.

3       Thou know'st the baseness of my mind,
          Wayward, and impotent and blind:
          Thou know'st how unsubdued my will,
          Averse to good, and prone to ill:
          Thou know'st how wide my passions rove,
          Nor checked by fear, nor charmed by love.

- 4 Fain would I know, as known by thee,
And feel the indigence I see;
Fain would I all my vileness own,
And deep beneath the burden groan;
Abhor the pride that lurks within,
Detest and loath myself and sin.
- 5 Ah give me, Lord, myself to feel,
My total misery reveal:
Ah give me, Lord, (I still would say)
A heart to mourn, a heart to pray;
My business this, my only care,
My life, my every breath be pray'r.
- 6 Scarce I begin my sad complaint,
When all my warmest wishes faint;
Hardly I lift my weeping eye,
When all my kindling ardors die;
Nor hopes nor fears my bosom move,
For still I cannot, cannot love.
- 7 Father, I want a thankful heart!
I want to taste how good thou art.
To plunge me in thy mercy's sea,
And comprehend thy love to me;
The breadth, and length, and depth, and height
Of love divinely infinite.
- 8 Father, I long my soul to raise.
And dwell forever on thy praise,
Thy praise with glorious joy to tell,
In ecstasy unspeakable;
While the full pow'r of FAITH I know,

Heb[rews] 12:2.<sup>7</sup>
“Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith.”

- 1    Weary of struggling with my pain,
      Hopeless to burst my nature’s chain,
      Hardly I give the contest o’er,
      I seek to free myself no more.

- 2    From my own works at last I cease,
      God that creates must seal my peace;
      Fruitless my toil, and vain my care,
      And all my fitness is despair.

- 3    Lord, I despair myself to heal,
      I see my sin, but cannot feel:
      I cannot, till thy Spirit blow,
      And bid th’ obedient waters flow.

- 4    ’Tis thine a heart of flesh to give,
      Thy gifts I only can receive:
      Here then to thee I all resign,
      To draw, redeem, and seal is thine.

- 5    With simple faith, to thee I call,
      My light, my life, my Lord, my all:
      I wait the moving of the pool,
      I wait the word that speaks me whole.

- 6 Speak gracious Lord, my sickness cure,
Make my infected nature pure;
Peace, righteousness and joy impart,
And pour thyself into my heart.

Hymn of Thanksgiving to the Father.<sup>8</sup>

- 1           Thee, O my God and King,
          My Father, thee I sing!
Hear well-pleased the joyous sound,
          Praise from earth and heav'n receive;
Lost, I now in Christ am found,
          Dead, by faith in Christ I live.
- 2           Father, behold thy son,
          In Christ I am thy own.
Stranger long to thee and rest,
          See the prodigal is come:
Open wide thine arms and breast,
          Take the weary wand'rer home.
- 3           Thine eye observed from far,
          Thy pity looked me near:
Me thy bowels yearned to see,
          Me thy mercy ran to find,
Empty, poor, and void of thee,
          Hungry, sick, and faint, and blind.
- 4           Thou on my neck didst fall,
          Thy kiss forgave me all:

Still the gracious words I hear,
Words that made the Saviour mine,
Haste, for him the robe prepare,
His be righteousness divine.

5           Thee then, my God, and King,
          My Father, thee I sing!
Hear well-pleased the joyous sound
          Praise from earth and heav'n receive;
Lost, I now in Christ am found,
          Dead, by faith in Christ I live.

The Invitation.
From Herbert.<sup>9</sup>

1    Come hither all, whose grov'ling taste
      Enslaves your souls, and lays them waste;
          Save your expense, and mend your cheer:
      Here God himself's prepared and dressed,
      Himself vouchsafes to be your feast,
          In whom alone all dainties are.

2    Come hither all, whom tempting wine
      Bows to your father Belial's shrine,
          Sin all your boast, and sense your God:
      Weep now for what you've drank amiss,
      And lose your taste for sensual bliss,
          By drinking here your Saviour's blood.

3    Come hither all, whom searching pain,
      Whom conscience's loud cries arraign,
          Producing all your sins to view:
      Taste; and dismiss your guilty fear,
      O taste and see that God is here
          To heal your souls and sin subdue.

- 4    Come hither all, whom careless joy
      Does with alluring force destroy,
          While loose ye range beyond your bounds:
      True joy is here, that passes quite,
      And all your transient mean delight
          Drowns, as a flood, the lower grounds.
- 5    Come hither all, whose idol-love,
      While fond the pleasing pain ye prove,
          Raises your foolish raptures high:
      True love is here; whose dying breath
      Gave life to us; who tasted death,
          And tasting once no more can die.
- 6    Lord, I have now invited all,
      And instant still the guests shall call:
          Still shall I all invite to thee:
      For, O my God, it seems but right
      In mine, thy meanest servant's sight,
          That where all is, there all should be!

On the Crucifixion.<sup>10</sup>

- 1    Behold the Saviour of mankind
      Nailed to the shameful tree!
      How vast the love that him inclined
          To bleed and die for thee!
- 2    Hark how he groans! While nature shakes,
      And earth's strong pillars bend!
      The temple's veil in sunder breaks,
          The solid marbles rend.

- 3 'Tis done! The precious ransom's paid;
    Receive my soul, he cries;
See where he bows his sacred head!
    He bows his head and dies!
- 4 But soon he'll break death's envious chain,
    And in full glory shine!
O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
    Was ever love like thine?

Part of the 63rd Chapter of Isaiah, Altered from Mr. Norris.<sup>11</sup>

- 1 No common vision this I see
In more than human majesty!
Who is this mighty hero, who,
With glorious terror on his brow?
His deep-dyed crimson robes outvie
The blushes of the morning sky:
Lo, how triumphant he appears,
And vict'ry in his visage bears!
- 2 How strong, how stately does he go?
Pompous and solemn is his pace,
And full of majesty his face.
Who is this mighty hero, who?
'Tis I, who to my promise stand:
I, who sin, death, hell, and the grave
Have foiled with this all-conquering hand:
'Tis I, the Lord, mighty to save.

- 3     Why wear'st thou then this crimson dye;
      Say thou all-conquering hero, why?
      Why do thy garments look all red,
      Like them that in the wine-vat tread?
      The wine-press I alone have trod,
      That pond'rous mass I plied alone,
      And with me to assist was none:
      A task, worthy the Son of God!
- 4     Angels stood trembling at the sight,
      Enraged, I put forth all my might,
      And down the engine pressed; the force
      Put frightened nature out of course;
      The blood gushed out, and chequered o'er
      My garments with its deepest gore;
      With glorious stains bedecked I stood,
      And writ my victory in blood.
- 5     The day, the signal day is come
      Vengeance of all my foes to take;
      The day, when death shall have its doom,
      And the dark kingdom's pow'rs shall shake.
      I looked, who to assist stood by;
      Trembled heav'n's hosts nor ventured nigh:
      Ev'n to my Father did I look
      In pain: my Father me forsook!
- 6     A while amazed I was to see
      None to uphold or comfort me:
      Then I arose in might arrayed,
      And called my fury to my aid;
      My single arm the battle won,
      And strait th' acclaiming hosts above
      Hymned, in new songs of joy and love,
      Jehovah and his conquering Son.

The Magnificat.<sup>12</sup>

- 1 My soul extols the mighty Lord,
In God the Saviour joys my heart;
Thou hast not my low state abhorred;
Now know I, thou my Saviour art.
- 2 Sorrows and sighs are fled away,
Peace now I feel, and joy, and rest;
Renewed I hail the festal day,
Henceforth by endless ages blest.
- 3 Great are the things which thou hast done,
How holy is thy name, O Lord!
How wondrous is thy mercy shown
To all that tremble at thy word!
- 4 Thy conqu'ring arm with terror crowned
Appeared, the humble to sustain:
And all the sons of pride have found
Their boasted wisdom void and vain.
- 5 The mighty, from their native sky
Cast down, thou hast in darkness bound;
And raised the worms of earth on high,
With majesty and glory crowned.
- 6 The rich have pined amidst their store,
Nor e'er the way of peace have trod;
Mean while the hungry souls thy pow'r
Filled with the fulness of their God.

<sup>12</sup>First appeared in HSP (1739), 134–35.

- 7 Come, Saviour, come, of old decreed!
Faithful and true be thou confessed;
By all earth's tribes in Abraham's seed
Henceforth through endless ages blest.

The Believer's Support.<sup>13</sup>

- 1 O thou, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart; it pants for thee:
O burst these bands, and set it free.
- 2 Wash out its stains, refine the dross,
Nail my affections to the cross!
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean, as thou, my Lord, art clean.
- 3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be thou my light, be thou my way:
No foes, no violence I fear,
No fraud, while thou, my God, art near.
- 4 When rising floods my head o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
Jesu, thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.
- 5 Saviour, where'er thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untired I follow thee:
O let thy hand support me still,
And lead me to thy holy hill.

- 6 If rough and thorny be my way,
My strength proportion to my day:
Till toil, and grief, and pain shall cease,
Where all is calm, and joy, and peace.

Living by Christ.<sup>14</sup>

- 1 Jesu, thy boundless love to me
No thought can reach, no tongue declare:
O knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there.
Thine wholly, thine alone I am:
Be thou alone my constant flame.
- 2 O grant, that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone:
O may thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown.
Strange fires far from my soul remove,
My every act, word, thought, be love.
- 3 O love, how cheering is thy ray?
All pain before thy presence flies!
Care, anguish, sorrow melt away
Where'er thy healing beams arise:
O Jesu, nothing may I see,
Nothing hear, feel or think but thee!
- 4 Unwearied may I this pursue,
Dauntless to the high prize aspire;
Hourly within my breast renew
This only<sup>15</sup> flame, this heav'nly fire;

And day and night be all my care
To guard this sacred treasure there.

5 My Saviour, thou thy love to me
In want, in shame, in pain hast showed,
For me on the accursed tree
Thou pouredst forth thy guiltless blood:
Thy wounds upon my heart impress,
Nor ought shall the lov'd stamp efface.

6 More hard than marble is my heart,
And foul with sins of deepest stain;
But thou the mighty Saviour art,
Nor flowed thy cleansing blood in vain.
Ah! Soften, melt this rock, and may
Thy blood wash all these stains away.

7 O that my heart, which open stands,
May catch each drop, that torturing pain
Armed by my sins, wrung from thy hands,
Thy feet, thy head, thy every vein:
That still my breast may heave with sighs,
Still tears of love o'erflow my eyes.

8 O that I, as a little child,
May follow thee, nor ever rest,
Till sweetly thou hast poured thy mild
And lowly mind into my breast:
Nor may we ever parted be
Till I become one spirit with thee.

9 O draw me, Saviour, after thee,
So shall I run and never tire:
With gracious words still comfort me;
Be thou my hope, my sole desire.

Free me from every weight; nor fear,
Nor sin can come, if thou art here.

- 10 My health, my light, my life, my crown,
My portion and my treasure thou!
O take me, seal me for thine own;
To thee alone my soul I bow.
Without thee all is pain; my mind
Repose in nought but thee can find.
- 11 Howe'er I rove, where'er I turn,
In thee alone is all my rest:
Be thou my flame, within me burn,
Jesu, and I in thee am blest.
Thou art the balm of life: my soul
Is faint; O save, O make it whole!
- 12 What in thy love possess I not?
My star by night, my sun by day;
My spring of life, when parched with drought;
My wine to cheer, my bread to stay,
My strength, my shield, my safe abode,
My robe before the throne of God!
- 13 Ah love! Thy influence withdrawn,
What profits me that I am born?
All my delight, my joy is gone,
Nor know I peace, till thou return.
Thee may I seek till I attain;
And never may we part again.
- 14 From all eternity with love
Unchangeable thou hast me viewed;
Ere knew this beating heart to move,
Thy tender mercies me pursued.

Ever with me may they abide,
And close me in on every side.

15 Still let thy love point out my way,
(How wondrous things thy love hath wrought)
Still lead me, lest I go astray,
Direct my work, inspire my thought:
And when I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

16 In suffering be thy love my peace,
In weakness be thy love my pow'r;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesu, in that important hour,
In death as life be thou my guide,
And save me, who for me hast died!

Hymn to Christ.<sup>16</sup>

1 Saviour, the world's and mine,
Was ever grief like thine?
Thou my pain, my curse hast took,
All my sins were laid on thee:
Help me, Lord, to thee I look;
Draw me, Saviour, after thee.

2 'Tis done! My God hath died,
My love is crucified!
Break, this stony heart of mine,
Pour, my eyes, a ceaseless flood,
Feel, my soul, the pangs divine,
Catch, my heart, th' issuing blood!

- 3           When, O my God, shall I
              For thee submit to die?
How the mighty debt repay,
              Rival of thy passion prove?
Lead me in thyself, the way,
              Melt my hardness into love.
- 4           To love is all my wish,
              I only live for this:
Grant me, Lord, my heart's desire,
              There by faith forever dwell;
This I always will require,
              Thee, and only thee to feel.
- 5           Thy pow'r I pant to prove,
              Rooted and fixed in love,
Strengthened by thy Spirit's might,
              Wise to fathom things divine,
What the length, and breadth, and height,
              What the depth of love like thine.
- 6           Ah! Give me this to know,
              With all thy saints below.
Swells my soul to compass thee,
              Gasps in thee to live and move,
Filled with all the deity,
              All immersed and lost in love!

Hymn to Christ the King.<sup>17</sup>

- 1           Jesu, thou art our King,
              To me thy succour bring.
Christ, the mighty one art thou,
              Help for all on thee is laid;
This the word; I claim it now,
              Send me now the promised aid.
- 2           High on thy Father's throne,
              O look with pity down!
Help, O help! Attend my call,
              Captive lead captivity,
King of glory, Lord of all,
              Christ, be Lord, be King to me!
- 3           I pant to feel thy sway,
              And only thee t' obey:
Thee my spirit gasps to meet,
              This my one, my ceaseless pray'r,
Make, O make my heart thy seat,
              O set up thy kingdom there!
- 4           Triumph, and reign in me,
              And spread thy victory;
Hell, and death, and sin control,
              Pride, and self, and every foe,
All subdue; through all my soul,
              Conqu'ring, and to conquer go.

Prayer to Christ Before the Sacrament.<sup>18</sup>

- 1 O thou, whom sinners love, whose care
Does all our sickness heal,
Thee we approach with hearts sincere,
Thy pow'r we joy to feel.
To thee our humblest thanks we pay,
To thee our souls we bow;
Of hell erewhile the helpless prey,
Heirs of thy glory now.

- 2 As incense to thy throne above
O let our pray'rs arise!
O wing with flames of holy love
Our living sacrifice.
Stir up thy strength, O Lord of might,
Our willing breasts inspire:
Fill our whole souls with heav'nly light,
Melt with seraphic fire.

- 3 From thy blest wounds our life we draw;
Thy all-atoning blood
Daily we drink with trembling awe;
Thy flesh our daily food.
Come, Lord, thy sov'reign aid impart,
Here make thy likeness shine!
Stamp thy whole image on our heart,
And all our souls be thine!

Hymn After the Sacrament.<sup>19</sup>

- 1 Sons of God, triumphant rise,
Shout th' accomplished sacrifice!
Shout your sins in Christ forgiv'n,
Sons of God, and heirs of heav'n!
- 2 Ye that round our altars throng,
List'ning angels join the song!
Sing with us, ye heav'nly pow'rs,
Pardon, grace, and glory ours!
- 3 Love's mysterious work is done!
Greet we now th' accepted Son,
Healed and quickened by his blood,
Joined to Christ, and one with God.
- 4 Christ, of all our hopes the seal;
Peace divine in Christ we feel,
Pardon to our souls applied:
Dead for all, for me he died!
- 5 Sin shall tyrannize no more,
Purged its guilt, dissolved its pow'r;
Jesus makes our hearts his throne,
There he lives, and reigns alone.
- 6 Grace our every thought controls,
Heav'n is opened in our souls,
Everlasting life is won,
Glory is on earth begun.

- [7] Christ in us; in him we see
Fulness of the deity.
Beam of the eternal beam;
Life divine we taste in him!
- 8 Him we only taste below;
Mightier joys ordained to know:
Him when fully ours we prove,
Ours the heav'n of perfect love!

Christ Protecting and Sanctifying.<sup>20</sup>

- 1 O Jesu, source of calm repose,
Thy like nor man, nor angel knows;
    Fairest among ten thousand fair!
Ev'n those whom death's sad fetters bound,
Whom thickest darkness compassed round,
    Find light and life, if thou appear.
- 2 Effulgence of the light divine,
Ere rolling planets knew to shine,
    Ere time its ceaseless course began;
Thou, when th' appointed hour was come,
Didst not abhor the virgin's womb,
    But God with God, wert man with man.
- 3 The world, sin, death, oppose in vain,
Thou by thy dying death hast slain,
    My great Deliv'rer and my God!
In vain does the old dragon rage,
In vain all hell its pow'rs engage;
    None can withstand thy conqu'ring blood.

- 4 Lord over all, sent to fulfil
Thy gracious Father's sov'reign will,
To thy dread sceptre will I bow:
With dut'ous rev'ence at thy feet,
Like humble Mary, lo, I sit:
Speak, Lord, thy servant heareth now.
- 5 Renew thy image, Lord, in me,
Lowly and gentle may I be;
No charms but these to thee are dear:
No anger may'st thou ever find,
No pride in my unruffled mind,
But faith and heav'n-born peace be there.
- 6 A patient, a victorious mind
That, life and all things cast behind,
Springs forth, obedient to thy call,
A heart, that no desire can move,
But still t' adore, believe and love,
Give me, my Lord, my life, my all.

Public Worship.<sup>21</sup>

- 1 Lo, God is here! Let us adore,
And own, how dreadful is this place!
Let all within us feel his pow'r,
And silent bow before his face.
Who know his pow'r, his grace who prove,
Serve him with awe, with rev'ence love.

- 2    Lo, God is here! Him day and night
      Th' united choirs of angels sing:
      To him enthroned above all height
      Heav'n's hosts their noblest praises bring:
      Disdain not, Lord, our meaner song,
      Who praise thee with a stamm'ring tongue.
- 3    Gladly the toys of earth we leave,
      Wealth, pleasure, fame, for thee alone:
      To thee our will, soul, flesh we give;
      O take, O seal them for thy own.
      Thou art the God; thou art the Lord:
      Be thou by all thy works adored!
- 4    Being of beings, may our praise
      Thy courts with grateful fragrance fill,
      Still may we stand before thy face,
      Still hear and do thy sov'reign will.
      To thee may all our thoughts arise,
      Ceaseless, accepted sacrifice!
- 5    In thee we move. All things of thee
      Are full, thou source and life of all!
      Thou vast, unfathomable sea!
      Fall prostrate, lost in wonder, fall
      Ye sons of men; for God is man!
      All we may lose,<sup>22</sup> so thee we gain!
- 6    As flow'rs their op'ning leaves display,
      And glad drink in the solar fire,
      So may we catch thy every ray,
      So may thy influence us inspire:
      Thou beam of the eternal beam,
      Thou purging fire, thou quick'ning flame!

Acts 2:41ff.<sup>23</sup>

- 1 The word pronounced, the gospel-word,
The crowd with various hearts received:
In many a soul the Saviour stirred,
Three thousand yielded, and believed.
- 2 These by th' apostles' counsels led,
With them in mighty pray'rs combined,
Broke the commemorative bread,
Nor from the fellowship declined.
- 3 God from above, with ready grace,
And deeds of wonder, guards his flock,
Trembles the world before their face,
By Jesus crushed, their Conqu'ring Rock.
- 4 The happy band whom Christ redeems,
One only will, one judgment know:
None this contentious earth esteems,
Distinctions, or delights below.
- 5 The men of worldly wealth possessed,
Their selfish happiness remove,
Sell, and divide it to the rest,
And buy the blessedness of love.
- 6 Thus in the presence of their God,
Jesus their life, and heav'n their care,
With single heart they took their food
Heightened by Eucharist and pray'r.

7 God in their every work was praised:

Gratitude for Our Conversion.<sup>24</sup>

1 Thee will I love, my strength, my tow'r,
Thee will I love, my joy, my crown,
Thee will I love with all my pow'r,
In all my works, and thee alone!
Thee will I love till the pure fire
Fill my whole soul with chaste desire.

2 Ah! Why did I so late thee know,
Thee, lovelier than the sons of men!
Ah! Why did I no sooner go
To thee, the only ease in pain!
Ashamed I sigh, and inly mourn
That I so late to thee did turn.

3 In darkness willingly I strayed,
I sought thee, yet from thee I roved:
For wide my wand'ring thoughts were spread,
Thy creatures more than thee I lov'd.
And now, if more at length I see,
'Tis through thy light, and comes from thee.

4 I thank thee, uncreated Sun,
That thy bright beams on me have shined:

I thank thee, who hast overthrown
My foes, and healed my wounded mind:
I thank thee, whose enliv'ning voice
Bids my free heart in thee rejoice.

- 5 Uphold me in the doubtful race,
Nor suffer me again to stray:
Strengthen my feet with steady pace
Still to press forward in thy way.
My soul and flesh, O Lord of might,
Fill, satiate with thy heav'nly light.
- 6 Give to my eyes refreshing tears,
Give to my heart chaste, hallowed fires,
Give to my soul with filial fears
The love that all heav'n's host inspires:
"That all my pow'rs with all their might
In thy sole glory may unite."
- 7 Thee will I love, my joy, my crown!
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God!
Thee will I love, beneath thy frown
Or smile, thy sceptre, or thy rod.
What though my flesh and heart decay!
Thee shall I love in endless day!

Boldness in the Gospel.<sup>25</sup>

- 1 Shall I, for fear of feeble man,
Thy Spirit's course in me restrain?
Or undismayed, in deed and word
Be a true witness to my Lord?

- 2     Awed by a mortal's frown, shall I
      Conceal the word of God most high?
      How then before thee shall I dare
      To stand, or how thy anger bear?
- 3     Shall I, to soothe th' unholy throng,
      Soften thy truths, and smooth my tongue?
      To gain earth's gilded toys, or flee
      The cross endured, my God by thee?
- 4     What then is he, whose scorn I dread?
      Whose wrath or hate makes me afraid?
      A man! An heir of death, a slave
      To sin! A bubble on the wave!
- 5     Yea, let man rage! Since thou wilt spread
      Thy shadowing wing around my head:
      Since in all pain thy tender love
      Will still my sweet refreshment prove.
- 6     Saviour of men! Thy searching eye
      Does all my inmost thoughts descry:
      Doth ought on earth my wishes raise;
      Or the world's favour, or its praise?
- 7     The love of Christ does me constrain
      To seek the wand'ring souls of men:
      With cries, entreaties, tears, to save,
      To snatch them from the gaping grave.

- 8 For this let men revile my name,
No cross I shun, I fear no shame:
All hail, reproach, and welcome pain!
Only thy terrors, Lord, restrain.
- 9 My life, my blood, I here present;
If for thy truth they may be spent,
Fulfil thy sov'reign counsel, Lord!
Thy will be done! Thy name adored!
- 10 Give me thy strength, O God of pow'r!
Then let winds blow, or thunders roar,
Thy faithful witness will I be—
'Tis fixed! I can do all through thee!

- 5 Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of righteousness!
Light, and life, and all he brings,<sup>27</sup>
Ris'n with healing in his wings.
- 6 Mild he lays his glory by,
Born—that man no more may die,
Born—to raise the sons of earth,
Born—to give them second birth.
- 7 Come, desire of nations, come,
Fix in us thy humble home,
Rise, the woman's conqu'ring seed,
Bruise in us the serpent's head.
- 8 Now display thy saving pow'r,
Ruined nature now restore,
Now in mystic union join
Thine to ours, and ours to thine.
- 9 Adam's likeness, Lord, efface,
Stamp thy image in its place,
Second Adam from above,
Reinstate us in thy love.
- 10 Let us thee, though lost, regain,
Thee, the life, the inner man:
O! To all thyself impart,
Formed in each believing heart.

- 1 Sons of men, behold him far
Hail the long-expected star!
Jacob's star that gilds the night,
Guides bewildered nature right.
- 2 Fear not hence that ill should flow,
Wars or pestilence below,
Wars it bids, and tumults cease,
Ush'ring in the Prince of Peace.
- 3 Mild he shines on all beneath,
Piercing through the shade of death,
Scatt'ring error's wide-spread night,
Kindling darkness into light.
- 4 Nations all, far off and near,
Haste to see your God appear!
Haste, for him your hearts prepare,
Meet him manifested there!
- 5 There behold the Day-Spring rise,
Pouring eyesight on your eyes,
God in his own light survey,
Shining to the perfect day.
- 6 Sing, ye morning stars again,
God descends on earth to reign,
Deigns for man his life t' employ,
Shout, ye sons of God, for joy!

- 1    “Christ, the Lord, is ris’n today,”
      Sons of men and angels say,
      Raise your joys and triumphs high,
      Sing ye heav’ns, and earth reply.

- 2    Love’s redeeming work is done,
      Fought the fight, the battle won;
      Lo! Our sun’s eclipse is o’er,
      Lo! He sets in blood no more.

- 3    Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
      Christ has burst the gates of hell;
      Death in vain forbids his rise:
      Christ has opened paradise!

- 4    Lives again our glorious King,
      Where, O death, is now thy sting?
      Dying once he all doth save,
      Where thy victory, O grave?

- 5    Soar we now, where Christ has led?
      Following our exalted head,
      Made like him, like him we rise,
      Ours the cross—the grave—the skies!

- 6    What though once we perished all,
      Partners in our parent’s fall?
      Second life we all receive,
      In our heav’nly Adam live.

- 7     Master, (will we ever say)
      Taken from our head today;
      See thy faithful servants, see!
      Ever gazing up to thee.
- 8     Grant, though parted from our sight,
      High above yon azure height,

Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following thee beyond the skies.

- 9 Ever upward let us move,
Wafted on the wings of love,
Looking when our Lord shall come,
Longing, gasping after home.
- 10 There we shall with thee remain,
Partners of thy endless reign;
There thy face unclouded see,
Find our heav'n of heav'ns in thee!

Hymn for Whitsunday.<sup>32</sup>

- 1 Granted is the Saviour's pray'r,
Sent the gracious Comforter;
Promise of our parting Lord,
Jesus to his heav'n restored:
- 2 Christ; who now gone up on high,
Captive leads captivity,
While his foes from him receive
Grace, that God with man may live.
- 3 God, the everlasting God,
Makes with mortals his abode,
Whom the heav'ns cannot contain,
He vouchsafes to dwell in man.

- 4 Never will he thence depart,
Inmate of an humble heart;
Carrying on his work within,
Striving till he cast out sin.
- 5 There he helps our feeble moans,
Deepens our imperfect groans;
Intercedes in silence there,
Sighs th' unutterable pray'r.
- 6 Come, divine and peaceful guest,
Enter our devoted breast;
Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire,
Kindle there the gospel-fire.
- 7 Crown the agonizing strife,
Principle, and Lord of life;
Life divine in us renew,
Thou the gift and giver too:
- 8 Now descend and shake the earth,
Wake us into second birth;
Now thy quick'ning influence give,
Blow—and these dry bones shall live.
- 9 Brood thou o'er our nature's night,
Darkness kindles into light;
Spread thy over-shadowing wings,
Order from confusion springs.
- 10 Pain, and sin, and sorrow cease,
Thee we taste, and all is peace;
Joy divine in thee we prove,
Light of truth, and fire of love.

John 16:24.<sup>33</sup>
“Ask, and ye shall receive,
that your joy may be full.”

- 1 Rise, my soul, with ardor rise,
Breathe thy wishes to the skies;
Freely pour out all thy mind,
Seek, and thou art sure to find;
Ready art thou to receive?
Readier is thy God to give.
- 2 Heav'nly Father, God of all,
Hear, and show thou hear'st my call;
Let my cries thy throne assail
Ent'ring now within the veil:
Give the benefits I claim—
Lord, I ask in Jesu's name!
- 3 Friend of sinners, King of saints,
Answer my minutest wants,
All my largest thoughts require,
Grant me all my heart's desire,
Give me, till my cup run o'er,
All, and infinitely more.
- 4 Meek and lowly be my mind,
Pure my heart, my will resigned!
Keep me dead to all below,
Only Christ resolved to know,
Firm, and disengaged, and free,
Seeking all my bliss in thee.

- 5 Suffer me no more to grieve,
Wanting what thou long'st to give,
Show me all thy goodness, Lord,
Beaming from th' incarnate Word,
Christ, in whom thy glories shine,
Efflux of the light divine.
- 6 Since the Son hath made me free,
Let me taste my liberty,
Thee behold with open face,
Triumph in thy saving grace,
Thy great will delight to prove,
Glory in thy perfect love.
- 7 Since the Son hath bought my peace,
Mine thou art, as I am his:
Mine the Comforter I see,
Christ is full of grace for me:
Mine (the purchase of his blood)
All the plenitude of God.
- 8 Abba Father! Hear thy child
Late in Jesus reconciled!
Hear, and all the graces show'r,
All the joy, and peace, and pow'r,
All my Saviour asks above,
All the life and heav'n of love.
- 9 Lord, I will not let thee go,
Till THE BLESSING thou bestow:
Hear my advocate divine:
Lo; to his my suit I join:
Joined to his it cannot fail—
Bless me, for I will prevail.

- 10 Stoop from thy eternal throne,
See, thy promise calls thee down!
High and lofty as thou art,
Dwell within my worthless heart!
Here,<sup>34</sup> a fainting soul revive;
Here forever walk and live.
- 11 Heav'nly Adam, life divine,
Change my nature into thine:
Move, and spread throughout my soul,
Actuate and fill the whole:
Be it I no longer now,
Living in the flesh, but thou.
- 12 Holy Ghost, no more delay,
Come, and in thy temple stay;
Now thy inward witness bear,
Strong, and permanent, and clear;
Spring of life, thyself impart,
Rise eternal in my heart!

Longing.<sup>35</sup>

- 1 With bending knees, and aching eyes,
Weary and faint, to thee my cries,
To thee my tears, my groans I send:
O when shall my complainings end?
- 2 Withered my heart, like barren ground
Accurs'd of God; my head turns round,
My throat is hoarse: I faint, I fall,
Yet falling, still for pity call.

- 3 Eternal streams of pity flow,
From thee their source to earth below:
Mothers are kind, because thou art,
Thy tenderness o'erflows their heart.
- 4 Lord of my soul, bow down thine ear,
Hear, bowels of compassion, hear!
O give not to the winds my pray'r:
Thy name, thy hallowed name is there!
- 5 Look on my sorrows, mark them well,
The shame, the pangs, the fires I feel;
Consider, Lord, thine ear incline!
Thy Son hath made my sufferings thine.
- 6 Thou, Jesu, on th' accursed tree
Didst bow thy dying head for me;
Incline it now! Who made the ear,
Shall he, shall he forget to hear!
- 7 See thy poor dust, in pity see,
It stirs, it creeps, it aims at thee!
Haste, save it from the greedy tomb!
Come!—Every atom bids thee come!
- 8 'Tis thine to help! Forget me not!
O be thy mercy ne'er forgot!
Locked is thy ear! Yet still my plea
May speed; for mercy keeps the key.
- 9 Thou tarriest, while I sink, I die,
And fall to nothing! Thou on high
Seest me undone. Yet am I stilled
By thee (lost as I am) thy child!

- 10 Didst thou for this forsake thy throne?
Where are thy ancient mercies gone?
Why should my pain, my guilt survive,
And sin be dead, yet sorrow live?
- 11 Yet sin is dead; and yet abide
Thy promises; they speak, they chide:
They in my bosom pour my tears,
And my complaints present as theirs.
- 12 Hear, Jesu! Hear my broken heart!
Broken so long, that every part
Hath got a tongue that ne'er shall cease,
Till thou pronounce, "Depart in peace."
- 13 My love, my Saviour, hear my cry;
By these thy feet at which I lie!
Pluck out thy dart! Regard my sighs;
Now heal my soul, or now it dies.

God's Love to Mankind.<sup>36</sup>

- 1 O God, of good th' unfathomed sea,
Who would not give his heart to thee?
Who would not love thee with his might?
O Jesu, lover of mankind,
Who would not his whole soul and mind
With all his strength to thee unite?
- 2 Thou shin'st with everlasting rays;
Before th' unsufferable blaze

Angels with both wings veil their eyes:
Yet free as air thy bounty streams
On all thy works, thy mercy's beams,
Diffusive as thy sun's, arise.

3 Astonished at thy frowning brow,
Earth, hell and heav'n's strong pillars bow,
Terrible majesty is thine!
Who then can that vast love express
Which bows thee down to me, who less
Than nothing am, till thou art mine?

4 High-throned on heav'n's eternal hill,
In number, weight, and measure still
Thou sweetly order'st all that is:
And yet thou deign'st to come to me,
And guide my steps, that I with thee
Enthroned, may reign in endless bliss.

5 Fountain of good, all blessing flows
From thee; no want thy fulness knows:
What but thyself canst thou desire?
Yes; self-sufficient as thou art,
Thou dost desire my worthless heart,
This, only this thou dost require.

6 Primeval beauty! In thy sight
The first-born, fairest sons of light
See all their brightest glories fade:
What then to me thy eyes could turn,
In sin conceived, of woman born,
A worm, a leaf, a blast, a shade?

7 Hell's armies tremble at thy nod,
And trembling own th' Almighty God

Sov'reign of earth, air, hell and sky.
But who is this that comes from far,
Whose garments rolled in blood appear?
'Tis God made man, for man to die!

- 8 O God, of good th' unfathomed sea,
Who would not give his heart to thee?
Who would not love thee with his might?
O Jesu, lover of mankind,
Who would not his whole soul, and mind,
With all his strength, to thee unite?

Hymn on the Titles of Christ.<sup>37</sup>

- 1 Arise my soul, arise
Thy Saviour's sacrifice!
All the names that love could find,
All the forms that love could take,
Jesus in himself has joined,
Thee, my soul, his own to make.
- 2 Equal with God most high,
He laid his glory by:
He, th' eternal God, was born,
Man with men he deigned t' appear,
Object of his creature's scorn,
Pleased a servant's form to wear.
- 3 Hail everlasting Lord,
Divine, incarnate Word!
Thee let all my pow'rs confess,
Thee my latest breath proclaim;
Help, ye angel choirs to bless,
Shout the lov'd Immanuel's name.

4           Fruit of a virgin's womb
              The promised blessing's come:
Christ, the fathers' hope of old,
              Christ, the Woman's conqu'ring Seed,
Christ, the Saviour, long foretold,
              Born to bruise the serpent's head.

5           Refulgent from afar,
              See the bright Morning-Star!
See the Day-Spring from on high,
              Late in deepest darkness, rise,
Night recedes, the shadows fly,
              Flame with day the op'ning skies!

6           Our eyes on earth survey
              The dazzling Shechinah!
Bright in endless glory bright;
              Now in flesh he stoops to dwell,
God of God, and light of light,
              Image of th' invisible.

7           He shines on earth adored,
              The Presence of the LORD:
God, the mighty God and true,
              God by highest heav'n confessed,
Stands displayed to mortal view,
              God supreme, forever blest.

8           Jesu! To thee I bow,
              Th' Almighty's Fellow thou!
Thou the Father's only Son;
              Pleased he ever is in thee,
Just, and holy, thou alone,
              Full of grace and truth—for me.

- 9           High above every name,
              Jesus, the great I AM!
Bows to JESUS every knee,
              Things in heav'n, and earth, and hell,
Saints adore him, demons flee,
              Fiends, and men, and angels feel.
- 10           He left his throne above,
              Emptied of all, but love:
Whom the heav'ns cannot contain
              God vouchsafed a worm t' appear,
Lord of glory, Son of man,
              Poor, and vile, and abject here.
- 11           His own on earth he sought,
              His own received him not:
Him, a sign by all blasphemed,
              Outcast and despised of men,
Him they all a madman deemed,
              Bold to scoff the Nazarene.
- 12           Hail Galilean King!
              Thy humble state I sing;
Never shall my triumphs end,
              Hail derided majesty,
Jesus, hail! The sinner's friend,
              Friend of Publicans—and me!
- 13           Thine eye observed my pain,
              Thou good Samaritan!
Spoiled I lay, and bruised by sin,
              Gasp'd my faint, expiring soul,
Wine and oil thy love poured in,
              Closed my wounds, and made me whole.

14           Hail the life-giving Lord,
              Divine, engrafted word!
Thee the Life my soul has found,
              Thee the Resurrection proved:
Dead I heard the quick'ning sound,
              Owned thy voice; believed and lov'd!

15           With thee gone up on high
              I live, no more to die:
First and Last, I feel thee now,
              Witness of thy empty tomb,
Alpha and Omega thou
              Wast, and art, and art to come!

Hymn to Christ.<sup>38</sup>

1           Still, O my soul prolong
              The never-ceasing song!
Christ my theme, my hope, my joy;
              His be all my happy days,
Praise my every hour employ,
              Every breath be spent in praise.

2           His would I wholly be
              Who lived and died for me:
Grief was all his life below,
              Pain, and poverty, and loss:
Mine the sins that bruised him so,
              Scourged and nailed him to the cross.

- 3           He bore the curse of all,
          A spotless criminal:
Burdened with a world of guilt,
          Blackened with imputed sin,
Man to save his blood he spilt,
          Died, to make the sinner clean.
- 4           Join earth and heav'n to bless
          The LORD our righteousness!
Myst'ry of redemption this,
          This the Saviour's strange design,
Man's offence was counted his,
          Ours is righteousness divine.
- 5           Far as our parent's fall
          The gift is come to all:
Sinned we all, and died in one?
          Just in one we all are made,
Christ the law fulfilled alone,
          Died for all, for all obeyed.
- 6           In him complete we shine,
          His death, his life is mine.
Fully am I justified,
          Free from sin, and more than free;
Guiltless, since for me he died,
          Righteous, since he lived for me!
- 7           Jesu! To thee I bow,
          Saved to the utmost now.
O the depth of love divine!
          Who thy wisdom's stores can tell?
Knowledge infinite is thine,
          All thy ways unsearchable!

[Lord, Not Unto Me.]<sup>39</sup>

- 1 Lord, not unto me
    (The whole I disclaim)
All glory to thee
    Through Jesus's name!
Thy gifts and thy graces
    Poured down from above,
Demand all our praises,
    Our thanks, and our love.

- 2 Thy faithfulness, Lord,
    Each moment we find,
So true to thy word,
    So loving and kind;
Thy mercy so tender
    To all the lost race,
The foulest offender
    May turn, and find grace.

- 3 The mercy I feel,
    To others I show,
I set to my seal
    That Jesus is true;
Ye all may find favour
    Who come at his call;
O! Come to my Saviour,
    His grace is for all.

- 4 To save what was lost
    From heaven he came:
Come, sinners, and trust
    In Jesus's name;
He offers you pardon,
    He bids you "Be free,
If sin is your burden,
    O! Come unto me!"

5 O let me commend
My Saviour to you,
The publican's friend
And advocate too:
For you he is pleading
His merits and death
With God interceding
For sinners beneath.

6 Then let us submit
His grace to receive,
Fall down at his feet,
And gladly believe;
We all are forgiven
For Jesus's sake,
Our title to heaven
His merits we take.

[Justified, But Not Sanctified.]<sup>40</sup>

1 My God (if I may call thee mine
From heav'n and thee removed so far)
Draw nigh; thy pitying ear incline,
And cast not out my languid pray'r.
Gently the weak thou lov'st to lead,
Thou lov'st to prop the feeble knee;
O break not then a bruised reed,
Nor quench the smoking flax in me.

2 Buried in sin, thy voice I hear,
And burst the barriers of my tomb,
In all the marks of death appear,
Forth at thy call, though bound, I come.
Give me, O give me fully, Lord,
Thy resurrection's pow'r to know:

---

<sup>40</sup>First appeared in HSP (1739), 150–52, entitled “Justified, But Not Sanctified.” This title has been used above since HSP (1747) does not include a title for the hymn.

Free me indeed, pronounce the word,
And loose my bands, and let me go.

3 Fain would I go to thee, my God,
Thy mercies and my wants to tell:
I feel my pardon sealed in blood;
Saviour thy love I wait to feel.
Freed from the pow'r of canceled sin:
When shall my soul triumphant prove?
Why breaks not out the fire within
In flames of joy and praise and love?

4 When shall my eye affect my heart,
Sweetly dissolved in gracious tears?
Ah, Lord, the stone to flesh convert!
And till thy lovely face appears,
Still may I at thy footstool keep,
And watch the smile of op'ning heav'n:
Much would I pray, and love, and weep;
I would, for I have much forgiv'n.

5 Yet, O! Ten thousand lusts remain,
And vex my soul absolved from sin,
Still rebel nature strives to reign,
Still am I all unclean, unclean!
Assailed by pride, allured by sense,
On earth the creatures court my stay;
False flatt'ring idols, get ye hence,
Created good be far away!

6 Jesu, to thee my soul aspires,
Jesu, to thee I plight my vows,
Keep me from earthly base desires,
My God, my Saviour, and my spouse.
Fountain of all-sufficient bliss,
Thou art the good I seek below;

Fulness of joy in thee there is,
Without 'tis mis'ry all and woe.

7 Take this poor wand'ring, worthless heart,
Its wand'rings all to thee are known,
May no false rival claim a part,
Nor sin disseize thee of thine own.
Stir up thy interposing pow'r,
Save me from sin, from idols save,
Snatch me from fierce temptation's hour,
And hide, O hide me in the grave!

8 I know thou wilt accept me now,
I know my sins are now forgiv'n!
My head to death O let me bow,
Nor keep my life, to lose my heav'n.
Far from this snare my soul remove,
This only cup I would decline,
I deprecate a creature-love,
O take me, to secure me thine.

9 Or if thy wiser will ordain
The trial I would die to shun,
Welcome the strife, the grief, the pain,
Thy name be praised, thy will be done!
I from thy hand the cup receive,
Meekly submit to thy decree,
Gladly for thee consent to live!
Thou, Lord, hast lived, hast died for me!

Isaiah 43:1–3.<sup>41</sup>

<sup>41</sup>First appeared in HSP (1739), 153–54.

The Lord protects forever near:
His blood for me did once atone,
And still he loves, and guards his own.

- 2    When passing through the watry deep,
      I ask in faith his promised aid,
      The waves an awful distance keep,
      And shrink from my devoted head:
      Fearless their violence I dare,
      They cannot harm, for God is there!
- 3    To him my eye of faith I turn,
      And through the fire pursue my way;
      The fire forgets its pow'r to burn,
      The lambent flames around me play:
      I own his pow'r, accept the sign,
      And shout to prove the Saviour mine.
- 4    Still nigh me, O my Saviour, stand,
      And guard in fierce temptation's hour;
      Hide in the hollow of thy hand,
      Show forth in me thy saving pow'r:
      Still be thy arm my sure defence,
      Nor earth nor hell shall pluck me thence.
- 5    Since thou hast bid me come to thee,
      (Good as thou art, and strong to save)
      I'll walk o'er life's tempest'ous sea,
      Upborne by the unyielding wave;
      Dauntless, though rocks of pride be near,
      And yawning whirlpools of despair.
- 6    When darkness intercepts the skies,
      And sorrow's waves around me roll;

When high the storms of passion rise,
And half o'erwhelm my sinking soul;
My soul a sudden calm shall feel,
And hear a whisper, "Peace, be still."

- 7    Though in affliction's furnace tried,
        Unhurt, on snares and deaths I'll tread;
Though sin assail, and hell thrown wide
        Pour all its flames upon my head,
Like Moses' bush I'll mount the higher,
And flourish unconsumed in fire.

Men:    Lower than you our souls he made;
                But he redeemed them too.
- 3    Ang:    As gods we did in glory shine,
                Before the world began:
Men:    Our nature too becomes divine,
                And God himself is man.

- 5 Ang: Spirits like him he made us be,
A pure ethereal flame:
Men: Joined to the Lord, one spirit we
With Jesus are the same.
- 6 Ang: We see him on his dazzling throne,
Crowns he to us imparts:
Men: To us the King of kings comes down
And reigns within our hearts.
- 7 Ang: Pure as he did at first create,
We angels never fell:
Men: He saves us in<sup>45</sup> our lost estate,
He rescues man from hell.
- 8 Ang: When others sinned,<sup>46</sup> we faithful proved,
His love preserved us true:
Men: Yet own that we are more belov'd,
He never died for you.
- 9 Ang: Worms of the earth, to you we own
The nobler grace is giv'n:
[Men]: Then praise with us the great Three One
Till we all meet in heav'n.

For me?—Who him to death pursued.

Amazing love! How can it be
That thou, my God, should'st die for me?

- 2 'Tis myst'ry all! Th' immortal dies!
Who can explore his strange design?
In vain the first-born seraph tries
To sound the depths of love divine.
'Tis mercy all! Let earth adore;
Let angel minds enquire no more.
- 3 He left his Father's throne above,
(So free, so infinite his grace!)
Emptied himself of all, but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race:
'Tis mercy all, immense and free!
For, O my God, it found out me!
- 4 Long my imprisoned spirit lay,
Fast bound in sin and nature's night:
Thine eye diffused a quick'ning ray;
I woke; the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed thee.
- 5 Still the small inward voice I hear,
That whispers all my sins forgiv'n:
Still th' atoning blood is near,
That quenched the wrath of hostile heav'n:
I feel the life his wounds impart,
I feel my Saviour in my heart.
- 6 No condemnation now I dread,
Jesus, and all in him, is mine:
Alive in him, my living head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach th' eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ, my own.
