

*Hymns and Sacred Poems (1749), Vol. 2*¹

[Baker list, #171]

Editorial Introduction:

This two-volume collection was gathered by Charles Wesley, and is composed entirely of his own work over the last decade. The stimulus for the collection was the need to demonstrate to the parents of Sarah (Sally) Gwynne that he could provide sufficient financial support in their proposed marriage. The formal proposal to raise subscribers for printing the two-volume set was dated Dec. 18, 1748. The first subscriber was Sarah Gwynne. A copy of the proposal and an invoice for Sally's subscription were included in a letter from Charles to Sally dated Dec. 27, 1748.² Charles copyrighted the volumes by entering them into the register at Stationer's Hall, London on July 12, 1749. The volumes sold well enough to have a second printing. The few revisions in this second edition were limited mainly to incorporating the errata suggestions into the text (pagination remains identical). There were 685 copies of this second printing remaining in the inventory at John Wesley's house, London in 1791.

Sixteen of the hymns in this collection had appeared before in scattered settings, typically attached to prose pieces published by John Wesley. A seventeenth hymn published earlier is also incorporated into a larger setting in this collection (#4 in volume one). These prior publications are signaled in blue font in the Table of Contents and detailed in attached notes.

The manuscript precursors to nearly half of the items in these two volumes survive among Wesley's manuscript poetry collections. Their location is also detailed in attached notes.

Several of the "Hymns for Christian Friends" in this second volume are actually slight rewrites of manuscript poems that Charles sent to Sally Gwynne during their courtship.

HYMNS AND SACRED POEMS.

[PART I.]

I.
The Trial of Faith.

[Hymn I.]

“Christ also suffered, leaving us an example.”

[1 Peter ii. 21.]

- 1 Come, O my soul, the call obey,
 Take up the burthen of thy Lord!
His practice is thy living way,
 Thy guide his pure unerring word,
The lovely perfect pattern read,
And haste in all his steps to tread.

- 2 What did my Lord from sinners bear?
 His patience is the rule for me:
Walking in him I cannot err:
 And lo! The Man of Griefs I see,
Whose life one scene of sufferings was,
Quite from the manger to the cross.

- 3 Here then my calling I discern,
('Tis written in affliction's book)
My first, and latest lesson learn,
For nothing here but sufferings look,
I bow me to the will divine,
To suffer with my Lord be mine.
- 4 To suffer as my Lord I come:
How did the Lamb his wrongs endure?
Clam'rous, and warm? Or meek, and dumb?
Did he by force his life secure?
His injur'd innocence defend;
Or bear his burthen to the end?
- 5 Did he evade the pain, and shame,
Impatient of unjust disgrace?
Did he throw off the imputed blame?
Did he from spitting hide his face?
Did he to man for succour fly;
Or offer up himself, and die?
- 6 When nature sunk beneath her load,
Would he the dreadful cup decline?
Prostrate, and bruis'd, and sweating blood,
"Father, thy will be done, not mine,"
He speaks, and meets his enemies,
And gives them power himself to seize.
- 7 The word, which struck them to the ground,
Could it not strike them into hell?
Whom all the hosts of heaven surround,
He will not force by force repel,
Put up, he cries, thy needless sword,
Nor stain the meekness of thy Lord.
- 8 He chides his rash disciple's zeal,
Accepts nor man's nor angel's aid:
Vouchsafes his wounded foe to heal:
The hands, that had his murtherers made,

He stretches out; he lets them bind
The hands that could unmake mankind.

- 9 Doth he in deed or word gain-say,
Or ask or struggle to be freed?
They lead the speechless Lamb away:
To scorn, and pain, and death they lead
The speechless Lamb; resign'd unto
The utmost earth and hell could do.
- 10 O that I might like him withstand,
Like him mine innocence clear,
Like him resist the ruffian-band,
Like him refuse the cross to bear,
Like him the persecutor fly;
Like him submit to live, and die?

II.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn II.

- 1 Jesu, thy record I receive,
With lowly self-mistrusting fear:
As many days as here I live,
So many must I suffer here:
In all my Master's steps to go,
To suffer is my lot below.
- 2 Thy Spirit witnesses to mine,
I must thy daily cross endure:
I know the warning is divine:
The word of promis'd pain is sure;
Afflictions all my steps attend,
And but with life my griefs shall end.
- 3 Whate'er the rage of fiends, and men,
Can by divine permission do,
I come expecting to sustain:
It must be so, for God is true;

And God hath spoke the faithful word,
“The servant shall be as his Lord.”

- 4 Master, if thee the world blasphem'd,
 Will they not scorn, and cast out me?
I shall be more and more contemn'd,
 I shall be more and more like thee,
'Till all-conform'd to thee I am,
And honour'd with thine utmost shame.
- 5 If thee th' ungrateful world could hate,
 Thou friend, and lover of mankind,
Shall I not feel their anger's weight,
 Shall I not all their malice find,
Hated, opprest, despis'd, abhorr'd,
And persecuted with my Lord!
- 6 They will, thyself hast said, they will,
 With mortal hate my life pursue,
As helpless sheep thy people kill,
 Service to God by murder do,
Offer thee human sacrifice,
And glut thee with thy martyrs' cries.
- 7 With stedfast faith for this I wait,
 To bear th' inevitable cross,
A sharer in thy low estate,
 Afflicted as my Master was,
I must on earth thy treatment find,
The scorn, and outcast of mankind.
- 8 I feel it settled in my heart,
 Fixt in my inmost soul I feel
A looking for that better part,
 A sure presage of promis'd ill,
Of all my Saviour bore beneath,
Sorrow, and shame, and bonds, and death.

III.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn III.

- 1 Come then, my Jesu, from above,
 Endue me with thy constant mind,
 Inspire me with thy patient love,
 Thou bleeding Saviour of mankind,
 My faith increase, my heart prepare,
 And arm, and bid me all things bear.

- 2 Mine utter helplessness I own,
 And every moment more than see;
 Thou knowst I cannot stand alone,
 My strength to bear is all from thee,
 Mine all-sufficient strength be thou,
 And lo! I come to suffer now!

- 3 Thy power into my heart inspeak,
 And lo! I come to meet thy pain,
 To turn like thee the other cheek,
 All wrong and violence to sustain,
 Never against my foes to stand,
 But sink beneath their bruising hand.

- 4 I will not take the proffer'd sword,
 Or stoop to feeble man for aid:
 Lead me away with Christ my Lord,
 To scorn, or bonds, or slaughter lead,
 A follower of that silent Lamb
 The man whom now ye seek, I am.

- 5 Come, threatning world, thy prisoner take,
 I will not from my Master fly,
 Jesus in life or death forsake,
 But stay, with him to live, and die;
 Before his foes my Lord I own,
 And tell you all, that I am one.

- 6 His servant and disciple see,
Resolv'd his weal, or woe to share;
A Galilean seize in me,
And let me as my Master fare,
Convict (for I my crime confess)
Of following after righteousness.

IV.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn IV.

- 1 Yes, thou dear lamb-like Son of God,
Whom now with eyes of faith I view,
Thou knowst, I in thy steps have trod,
And would to Calvary pursue,
Thro' all thy passion's stages run,
'Till thou pronounce the word "'Tis done!"
- 2 Thy Spirit breathe into my breast,
Spirit of patient charity,
And lo! I meet the fiery test,
To prison go, and death with thee,
Anticipate the dreadful hour,
And stand in thine almighty power.
- 3 A witness of thy truth I stand,
Arraign'd at man's unrighteous bar,
In vain my answer they demand,
My silence shall thy truth³ declare,
A sheep before the shearers dumb,
To answer as my Lord⁴ I come.
- 4 Falsely accus'd I hold⁵ my peace,
The Judge Supream doth all things know,
I want no rescue, or release,
No justice I expect below,
Nor mercy,—more than Jesus found,
The man to yonder pillar bound.

³John Wesley underlined "silence shall thy truth" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁴John Wesley underlined "as my Lord" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁵John Wesley underlined "I hold" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 5 O what a piteous sight is there!
His tender hands are tied behind,⁶
His back their cruel scourges tear,
Yet no complaint, or sigh we find;
Or if he groans in all the smart,
'Tis for the hardness of their heart.
- 6 My pattern here I plainly see,
A voice is in thy streaming blood,
It bids me bear the scourge like thee,
Like thee commit my cause to God,
Like thee th' injurious world oppose,
Like thee avenge me of my foes.

V.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn V.

- 1 Still let me on my pattern gaze,
How meek and motionless he stands!
They spit upon his sacred face,
They buffet with unhallow'd hands,
They bow the knee, present the reed,
And mock whom they have doom'd to bleed.
- 2 No answer yet? No late reply
To clear his suffering innocence?
So tamely will the guiltless die,
Die for his guilty foes' offence,
Die, that his murtherers may live!
"Father (he gasps in death) forgive!"
- 3 Silent for them, for them he pleads,
And spends in prayer his latest breath,
To purge a sinful world he bleeds,
To bless them dies a cursed death,
Expires into the arms divine—
Jesu, was ever love like thine!

⁶John Wesley underlined "are tied behind" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), and wrote in the margin "NO."

- 4 O might it now my heart constrain,
My every rising thought controul,
Sweeten the cup of grief, and pain,
And melt, and meeken all my soul,
Conform me to the crucified,
My God, who for his murtherers died.
- 5 Love only can the conquest win,
And make me as my lamb-like God:
Thro' love I conquer all their sin,
And strive resisting unto blood,
Strive to secure the glorious wreath,
Resisting, by enduring death.
- 6 O might I now thy love retrieve,
And sink among the happy dead,
Into thine hands my spirit give,
And bow upon thy cross my head,
When I its utmost virtue prove,
Made perfect by all-patient love.

VI.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn VI.

- 1 Saviour of all, what hast thou done,
What hast thou suffered on the tree?
Why didst thou groan thy mortal groan,
Obedient unto death for me?
The mystery of thy passion shew,
The end of all thy griefs below.
- 2 Thy soul for sin an offering made
Hath clear'd this guilty soul of mine,
Thou hast for me a ransom paid,
To change my human to divine,
To cleanse from all iniquity,
And make the sinner all like thee.

- 3 Pardon, and grace, and heaven to buy,
My bleeding sacrifice expir'd:
But didst thou not my pattern die,
That by thy glorious Spirit fir'd,
Faithful I might to death endure,
And make the crown by suffering sure?
- 4 Thou didst the meek example leave,
That I might in thy footsteps tread,
Might like the Man of Sorrows grieve,
And groan, and bow with thee my head,
Thy dying in my body bear,
And all thy state of passion share.
- 5 Thy every perfect servant, Lord,
Shall as his patient master be,
To all thine inward life restor'd,
And outwardly conform'd to thee,
Out of thy grave the saint shall rise,
And grasp thro' death the glorious prize.
- 6 This is the streight, and royal way,
That leads us to the courts above;
Here let me ever, ever stay,
'Till on the wings of perfect love,
I take my last triumphant flight,
From Calvary's to Sion's height.

VII.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn VII.

- 1 And did my Lord on earth endure
Sorrow, and hardship, and distress,
That I might sit me down secure,
And rest in self-indulgent ease,
His delicate disciple I
Like him might neither live, nor die!

- 2 Master, I have not learnt thee so:
Thy yoke, and burthen I receive,
Resolve in all thy steps to go,
And bless the cross by which I live,
And curse the wisdom from beneath,
That strives to rob me of thy death.
- 3 Thy holy will be done, not mine,
Be suffer'd all thy holy will:
I dare not, Lord, the cross decline,
I will not lose the slightest ill,
Or lay the heaviest burthen down,
The richest jewel of my crown.
- 4 Sorrow is solid joy, and pain
Is pure delight, endur'd for thee,
Reproach and loss are glorious gain,
And death is immortality;
And who for thee their all have given,
Have nobly barter'd earth for heaven.
- 5 Saved is the life for Jesus lost,
Hidden from earth, but found in God,
To suffer is to triumph most,
The highest gift on man bestow'd,
Seal of my sure election this,
Seal of mine everlasting bliss.
- 6 The touchstone, and the proof of grace,
The standard of perfection here,
The measure of my heavenly place,
When Christ and all his saints appear,
The mark divine, by Jesu's⁷ art
Imprinted on my faithful heart.
- 7 O might it deeper sink (but give Me strength thy strongest love to bear)
Fain would I die with thee to live,
Fain would I all thy passion share;

⁷Ori., "Jesus"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

To me thy thorny crown be given
On earth, thy glorious crown in heaven.

VIII.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn VIII.

- 1 It must be so; thou sayst it must!
True is thine acceptable word,
They will from their communions thrust
The faithful followers of their Lord,
Buffet, and vex, and scourge, and bind
The friends, and patrons of mankind.
- 2 Full of the wicked one, and born
After the flesh, they will pursue
With restless hate, and cruel scorn
The souls whom thou hast form'd anew,
The saints begotten from above,
Born of the Spirit of thy love.
- 3 Who would the life of God regain,
And thee for their example take,
They too the honour shall obtain,
And persecuted for thy sake,
Thy confessors their seal set to,
True witnesses that God is true.
- 4 Who only seek in thee our rest,
Are we not now a proverb made,
Revil'd, rejected, and opprest,
By brethren, and by friends betray'd,
By bitterest household-foes pursued,
Hated of all that love not God?
- 5 Since first we heaven-ward turn'd our face,
Expos'd, and out-rag'd all day long,
An helpless, poor, afflicted race,
For doing good, we suffer wrong.

We suffer shame, distress, and loss,
And wait for all thy glorious cross.

6 The scriptures they in vain deny,
The world unknowingly fulfil,
Bursting thro' nature's closest tie,
The brother shall the brother kill,
The son shall stop his father's breath,
The parent drag his child to death.

7 No pity, or humane⁸ regard
We in our savage foes shall find,
For all their cruelties prepar'd;
From those who cast thy words behind
Justice, alas! We look for none;
Our help is all in Christ alone.

8 Holpen by him to suffer more,
From strength to strength we meekly go;
And when we gain the perfect power,
The world their utmost rage shall shew,
And when we all thy life retrieve,
Shall count us then not fit to live.

IX.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn IX.

1 Jesu, thy legacy I take,
The pattern thou hast left behind,
To suffer all things for thy sake,
Thy patient, meek, submissive mind
I long throughout my life t' express,
And copy all thy righteousness.

2 I will not point thee out the way,
Or rashly this, or that require,
I dare not for affliction pray;
But, Lord, thou knowst my heart's desire,

⁸Ori., "human"; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

Which pants for full conformity,
And struggles to be all like thee.

- 3 I thirst to drink my Master's cup,
Thy fiery baptism to know,
To take thy hallow'd burthen up,
Companion of the Man of Woe,
To tread where'er the Lamb hath trod,
One with the suffering Son of God.
- 4 My soul, with just ambition fir'd,
Hath languish'd to be great in thee,
Hath oft to Calvary aspir'd,
Honour'd the ignominious tree,
And envied those, who earliest bear
Thy cross, and longest suffer there.
- 5 Who now to every ill submit,
Foremost of all thy saints they stand,
Who suffer most, with Jesus sit,
Exalted at their Lord's right-hand,
While here on earth, they reign above,
Triumphant on a throne of love.

X.

[The Trial of Faith.]

Hymn X.

- 1 How long thou suffering Son of God,
Shall sinners take thy name in vain,
Start from the thorny narrow road
Of sacred salutary pain,
Fondly presume to call thee, Lord,
But tremble to obey thy word?
- 2 The man that will thy follower be,
Thou bidst him still himself deny,
Take up his daily cross with thee,
Thy shameful death rejoice to die,

And chuse a momentary pain,
A crown of endless life to gain.

3 But who the dreadful word receive,
Or gladly take thy burthen up?
We dare not, Lord, the truth believe,
But sooth'd with a self-flattering hope
To feeble man for succour run,
The crown-ensuring cross to shun.

4 A thousand ways and means we try,
The cross of none effect to make,
To Egypt we for chariots fly,
Shelter in human laws we take,
Assur'd the world will do us right,
And Satan against Satan fight.

5 Fools that we are, and slow of heart,
Our richest portion to refuse,
The patient Saviour's better part,
The labour, and reward, to lose,
The fairest prize to sufferers given,
The largest recompence in heaven.

6 But O! Suffice the season past
That we thy saying have abhorr'd,
Disdain'd thy passion's cup to taste,
And strove to be above our Lord;
To thy sweet yoke at length we bow,
And meekly come to suffer now.

7 Or let us here on Tabor stop,
Thy glorious face awhile to see,
Or climb yon adverse mountain's top,
The height of rugged Calvary;
To Calv'ary we with joy repair,
And die to find our Saviour there.

XI.
[The Trial of Faith.]
Hymn XI.

- 1 Help, gracious Lord, the time is come
Of suffering for thy righteous cause,
I see, I see thy people's doom,
T' endure with thee the sacred cross,
And now my own convictions fear,
And tremble at the trial near.
- 2 The flesh, alas! Thou knowst is weak,
Nor can the lightest cross sustain,
Convinc'd, on earth I must not seek
A rescue from reproach, or pain,
Or put the hallow'd cup aside,
But bow with Jesus crucified.
- 3 Call'd to distress, and patient grief,
Have I not made thy portion mine?
I have: I look for no relief,
No lessening of my lot divine,
But hold thy rigid literal word,
A simple follower of my Lord!
- 4 Let Jews their slightest wrong repay,
And fiercely eye for eye require:
More excellent the Christian way,
We will not call for vengeful fire,
Evil resist in word or deed,
But close in all thy footsteps tread.
- 5 Let others human succour seek,
With all their powers the cross evade,
We learn to turn the other cheek,
We look to thee alone for aid;
In suffering all we cannot err,
We cannot follow thee too far.

- 6 To suffer all things for thy sake,
 My calling this I humbly own;
Nor will from thee the matter take,
 But trust my cause to thee alone:
My help is all laid up above,
My only refuge is thy love.
- 7 The word, the awful word, is true,
 Howe'er my feeble flesh may fail,
I should my patient Lord pursue,
 The utmost rage of earth and hell,
Meek, as the Lamb of God endure,
And die to make my calling sure.

XII.
The Inward Cross.

- 1 O my dear Master, and my Lord,
 Good is thine acceptable will,
I yield obeisance to thy word,
 I come, thy humbled state to feel,
My calling here I plainly see,
To bear, and bleed, and die with thee.
- 2 Sufferer for sin my Master was,
 A Man of Griefs, enur'd to woe,
I bow me to thine inward cross,
 Sad fellowship with thee I know:
Thou for another's sin didst groan,
And shall not I lament mine own?
- 3 Yes, Lord, I drink thy bitter cup
 Of grief, astonishment, and pain,
I fill thy sore afflictions up,
 I faint thy burthen to sustain,

My spirit sweats thy sweat of blood,
And gasping calls “My God, my God!”

4 My spirit by thy pangs is torn,
While thou art pleas'd my faith to try;
For thee disconsolate I mourn,
And still repeat thy bitter cry,
“My God, my God, I cry like thee,
Ah! Why hast thou forsaken me!”

5 Abandon'd to the tempter's power,
Still on thy daily cross I bleed,
'Till all the rage of hell is o'er,
'Till all my nature's life is dead;
Then, then my utmost wish I have,
And sink into my Saviour's grave.

6 I sink with thee, with thee to rise,
Thy quickning Spirit to regain,
T' insure my calling's heavenly prize,
And suffer with my Lord to reign,
Thy resurrection's power to prove,
And live the life of perfect love.

XIII.

“And he said to (* them) all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.” Luke ix. 23.

1 Master, I own thy lawful claim,
Thine, wholly thine I long to be,
Thou seest at last I willing am,
Where'er thou go'est to follow thee,
Myself in all things to deny;
Thine wholly, thine to live and die.

* The word “them” is not in the original.

- 2 Whate'er my sinful flesh requires
 For thee I chearfully forego,
 My covetous and vain desires,
 My hopes of happiness below,
 My senses and my passion's food,
 And all my lust of creature-good.
- 3 Pleasure, and wealth, and praise no more
 Shall lead my captive soul astray,
 My fond pursuits I all give o'er,
 Thee, only thee resolv'd t' obey,
 My own in all things to resign,
 And know no other will than thine.
- 4 Reason, blind leader of the blind,
 No more my sinking soul shall stay,
 The wisdom of the carnal mind
 That broken reed I cast away,
 And stand by trusting in thy might,
 And follow thy unerring light.
- 5 The beast, and devil I deny,
 Sensual, and animal delight,
 The wanton and the curious eye,
 Be clos'd in everlasting night;
 My learned lust be cast aside,
 And all my filth of self and pride.
- 6 Henceforth I will not comfort take,
 Or pleasure in myself but thee,
 Myself I chearfully forsake,
 From self I would at once get free,
 I would not live, whate'er is (I,
 But O! My God, must † Isaac die!

† Not necessarily; not always; yet if God call for him, we must be ready to sacrifice our Isaac, or joy in himself.

- 7 My joy in thee, my pure delight,
So long desir'd, so late bestow'd,
The comfort of thy blissful sight,
The offspring and the gift of God,
The sweet refreshments of thy grace,
The glimpses of thy heavenly face!
- 8 O the insufferable loss!
To lay my gifts and comforts down,
To nail my Isaac to the cross,
Before thy feet to cast my crown,
Jesus, my Jesus to restore!
All earth and heaven can give no more.
- 9 Yet will I offer in thy might
This only offering worthy thee,
Give up my spiritual delight,
My taste of glorious liberty,
Thine to thyself I render back,
Thy all for thee I now forsake.
- 10 All power is thine in earth and heaven,
All fulness dwells in thee alone;
Whate'er I had was freely given,
Nothing but sin I call my own,
Other propriety disclaim,
Thou only art the great I AM.
- 11 Wherefore to thee I all resign,
Being thou art, and good, and power,
Thy only will be done, not mine;
Thee, Lord, let earth and heaven adore,
Flow back the rivers to their sea,
And let our all be lost in thee.

XIV.

- 1 O this agony of grief!
When shall it all be past?

Surely God will send relief,
And rescue me at last:
Comforter of all that mourn,
Jesus shall my peace restore,
Root out of my flesh the thorn,
And bid me weep no more.

2 Thrice, three thousand, times have I
For speedy rescue pray'd,
Can the God of love deny
His kindly promis'd aid?
Shall I never, never know
Full release from sin and pain,
First of all the sons of woe
That ask'd his help in vain.

3 No, thou gracious God and true,
Thy promise cannot fail,
Thou at last shall bring me through
The toils of sin and hell:
This from thee ev'n now I have—
If thou art not always nigh,
If thou canst not, wilt not, save,
Let me forever die.⁹

XV.

1 O my only ease in pain,
O my only joy in grief,
Hear me secretly complain,
Sigh for permanent relief,
Burthen'd more than I can bear,
Still with earthly passions torn,
Let me tell thee all my care,
Let me in thy bosom mourn.

⁹John Wesley underlined the last two lines in this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), then wrote in the margin “Too Bold.”

- 2 Jesus, why dost thou delay
Thy poor prisoner to release,
All my sin to take away,
All my soul to fill with peace?
Surely, Lord, I would be free,
Would from every evil fly:
Set my heart at liberty,
Give me love, and let me die.
- 3 Nothing do I seek below,
Lord, I dare to thee appeal,
Thou my tempted soul dost know,
All I fear, and all I feel:
Nothing here but sin I dread,
Nothing here but love I crave:
Let me rest my weary head,
Let me find a quiet grave.
- 4 Grant me first the rest from sin,
Then permit me to depart,
Thou who seest this war within,
Thou who readst this troubled heart.
When it doth to sin incline,
O the agony I bear!
This unworthy heart of mine
Would I not in pieces tear?
- 5 Wherefore then, thou gracious God,
(Let me yet again inquire)
Dost thou leave me to my load,
Still deny my best desire?
Why dost thou to help forbear,
Heedless of my griefs and fears,
Deaf to my continual prayer,
Silent at my ceaseless tears?
- 6 What thou dost I know not now,
But my soul on thee I cast,
To thy secret counsel bow,
Sure to know the whole at last,

Sure thine utmost grace to know,
 Sure to prove thine utmost will,
 Thoroughly sanctified below,
 Caught up to thy heavenly hill.

[XVI.]¹⁰

The Last Wish.

- 1 To do, or not to do; to have,
 Or not to have, I leave to thee:
 To be, or not to be, I leave:
 Thy only will be done in me:
 All my requests are lost in one,
 Father, thy only will be done.
- 2 Suffice that for the season past
 Myself in things divine¹¹ I sought,
 For comforts cried with eager haste,¹²
 And murmur'd that I found them not:
 I leave it now to thee alone,
 Father, thy only will be done.
- 3 Thy gifts I clamour for¹³ no more,
 Or selfishly thy grace¹⁴ require
 An evil heart to varnish o'er;
 Jesus the giver I desire,
 After the flesh¹⁵ no longer known:
 Father, thy only will be done.
- 4 Welcome alike the crown or cross;
 Trouble I cannot ask, nor peace,¹⁶
 Nor toil, nor rest, nor gain, nor loss,
 Nor joy, nor grief, nor pain, nor ease,¹⁷
 Nor life, nor death; but ever groan,
 Father, thy only will be done.

¹⁰Ori., "XVII"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

¹¹John Wesley underlined "Myself in things divine" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), placing a "Q" in the margin.

¹²John Wesley underlined "with eager haste" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

¹³John Wesley underlined "clamour for" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

XVII.

- 1 Rock of everlasting love,
 Into thy clefts I flee,
 Never, never to remove
 I build my house on thee;
 On thy dying love I stand,
 Hear thy words, and keep them too,
 Duteous to thy kind command,
 By works my faith I shew.

- 2 Made unto salvation wise,
 And freely sav'd by grace,
 Thee, on whom my soul relies,
 My faithful soul obeys:
 Faithful, and obedient still,
 Let me not be put to shame,
 Coming now t' endure thy will,
 And suffer for thy name.

- 3 Lo! The rains descend, o'erflow,
 And to a deluge spread,
 Winds, and storms, and tempests blow,
 And beat upon my head:
 Satan drives the furious blast,
 Floods of wickedness assail,
 Stands my house on Jesus fast;
 That Rock can never fail.

- 4 Higher let the torrent rise,
 The tempest louder roar,
 Satan, storm with all thy lies,
 And use thine utmost power,
 Firm I stand the general shock,
 Never from my basis move,
 Built, and 'stablish'd on the rock
 Of everlasting love.

XVIII.

- 1 Thee, Jesus, full of truth and grace,
Our Saviour we adore,
Thee in affliction's furnace praise,
And magnify thy power.
Thy power in human weakness shewn,
Shall make us all entire;
We now thy guardian presence own,
And walk unburnt in fire.

- 2 Thee, Son of man, by faith we see,
And glory in our guide,
Surrounded, and upheld by thee,
The fiery test abide.
The fire our graces shall refine,
'Till moulded from above
We bear the character divine,
The stamp of perfect love.

XIX.

For the Brotherhood.

- 1 Head of thy patient church beneath,
Attend the faithful prayer we breathe
In thy own Spirit's power,
And by thy grace protect, and keep,
Thy little flock of helpless sheep
In every trying hour.

- 2 Our brethren, and companions dear,
Who suffer in thy kingdom here,

Preserve in their distress,
Support us by that glorious hope,
And bring, O bring us quickly up
Out of the wilderness.

- 3 The lion roaring for his prey,
Ah! Do not suffer him to slay
One soul that would be thine:
To us the wiles of Satan shew,
And arm us 'gainst our hellish foe
In panoply divine.
- 4 By human wolves incompast round,
Let none without the fold be found
Of all thy lambs or sheep:
From worldly rage and malice hide,
And keep us ever by thy side,
And in thy bosom keep.
- 5 But above all thy power display,
To screen us in our evil day
And from ourselves defend;
Subdue, destroy our foes within,
And save the tempted soul from sin,
And save us to the end.
- 6 O for thy great and glorious name,
The dire reproach, the guilty shame
The cursed thing avert,
In all th' assaults of sense and pride
Continue on thy people's side,
And guard the feeble heart.
- 7 No more may we to sin submit,
But trample it beneath our feet
With holy rage and scorn,
'Till each is more than conqueror,
And all obtain the perfect power,
And all to God return.

XX.

Another [For the Brotherhood].

- 1 Thou God of love, and truth, and power,
 Guard us in the evil hour,
 By sore temptation tried,
Shelter thy poor, afflicted flock,
And in the clefts of Israel's Rock
 Our trembling spirits hide.

- 2 Long as the war subsists within,
 Save, O save us, Lord, from sin,
 The lusting flesh subdue;
The Spirit's stronger lust exert,
And watch o'er every helpless heart,
 'Till thou hast made it new.

- 3 For this we strive, for this we pray,
 Take the stumbling-block away,
 The cursed thing remove,
Uphold, and make our footsteps sure,
And let us stand, and walk secure
 In humble faith, and love.

- 4 Sin, only sin we deprecate,
 Fill us with a perfect hate
 Of that thy soul abhors;
O let us every sin eschew
'Till all are brought victorious thro',
 And more than conquerors.

XXI.

Another [For the Brotherhood].

- 1 Still, Lord, we ask, and urge thee still,
 Ask according to thy will,

And urge our strong request:
Preserve thy little flock from sin,
And keep, 'till thou hast brought us in
To thine eternal rest.

- 2 Ah! Do not suffer us to stray,¹⁸
Thee our Master to betray,
And shamefully deny:
But (for thou knowst our treacherous heart)
Command us sooner to depart,
And innocently die.
- 3 Be jealous for thy glorious name,
Never let the heathen blame
The truth for our offence;
But rather now confirm us thine,
And let us all our souls resign,
And fly this moment hence.
- 4 Canst thou despise our fear and pain,
Suffer us to cry in vain
Beneath the load we bear?
Our load of pain and fear remove,
And answer by the fire of love
Our agonizing prayer.
- 5 'Tis done! He hears his Spirit's cry,
Surely now we feel him nigh
To grant his own request:
We shall not live to fall away,
But taken from the evil day
With him forever rest.

XXII.¹⁹

- 1 Come on, my partners in distress,
My comrades thro' the wilderness,

¹⁸Ori., "stay" (both editions); a clear misprint.

¹⁹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 48–50.

Who still your bodies feel,
A while forget your griefs, and fears,
And look beyond the²⁰ vale of tears
To that celestial hill.

2 Beyond the bounds of time, and space,
Look forward to that happy place,
The saints' secure abode,
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,
And force your passage to the skies,
And scale the mount of God.

3 See, where the Lamb in glory stands,
Incircled with his radiant bands,
And join th' angelic powers,
For all that height of glorious bliss
Our everlasting portion is,
And all that heaven is ours.

4 Who suffer for our Master here,
We shall before his face appear,
And by his side sit down:
To patient faith the prize is sure,
And all, that to the end endure
The cross, shall wear the crown.

5 Thrice blessed bliss-inspiring hope!
It lifts the fainting spirits up,
It brings to life the dead:
Our conflicts here shall soon be past,
And you and I ascend at last
Triumphant with our head.

6 That great mysterious deity
We soon with open face shall see:
The beatific sight
Shall fill the heavenly courts with praise,
And wide diffuse the golden blaze
Of everlasting light.

²⁰Charles Wesley changed "the" to "this" in All in All (1761).

- 7 The Father shining on his throne,
 The glorious co-eternal Son,
 The Spirit one and seven,
 Conspire our rapture to compleat,
 And lo! We fall before his feet,
 And silence heightens heaven.
- 8 In hope of that extatic pause,
 Jesus, we now sustain thy cross,
 And at thy footstool fall,
 'Till thou our hidden life reveal,
 'Till thou our ravish'd spirits fill,
 And God is all in all.

Desiring to Pray.²¹
[Hymn I.]

- 1 O that I could but pray!
 How gladly should I bear
 The burthen of this evil day
 With the support of prayer!
 Happy, could I but tell
 To God my inward woe,
 My depth of wickedness reveal,
 My height of trouble shew.
- 2 Alas, he knows it all,
 My whole of sin and grief;
 Yet O, for help I cannot call,
 I cannot ask relief:
 Mountains on mountains rise,
 And quite block up the way;
 O that I could but lift my eyes,
 O that I could but pray!

²¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 93–96; MS Clarke, 108–11; MS Occasional Hymns, 64–67; and MS Shent, 81a–82a.

- 3 I struggle still, and fain
 I would throw off my load,
Stir myself up, and strive again
 To apprehend my God:
 Farther he doth from me,
 And farther still depart;
In vain I bow my feeble knee,
 But not my stubborn heart.
- 4 My heart, alas, is dead,
 Or unconcern'd it sleeps,
Or starts, of its own wish afraid,
 And contradicts my lips;
 Or with suggestions fraught
 Too horrible to bear,
Breaks off the suit, to 'scape the thought
 Of blasphemous despair.
- 5 Ah, whither, or to whom
 Shall I for succour fly!
My Saviour bids the weary come,
 Yet do I not draw nigh:
 I would (but all in vain)
 To him my wants display:
My heart abhors the fruitless pain,
 I cannot, cannot pray.
- 6 But shall I then depart,
 And cast away my hope,
Yield to a wretched, faithless heart,
 And give my Saviour up?
 No, no! That killing thought
 Is worse than all I feel;
Still let me seek, tho' clean forgot,
 And want my Saviour still.
- 7 Dead as I am to God,
 I will not him forego,
But patiently take up my load,
 And suffer all my woe:

Forever will I lie,
 Before his mercy seat,
 Tho' not allow'd with Mary I
 To wash, and kiss his feet.

- 8 In quiet, calm distress
 Will I my cross sustain,
 Content to sigh for happiness,
 And strive to pray,—in vain!
 Unless he from his throne
 The speechless mourner hear,
 The deep, unutterable groan,
 The loudly-silent tear.
- 9 He hears, he hears it now!
 The anguish not-exprest,²²
 The struggle of my soul to bow,
 And fall upon his breast!
 Silence a voice hath found,
 A cry is in the void,
 Thro' earth and heaven my woes resound,
 And pierce the ears of God.
- 10 Believing against hope,
 I will expect his grace,
 Thro' all the clouds of sin look up,
 And wait to see his face:
 Forgotten tho' I seem,
 He knows what I would say;
 The darkness is not dark to him,
 The night is clear as day.
- 11 I dare no longer doubt
 His readiness to save;
 Will Jesus therefore cast me out,
 Because no good I have?
 To sinners truly poor
 Will God himself deny!
 He cannot cast me out—no more
 Than he again can die!

²²“Not-exprest” changed to “un-exprest” in 2nd edn. (1756).

[Desiring to Pray.]
Hymn II.

- 1 Jesu, full of grace for me,
Help my soul's infirmity;
Grant the supplicating grace,
Give the power to seek thy face:
Hear a feeble sinner groan,
Burthen'd with an heart of stone;
Take the heart of stone away,
Give me will, and power to pray.

- 2 Once again revive the dead,
Stir me up to ask thine aid;
By thy Spirit's breath incline
This unyielding heart of mine;
Now the rock in sunder rend,
Now eject the silent fiend,
Power into my soul convey,
Sigh the pitying Ephphatha!

- 3 O my God, how long shall I
Coldly with my lips draw nigh,
Lift my eyes with useless pain,
Drop their weary lids again,
Feebly struggle to declare
The sad meaning of my prayer,
Give the fruitless labour o'er,
Gasp for utterance no more!

- 4 Help a poor and needy soul,
Make the wilderness a pool,
Pour thy Spirit from above,
Bless me with a flood of love;
For thy mercy sake alone
Let the miracle be done;
Take my heart of stone away,
Give me will, and power to pray.

Hymn III.²³

- 1 O thou Father of compassions,
O thou God of mercies hear,
Send the Spirit of supplications,
Send the gracious Comforter:
Have respect to Jesus' merit,
To thy church the gift impart,
Send him now; the pleading Spirit
Pour into thy people's heart.
- 2 If we have thro' him found favour,
If for us he ever prays,
Now in honour of our Saviour,
Grant the all-commanding grace;
Stir us up to prayer unceasing,
Let us all the promise claim,
Wrestle for the mighty blessing,
For the new, mysterious name.
- 3 Send our long-desir'd Messiah,
Us to teach thy perfect way;
Faithful, fervent as Elias,
Let us in the Spirit pray,
Let the power to us be given,
(Weak and helpless as we are)
Power to shut, and open heaven,
All th' omnipotence of prayer.

[Desiring to Pray.]
Hymn IV.²⁴

- 1 Jesu, thou sovereign Lord of all,
The same thro' one eternal day,

²³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 55–56.

²⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 56–58.

Attend thy feeblest followers' call,
And O! Instruct us how to pray;
Pour out the supplicating grace,
And stir us up to seek thy face.

2 We cannot think a gracious thought,
We cannot feel a good desire,
'Till thou who call'st a world from nought,
The power into our hearts inspire;
And then we in thy Spirit groan,
And then we give thee back thy own.

3 Proceeds from thee the wish to pray,
The longing wish which now we feel;
But O! We know not what to say,
We would, but cannot, Lord, reveal
The load our fainting spirits bear,
Or tell thee all our wants in prayer.

4 Lost in a labyrinth of sin,
Long have we wandred to and fro,
The wilderness hath shut us in,
And only faith the way can shew,
And only prayer can lend the clue,
To guide our weary footsteps thro'.

5 Tormented, destitute, distrest,
Scatter'd in the dark, cloudy day,
We labour for that farther rest,
And fain would force our hearts to pray,
And strive and pant with endless care
To heave away the mountain-bar.

6 Dost thou not, Lord, our trouble see,
Our sore, unprofitable pain?
A thousand times we bow the knee,
Approach thee with our lips in vain,
Present with lifted hands and eyes,
An heartless, lifeless sacrifice.

- 7 A thousand times o'erwhelm'd with woe,
 We groan impatient at thy stay,
 Ready to let the promise go,
 Ready to cast our shield away,
 The fruitless labour to forbear,
 And fold our arms in sad despair.
- 8 Jesu, regard the joint complaint
 Of all thy tempted followers here,
 And now supply the common want,
 And send us down the Comforter,
 The spirit of ceaseless prayer impart,
 And fix thine agent in our heart.
- 9 To help our soul's infirmity,
 To heal thy sin-sick people's care,
 To urge our God-commanding plea,
 And make our heart an house of prayer,
 That promis'd Intercessor give,
 And let us now thyself receive.
- 10 Come in thy pleading Spirit down,
 To us, who for thy coming stay;
 Of all thy gifts we ask but one,
 We ask the constant power to pray:
 Indulge us, Lord, in this request,
 And, if thou canst,²⁵ deny the rest.

XXVII.
[Desiring to Pray.]
Hymn V.

- 1 Shepherd divine, our want relieve
 In this our evil day,
 To all thy tempted followers give
 The power to watch and pray.

²⁵John Wesley substituted "Thou canst not then" for "And, if thou canst" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 2 Long as our fiery trials last,
 Long as the cross we bear,
 O let our souls on thee be cast
 In never-ceasing prayer.
- 3 The Spirit of interceding grace
 Give us in faith to claim,
 To wrestle, 'till we see thy face,
 And know thy hidden name.
- 4 'Till thou the perfect love impart,
 'Till thou thyself bestow,
 Be this the cry of every heart
 I will not let thee go.
- 5 I will not let thee go, unless
 Thou tell thy name to me,
 With all thy great salvation bless,
 And make me all like thee.
- 6 Then let me on the mountain-top
 Behold thine open face,
 While faith in sight is swallow'd up,
 And prayer in endless praise.

Hymn VI.²⁶

“Men ought always to pray, and not to faint.”

Luke xviii. 1.

- 1 Come, ye followers of the Lord,
 In Jesus' service join;
 Jesus gives the sacred word,
 The ordinance divine;
 Let us his command obey,
 And ask, and have whate'er we want,
 Pray we, every moment pray,
 And never, never faint.

²⁶Published previously in Short View of the Difference Between the Moravian Brethren and the Rev. Mr. John and Charles Wesley (London: Strahan, 1745), 20–21. A manuscript precursor appears in MS Shent, 60a–60b.

- 2 Place no longer let us give
 To the old tempter's will,
 Never more our duty leave,
 While Satan cries "Be still!"
 Stand we in the antient way,
 And here with God ourselves acquaint,
 Pray we, &c.
- 3 Be it weariness and pain
 To slothful flesh and blood,
 Yet we will the cross sustain,
 And bless the welcome load,
 All our griefs to God display,
 And humbly pour out our complaint;
 Pray we, &c.
- 4 Let us patiently endure,
 And still our wants declare;
 All the promises are sure
 To persevering prayer:
 'Till we see the perfect day,
 And each wakes up a sinless²⁷ saint,
 Pray we, &c.
- 5 Pray we on, when all-renew'd,
 And perfected in love,
 'Till we see the Saviour-God
 Descending from above,
 All his heavenly charms survey,
 Beyond what angel-minds can paint,
 Pray we, &c.
- 6 Pray we, in the realms of light
 'Till we behold his face,
 Faith shall there be lost in sight,
 And prayer in endless praise,
 Blest thro' one eternal day,
 Possess of all that God²⁸ can grant;
 There we need not,²⁹ cannot pray,
 For heaven is³⁰ all we want.

²⁷John Wesley substituted "spotless" for "sinless" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

²⁸John Wesley underlined "all that God" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), and wrote "Q" in the margin at the end of the line.

²⁹John Wesley underlined "need not" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

³⁰John Wesley underlined "heaven is" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

XXIX.
On the Loss of His Friends.
[Hymn I.]

- 1 Take these broken reeds away!
 On the Rock of Ages I
Calmly now my spirit stay,
 Now on Christ alone rely,
Every other prop resign,
Sure the sinners' friend is mine.
- 2 Fly, my friends, with treacherous speed,
 Melt as snow before the sun,
Leave me at my greatest need,
 Leave me to my God alone,
To my help which cannot fail,
To my friend unchangeable.
- 3 O! How constant is my Lord,
 While I to his promise cleave!
True, and faithful to his word,
 Me my Lord will never leave,
None shall us by violence part,
None shall tear me from his heart.
- 4 Keep me then, my Lord, my love,
 Keep me close to thy dear³¹ breast,
'Till thou take me up above,
 'Till I gain the heavenly rest,
Seated on thy glorious throne,
With thyself forever one.

XXX.
[On the Loss of His Friends.]
Hymn II.

- 1 Glory to the awful God!
 Object of thy kindest care,

³¹John Wesley substituted "own" for "dear" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

Thankful I adore thy rod,
 Bless thee for the griefs I bear,
 Griefs which all my steps attend,
 Hasten on the joyful end.

2 O how wonderful thy love,
 Most benign, when most severe!
 All thy rivals to remove,
 All my hopes of comfort here,
 Forcing me to feel, and see,
 All on earth is vanity.

3³² Long as in the vale I live,
 Calmly in the vale I mourn,
 Thankfully my lot receive,
 'Till I to thy arms return,
 Hardned in my grief, 'till I
 Sink into thy arms, and die.

4 'Till that welcome hour I see,
 Brood I o'er my hoarded grief,
 Hug my sacred misery,
 Wretched above all relief,
 Smile I with superior pain,
 Earth, and all its joys disdain.

5 What a mighty blessing this!
 Peace on earth I cannot know,
 Cannot taste a moment's bliss,
 Stript of all I priz'd below;
 Shall I of my loss complain?
 Only heaven is greater gain.

Hymn III.³⁴

1 Disconsolate tenant of clay,
 In solemn assurance arise,

³²John Wesley wrote in a manuscript "Q" after stanzas 3–5 in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

³³John Wesley marked this hymn with a manuscript "Q" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

³⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 36–37.

Thy treasure of sorrow survey,
And look thro' it all to the skies:
That heavenly house is prepar'd
For all who are sufferers here,
And wait the return of their Lord,
And long for his day to appear.

- 2 Who suffer in Jesus's shame,
Shall triumph in Jesus's love:
A child of affliction I claim
My sure habitation above,
My seal of election is this,
His marks in my body I bear;
My fulness of infinite bliss,
My crown of rejoicing is there.
- 3 There all the tempestuous blast
Of bitter affliction is o'er,
The spirit is landed at last,
And sorrow, and shame are no more,
Temptation, and trouble are gone,
The trial is all at an end—
And there I shall cease to bemoan
The loss of my brother, and friend.
- 4 'Tis there I shall meet him again
Whose burthen thro' life I must bear,
No longer the cause of my pain,
No longer a fugitive there:
Here only the world could divide,
Here only the tempter could part,
And turn the unwary aside,
And poison the innocent heart.
- 5 Then let me with meekness attend
The word that shall summon me home,
The days of my pilgrimage end,
And bury my griefs in the tomb;

6³⁵ The tears shall be wip'd from my eyes,
When him I behold with the blest,
Who hasten'd my soul to the skies,
And follow'd me into my rest.

[On the Loss of His Friends.]
Hymn IV.

- 1 O my best, my only friend,
Ever constant, kind, and true,
Let my days of mourning end,
Let me bid the world adieu,
From its vice and vanity
Take, O take me up to thee.
- 2 Weary of my friends below,
Friends that quickly melt away,
Friends, that faint to share my woe,
Friends, that promise and betray,
Let me quit the faithless kind,
Truth in thee alone to find.
- 3 O that now my spirit might fail,
Suddenly from earth remove!
Snatch me from the weeping vale,
Bear me to the world above:
There at rest the weary are,
Vext with no false brethren there.
- 4 Jesu, Lord, when shall it be?
End of all my wishes thou,
Set my struggling spirit free,
Hasten to my rescue now:
Bid me to the mountain fly,
Get me up this hour, and die.

³⁵Numbered as such in original (both editions); should be continuation of stanza 5.

³⁶John Wesley marked this hymn with a manuscript "Q" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

Hymn V.

- 1 Or if thy great will ordain
 In the vale my longer stay,
Let me cease from wretched man,
 Cast the broken reed away,
Give my vainest labour o'er,
Look for³⁷ faith in man no more.
- 2 Pass away the empty shade,
 Idle dream of friendship here,
Let the fond idea fade,
 Let the vapour disappear:
Human friends, I give you up,³⁸
Thou, O Christ, art all my hope.
- 3 Only thou canst never be
 Wearied out with my complaint
Crush'd by my own misery,
 Oft as at thy feet I faint,
Thou my grief dost more than share,
Thou dost all my burthen bear.
- 4 Never will thy patience fail,
 Never leave me in distress,
Though my enemies prevail,
 Though my miseries increase,
Though thou dost my follies see,
Though my faults are known to thee.
- 5 Weak, and wayward as I am,
 Naked, indigent, and blind,
Thou dost hide my guilty shame,
 Kindly cast my sins behind,
Freely, my backslidings heal,
Love the faithless sinner still.

³⁷John Wesley underlined “Look for” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), adding a “!” in the margin.

³⁸John Wesley placed an “!” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756) at the end of this line.

6 Sinning on so oft, so long,
 Though I did thy Spirit grieve,
Patient love endur'd the wrong,
 Love refus'd his spoils to leave;
Though I would from thee depart,
Love pursued, and broke my heart.

7 Let me then on thee rely,
 All thy faithful mercies prove,
'Till I meet thee in the sky,
 'Till I join the church above,
Love me, love me to the end,
Be my everlasting friend.

[On the Loss of His Friends.]
Hymn VI.

1 O my condescending Lord,
 How hast thou to earth stoop'd down!
Sinners vile and self-abhor'd
 Thou dost for thy brethren own;
O the grace on man bestow'd,
Man is call'd the friend of God!

2 What can I desire beside?
 Jesus for my friend I claim,
Jesus is my faithful guide,
 Happy in his love I am,
Fulness of delight I prove
In his all-sufficient love.

3 From the faithless sons of men,
 Saviour, to thy arms I flee,
Sweetly on thy bosom lean,
 Find my happiness in thee,
Happiness that cannot fail,
Gloriously unchangeable.

- 4 While I thus my soul recline
 On my dear Redeemer's breast,
Need I for the creature pine,
 Fondly seek a farther rest,
Still for human friendship sue,
Stoop, ye worms of earth, to you!
- 5 Jesus, thee alone I know,
 Monarch of my simple heart,
Thou my only friend below,
 Thou my heavenly portion art,
Here, and in eternity,
Thou art all in all to me.

Hymn VII.³⁹

- 1 Father, take thy plague away,
 And give me back my peace,
In the dark and cloudy day
 I shew thee my distress:
Fear, rebuke, and blasphemy
Beset my soul on every side:
See, the helpless sinner see,
 For whom thy Son hath died.
- 2 Earth and hell their counsel take
 Thy servant to devour,
Do not, Lord, my soul forsake,
 Nor leave me to their power;
Be not thou mine enemy,
Nor in thy fierce displeasure chide;
See, the helpless sinner see,
 For whom thy Son hath died.

³⁹A partial manuscript version of this hymn appears in MS Richmond, 19.

3⁴⁰ Let the gathering storm descend,
 Let the triumphant foe
 Sweep away my dearest friend,
 My every good below,
 Vent his utmost rage on me,
 So thou my God art pacified;
 See, the helpless sinner see
 For whom thy Son hath died.

[4] Lord, I will not deprecate
 The utmost sufferings here,
 Let the world condemn, and hate,
 If thou in mercy clear:
 Let them set their brand on me,
 So thou pronounce me justified;
 See, the helpless sinner see,
 For whom thy Son hath died.

Hymn VIII.
For Midnight.⁴¹

1 At this solemn noon of night,
 Lo! I rise to sing thy praise,
 All thy judgments, Lord, are right,
 True, and holy all thy ways:
 Dark, and grievous though they be,
 Just are all thy ways to me.

2 Glory to the God unknown!
 Chasten'd from my infant years,
 Thy afflictive love I own,
 Mingle praises with my tears,
 Bless thee for my troubles past,
 Calmly wait to feel the last.

3 Thee I awfully adore,
 Bruis'd by thy severest rod;

⁴⁰Ori., "4". Next stanza: ori., "5" (error occurs in both editions).

⁴¹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 25–27.

- Strengthen me to suffer more,
Still increase my heaviest load,
Child of sorrow from the womb
Send me weeping to the tomb.
- 4 Still in weariness, and pain,
Will I a sad vigil keep,
Lift my mournful eyes again,
Only wake, to pray, and weep,
To my midnight task return,
Bless thee for my power to mourn.
- 5 O how gracious is thy love,
Thus to strip me of my joy!
All my comforts to remove,
All my idols to destroy,
Forc'd by stress of misery
Happiness to seek in thee.
- 6 Wounded in the tenderest part,
Spoil'd of all my friends below,
Can I thank thee from my heart,
Bless the hand that deals the blow?
Lord, beneath thy hand I bow;
What thou dost I know not now.
- 7 Yet I can thy mercy praise,
Doom'd my chastning here to feel
That I with the godless race
May not be adjudg'd to hell;
Lord, for this my thanks receive,
Wretched out of hell, I live.
- 8 Of his earthly all bereft⁴²
Should a living man complain?
Or have I a blessing left?
Take that blessing back again,
Now my latest good remove,
Give me but at last thy love.

⁴²John Wesley underlined “earthly all bereft” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), adding an “!” in the margin at the end of the line.

Hymn IX.⁴³

- 1 O bitter, bitter loss!
 My bosom-friend is gone,
 My life, and comfort was
 Wrapt up in him alone.⁴⁴
 My eyes and heart's desire⁴⁵ is fled,
 The intercourse is o'er,
 My bosom-friend to me is dead,
 He loves my soul no more.
- 2 To Satan's malice left,
 By human furies torn,
 Of all my joys⁴⁶ bereft,
 For none but⁴⁷ this I mourn;
 As Rachel obstinately grieve,⁴⁸
 Disconsolate in woe,⁴⁹
 Nor will I evermore receive
 Comfort in things below.
- 3 I lift my broken heart
 To him that reigns above:
 O would he once impart
 The med'cine of his love!
 His only love can be my balm,
 My wounded spirit ease;
 His only voice the storm can calm,
 And bid my sorrows cease.
- 4 O wouldst thou, Lord, appear,
 And answer to my cry,
 Thy hopeless mourner chear,
 Thy balmy blood apply.

From thee, the God of pardning love,
 I never would depart,
 But seek my whole delight above,
 And give thee all my heart.

5 Were I from all my pain
 Miraculously freed,
 Might I receive again
 My Isaac from the dead,
 He still should on thine altar lie,
 'Till both translated were,
 And met each other in the sky,
 And met the Saviour there!

Hymn X.
Jonah's Gourd.⁵⁰

1 Where is the gourd, that sudden rose
 To skreen a weary pilgrim's head,
 T' assuage the violence of my woes,
 And bless me with its cooling shade,
 Make all my cares, and sorrows cease,
 And turn my anguish into ease?

2 A worm hath smote my verdant bower,
 And lo! How soon it fades away!
 It could not stand the morning hour,
 Or bear the scorching heat of day:
 My wither'd joy, alas, is fled,
 My fence is gone—my friend is dead.

3 Dead, dead are all my hopes below,
 On earth I look for no relief.⁵¹
 No pause, or interval of woe,
 No respite, or suspense of grief,⁵²
 My short-liv'd happiness is o'er,
 And human friendship is no more.⁵³

⁵⁰A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 34–35. Cf. Jonah 4:5–8.

⁵¹John Wesley underlined “I look for no relief” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), placing an “!” in the margin.

⁵³John Wesley underlined “friendship is no more” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 4 The fiery sun's directest ray,
The veh'ement wind's severest blast
Beat on me in this evil day:
O might I now complain my last,
Now, now lay down my fainting head,
And weary sink among the dead!
- 5 Better for me to die, than live
An useless life of grief and pain:
O wouldst thou, Lord, my spi'rit receive!
But purge it first from every stain,
From all my foes, and friends set free,
And then receive me up to thee.

Hymn XI.⁵⁴

- 1 O 'tis enough! My God, my God,
Thy hand with-hold, thy wrath forbear;
Spare, for I hear the speaking rod,
Thy prodigal in mercy spare,
And in thy gracious arms embrace,
And kiss the sorrow from my face.
- 2 My every idol I resign,
By thy afflicting love compell'd;
Jesu, the victory is thine,
Hardly at last I yield, I yield
With every creature-good to part,
I give thee all this worthless heart.
- 3 With solemn dread my life, my fame,
My friend I on thy altar lay,
All human help, and hope disclaim,
And meekly wait the welcome day,

⁵⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 35–36.

That shall my weary soul release,
And lull me in eternal peace.

- 4 O might I now thy goodness taste,
And know the pardning God is mine,
Calmly lament, and groan my last,
Into thy hands my soul resign,
And plunge into the depths above,
The ocean of thy heavenly love!

Hymn XII.⁵⁵

- 1 Why should a living child of man
Beneath the scourge repine,
Or dare with impious grief t' arraign
The righteousness divine?
Why should I murmur at my load,
And farther still rebel,
So lightly chasten'd by my God,
And not thrust down to hell?
- 2 What are the sorest plagues I bear
To those the damn'd sustain?
What is my temporal despair
To their eternal pain?
My sins demand their dreadful hire,
My sins for vengeance call,
And short of that infernal fire
'Tis grace and mercy all.
- 3 What though my soul with shame is fill'd,
My heart o'erwhelm'd with dread,
What though my tender joys are kill'd,
And every comfort fled;

⁵⁵A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Richmond, 29–30.

What though my darling Isaac I
Am forc'd to offer up,
And live, when all my blessings die,
And drink the bitterest cup:

4 Shall I resent my slighted love,
Or mourn my murther'd fame,
Worthy the hate of all above,
And everlasting shame!
The loss of one weak, faithless friend
Still, still shall I bemoan,
When God, whose favours never end,
May yet be all my own?

5 God of my life, to thy decree
I humbly now submit,
Accept my punishment from thee,
And tremble at thy feet:
Whate'er thy will inflicts I take,
'Till all thy plagues are past;
But while my soul I render back,
O give me peace at last.

Hymn XIII.

Thanksgiving to God for His Disappointments.

1 God of my life, how good, how wise
Thy judgments on my soul have been!
They were but mercies in disguise,
The painful remedies of sin:
How different now thy ways appear,
Most merciful when most severe!

2 Since first the maze of life I trod,
Hast thou not hedg'd about my way,

My worldly vain designs withstood,
And robb'd my passions of their prey,
With-held the fewel from the fire,
And cross'd my every fond desire?

3 Trouble, and loss, and grief, and pain
Have crowded all my forty years;
I never could my wish obtain,
And own at last with joyful tears
The man whom God delights to bless,
He never curses with success.

4 How oft didst thou my soul with-hold,
And baffle my pursuit of fame,
And mortify my lust of gold,
And blast me in my surest aim,
Withdraw my animal delight,
And starve my groveling appetite?

5 Thy goodness, obstinate to save,
Hath all my airy schemes o'erthrown,
My will thou wouldst not let me have;
With blushing thankfulness I own
I envied oft the swine their meat,
But could not gain the husks to eat.

6 Thou wouldst not let thy captive go,
Or leave me to my carnal will,
Thy love forbad my rest below,
Thy patient love pursued me still,
And forc'd me from my sin to part,
And tore the idol from my heart.

7 Joy of mine eyes, and more belov'd
(Forgive me, gracious God) than thee,
Thy sudden stroke far off remov'd,
And stopp'd my vile idolatry,
And drove me from the idol's shrine,
And cast me at the feet divine.

- 8 But can I now the loss lament,
Or murmur at thy friendly blow?
Thy friendly blow my spirit hath rent,
From every seeming good below;
Thrice happy loss, which makes me see
My happiness is all in thee.
- 9 How shall I bless thy thwarting love,
So near in my temptation's hour!
It flew my ruin to remove,
It snatch'd me from my nature's power,
Broke off my grasp of creature good,
And plung'd me in th' atoning blood.
- 10 See then at last I all resign,
I yield me up thy lawful prey:
Take this poor, long-sought soul of mine,
And bear me in thine arms away,
Whence I may never more remove,
Secure in thy eternal love.

XLII.

Written, when under Reproach.

- 1 O my Galilean King,
Can I glory in this shame?
Can I this dishonour bring,
As a suffering for thy name?
Lord, thou knowst, and thou alone,
All our hearts to thee are known.
- 2 Naked, and without disguise
In thy sight my spirit stands:
Have I not from outward vice
Wash'd, in innocence, my hands,
From the great transgression free?
Lord, I dare appeal to thee.

- 3 Inwardly like other men,
Wholly born in sin I am:
Only thou didst still restrain
For the honour of thy name;
Kept by thine almighty grace,
Thee I render all the praise.
- 4 Nought have I whereof to boast,
Only sin to me belongs,
Scorn of the Philistine host,
Subject of the drunkard's songs,
Mark of Pharisaic zeal,
All the virtuous rage of hell.
- 5 Master, is it not for thee?
If I suffer for thy cause,
Bless the sacred infamy,
Crown the scandal of thy cross,
Now the peaceful answer give,
Let me now thy love receive.
- 6 Me if thou hadst never sent,
Satan's strongest holds t' o'erthrow,
Would he thus his malice vent,
Stir up all his powers below,
Make me as his children black;
Would he his own kingdom shake?
- 7 Lord, my time is in thy hand:
Judg'd in man's unrighteous day,
Let me in thy judgment stand,
When the wicked melt away,
Vindicate thy servant there,
Clear me at the last great bar!

XLIII.

Another [Written, when under Reproach.]

- 1 Thou Man of Griefs, I fain would be Perfectly conform'd to thee:
 Bestow the patient power,
The meekness of my injur'd Lamb,
And arm me for the fiery hour
 Of suffering for thy name.

- 2 Unknown to men, and meanly born,
 Happy object of their scorn,
 Content to live obscure,
And all things, but thy favour, need,
And want, as my great Master poor,
 A place to lay my head.

- 3 When call'd to testify thy grace,
 Set as adamant my face,
 My stedfast heart prepare:
Rejected, and abhorr'd of men,
O might I all thy burthen bear,
 And glory in thy pain.

- 4 Such honour all thy saints possess,
 Sufferers for righteousness:
 Such honour I have here;
But O! Thy righteousness I want,
I want t' endure 'till thou appear,
 And never, never faint.

- 5 Give me to triumph in thy shame,
 Branded with a madman's name,
 A false, deceiving liar,
A wine-bibber, and glutton too,
I rise in sacred scandal higher,
 And all thy steps pursue.

- 6 The world that mock'd, and slander'd thee,
Let them scorn and blacken me,
Pervert my good to evil,
(The lot my Lord did first receive)
And falsely cry he hath a devil,
And is not fit to live.
- 7 By bosom-friends betray'd, forsook,
Let me to my pattern look,
No human help desire,
But stand, secure without defence,
And force the heathen judge t' admire
My speechless innocence.
- 8 Let all in Satan's counsel join,
Jews and Gentiles both combine,
People and priests conspire
To drive me to my heavenly home,
And hoary Caiaphas require
The vile blasphemer's doom.
- 9 Happy, forever happy I,
Sentenc'd on thy cross to die!
But shall a sinner dare
Aspire to such a glorious grace?
Thou knowst I would thy passion share,
And die to see thy face.
- 10 I would for thee my life resign,
Suffer in the strength divine;
Thro' love's almighty power;
Would tread the path my Jesus trod,
And calmly meet the fiery hour,
Resisting unto blood.
- 11 Ah! Let it not my Lord displease,
That I long for my release!

Thy mind to me be given,
Thy Spirit breathe within my heart,
And let my soul, by violence driven,
Into thy arms depart.

- 12 Among the slaughter'd souls might I
Underneath the altar cry,
How long thou true, and holy,
Dost thou delay t' avenge our blood!
Come, Lord, and glorify us fully,
The martyr'd saints of God.

XLIV.
Desiring Death.
[Hymn I.]

- 1 To languish for his native air,
Can the poor, wandring exile cease?
The tir'd his wish of rest forbear?
The tortur'd help desiring ease?
The slave no more for freedom sigh?
Or I no longer pine to die?
- 2 As shipwreck'd mariners desire
With eager grasp to reach the shore,
As hirelings long t' obtain their hire,
And veterans wish their warfare o'er,
I languish from this earth to flee,
And gasp for immortality.
- 3 To heaven I lift my mournful eyes,
And all within me groans "How long?"
O were I landed in the skies!
The bitter loss, the cruel wrong
Should there no more my soul molest,
Or break my everlasting rest.

- 4 No faithless friend shall there be found
 To mock me with his offers vain,
 By deep ingratitude to wound,
 To cause, and then upbraid my pain,
 To leave me at my greatest need,
 Or trample on my sinking head.
- 5 In that Jerusalem above,
 No pain the happy spirit meets,
 No sense of ill-requited love,
 No sad complaining in their streets;
 Crying, and curse, and death are o'er;
 And there temptation is no more.
- 6 O could I break this fleshly fence,
 Drop all my sorrows in the tomb,
 On angels' wings remove from hence,
 And fly this happy moment home,
 Quit the dark house of mouldring clay,
 And launch into eternal day!

Hymn II.⁵⁶

- 1 O sorrowful soul,
 Thy measure is full,
 Thy cup it runs o'er,
 On earth thou canst sorrow, and suffer no more.
- 2 My comfort is fled,
 My joy is all dead,⁵⁷
 Extinguish'd my hope,
 And never again I on earth shall look up.⁵⁸
- 3 In patient distress
 From the creature I cease,

⁵⁶A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 32–34.

⁵⁷John Wesley underlined “joy is all dead” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁵⁸John Wesley underlined “on earth shall” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), adding an “!” in the margin at the end of the line.

Disdain the relief,
Which can neither remove, nor diminish my grief.⁵⁹

4 From the things that are seen,
From the children of men,
To the comforts I fly,
To the joys, and the pleasures that never shall die.

5 From the world I remove
To a city above,
Whose basis stands fast,
And long as the heavenly founder shall last.

6 No mournful complaints
In a city of saints,
No evil, or sin,
No want, or temptation can ever break in.

7 No curse to annoy,
No death to destroy,
No trouble, or care,
No anguish, or sorrow, or crying is there.

8 The King of the place
Shall shew me his face;
The rapturous sight
Shall fill me with pure and unfading delight.

9 O thrice blessed hope!
Even now it lifts up
My soul to the skies,
And wipes for a moment the tears from my eyes.

10 The vale I look thro'
To the glory in view,
That eternal reward
For all, who endure to the end with their Lord.

⁵⁹John Wesley underlined “neither remove, nor diminish” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 11 For that heavenly prize
The cross I despise,
'Till with life I lay down⁶⁰
The burthen, thro' which I inherit the crown.

[Desiring Death.]
Hymn III.⁶¹

- 1 Great author of my being,
Who seest mine inward care,
The ills of thy decreeing⁶²
Enable me to bear,
The justice of thy sentence
With meekest awe to own,
And spend in deep repentance
My last expiring groan.
- 2 The grief beyond expressing
To me, to me impart,
I ask this only blessing
An humble broken heart:
The spirit of contrition
O might I now receive,
For all my soul's ambition
Is worthily to grieve.
- 3 In sacred melancholy⁶³
I would thro' life⁶⁴ abide,
And wail my days of folly,
My years of sin, and pride,
Far from the paths of pleasure,
Disdaining all relief,
Would count my mournful treasure,
And hug my hoard of grief.⁶⁵

⁶⁰John Wesley underlined "with life" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), adding an "!" at the end of the line.

⁶¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Deliberative, 29–31; and MS Occasional Hymns, 21–22.

⁶²John Wesley underlined "ills of thy decreeing" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁶³John Wesley underlined this line in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁶⁴John Wesley underlined "thro' life" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁶⁵John Wesley underlined the last three lines in this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 4 Be this my constant care
 From all delight to flee,
 And suffer none to share
 My sacred misery;⁶⁶
 No succour, or compassion
 Of feeble man I crave,
 No earthly consolation,
 Or refuge—but the grave.⁶⁷
- 5 The friend, whom once I wanted
 To mitigate my woe,
 Revok'd as soon as granted,
 I calmly now forego,
 My latest strife is over,
 The fleeting good to stay,
 Nor would I, Lord, recover,
 Whom thou hast snatch'd away.
- 6 Thou knowst my heart's desire
 Is only to be gone,
 And silently retire,
 And live, and die alone:
 No sweet companion near
 To catch my latest sighs,
 My dying words to hear,
 Or close these weary eyes.
- 7 Only thou God of power,
 Thou God of love attend,
 In that decisive hour,
 When pain with life⁶⁸ shall end:
 Thou only bear my burthen,
 And help my last distress,
 And give me back my pardon,
 And bid me die in peace.
- 8 O for thy Jesus' merit,
 The forfeiture restore,
 And land my fainting spirit
 On yonder happy shore,

⁶⁶John Wesley underlined “sacred misery” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁶⁷John Wesley underlined this line in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁶⁸John Wesley underlined “with life” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

In safety waft me over,
And harbour in thy breast,
And let me there recover
Mine everlasting rest.

Hymn IV.⁶⁹

- 1 To the fountain of thy blood
With trembling haste I fly,
Wash me, O my pardning God,
From crimes of deepest die,
Purge my every crimson stain,
And give my burthen'd conscience ease,
Turn me to my rest again,
And bid me die in peace.
- 2 None of all thy gifts below
Do I, O Lord, desire,
Grant me but thy love to know,
And quietly expire,
From my sin's, my body's chain
This weary wretched soul release,
Turn me, &c.
- 3 If thou canst, the whole remit
Of what I feel, and fear,
Send me up out of the pit
Of temporal despair:
All the sad arrears of pain
Discharge by thy own righteousness,
Turn me, &c.
- 4 Let the punishment suffice
I have already borne,
Wipe the sorrow from my eyes,
And bid me now return;

⁶⁹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 79–80.

Me a wretched sinful man
Redeem from all my sinfulness:
Turn me, &c.

5 Weak, and coward as I am,
I dare no longer live:
Hide me from my grief, and shame,
And to thyself receive:
Might I now the port obtain,
Might all these storms and sorrows cease!
Turn me, &c.

6 Plunge me in the purple tide
Of thy atoning blood,
Take me, Lord, into thy side,
And bring me pure to God:
If thou hast not died in vain,
The purchase of thy passion seize,
Turn me to my rest again,
And bid me die in peace.

Hymn V.

At Laying Down.⁷⁰

1 When shall I lay down my head
On my softest, earthen bed,
Have the rest I fain would have,
Sink into the quiet grave!

2 When shall I my haven find,
Leave my cares, and griefs behind,
Gain the good for which I weep,
Close mine eyes in lasting sleep!

3 Might I now escape away,
Quit the tenement of clay,
Take my unsuspected flight,
Steal into the world of light.

⁷⁰A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 31–32.

- 4 Only this do I desire,
Change, and O! My soul require,
Come, my Lord, and Saviour come,
Now prepare, and take me home.
- 5 Now pronounce the welcome word,
Pardon, and receive me, Lord,
Now the hallowing blood apply,
Bid me lay me down, and die.
- 6 Work a sudden work of grace,
Cut it short in righteousness,
Liken'd to the saints in light,
Call me hence this happy night.
- 7 Save me now from all my fears,
Let me pour my latest tears,
Ere⁷¹ I see th' approaching morn,
Bid my spirit to God return;
- 8 Breathless leave this heavy clod,
Faint into the arms of God,
Glide in blissful dreams away,
Wake in everlasting day.

Hymn VI.⁷²

- 1 Thou wretched man of sorrow,
Whose eyes all day⁷³ o'erflow,
Indulge thy⁷⁴ grief, and borrow
The night for farther woe;
In ceaseless lamentation⁷⁵
Thy solemn moments spend,
And groan thy⁷⁶ expectation,
That pain with life shall end.

⁷¹Ori., "E're"; but clearly meant in sense of "before."

⁷²A manuscript precursor to this hymn can be found in Charles Wesley's letter to Sarah Gwynne Jr (March 1748).

⁷³John Wesley underlined "all day" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁴John Wesley underlined "indulge thy" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁵John Wesley underlined "ceaseless lamentation" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁶John Wesley underlined "groan thy" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 2 'Till then in fixt despair⁷⁷
 Of all relief I live,
 My utmost burthen bear,
 And now retire to grieve,
 To taste my only pleasure,⁷⁸
 In secret sighs complain,
 Augment my mournful treasure,⁷⁹
 And aggravate my⁸⁰ pain.
- 3 To pain, and grief inur'd
 I from the womb have been,
 And all the rage endur'd,
 And all the shame of sin,
 Wandred my forty years
 Throughout the desart wide,
 And in ten thousand fears
 Ten thousand deaths have died.
- 4 Eternal death's sad sentence
 I still, alas, receive,
 With fruitless, vain repentance
 For final mercy grieve;
 The ago'ny of temptation
 I every moment feel,
 As doom'd to desperation,
 As rushing into hell.
- 5 My comforts all are blasted,
 My Comforter is gone:
 The joy which once I tasted,
 O that I ne'er had known!
 The gourd which sooth'd my anguish,
 Is wither'd o'er my head,
 And faint with grief⁸¹ I languish
 To sink among the dead.
- 6 From all I suffer here,
 (If God my sins forgive)
 From all I feel, and fear
 I there redeem'd shall live:

⁷⁷John Wesley underlined “fixt despair” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁸John Wesley underlined “only pleasure” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁹John Wesley underlined “mournful treasure” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸⁰John Wesley underlined “aggravate my” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸¹John Wesley underlined “faint with grief” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- No serpent to deceive me,
No sin to stain my thought,
No loss, or wrong to grieve me,
Where all things are forgot.
- 7 No heart-distracting passion
Is there to break my peace,
But joy without cessation,
And love without excess:
Of paradise secure,
I shall no longer mourn;
The bliss is full, and sure,
The rose without a thorn.
- 8 Safe on the happy shore,
My soul the storm defies,
Where pain afflicts no more,
And grief no longer cries:
In that celestial city
From all our toils we cease,
And lose our sighing pity
In universal bliss.
- 9 In hope of that salvation
I feel a moment's rest,
The calm of expectation
Has stole into my breast;
I weep at rescue near,
I struggle to be gone,
And joy is in the tear,
And God is in the groan!
- 10 Hear then thy own petition,
And suddenly release,
And crown my sole ambition,
And let me die in peace:
Or lengthen out my care
To threescore years and ten,
But then in mercy spare,
But O! Receive me then!

Hymn VII.
In Weariness.⁸²

- 1 Worn out with long fatigue, and pain,
 Let my feeble flesh complain,
 Or fail beneath its load,
 My spirit shall superior rise,
 Regaining swift her native skies,
 And sooner reach her God.

- 2 Too long this corruptible clay
 Clouded the ethereal ray,
 And press'd my spirit down,
 A gainer now by every loss,
 I find in weariness a cross,
 That lifts me to a crown.

- 3 Of pain I now advantage make,
 Meekly bear it for his sake,
 Who suffer'd death for me:
 To suffer death for him I wait,
 And pain shall open wide the gate
 Of immortality.

- 4 O blessed hope of lasting peace!
 Let me lawfully decrease,
 And sensibly decay:
 Welcome whate'er my Lord ordain,
 Disease, or weariness, or pain,
 To hasten me away.

- 5 I come, with eager joy I come
 To my everlasting home,
 Where toil and sorrow end,
 Where all my stores of grief⁸³ shall fail,
 And I no more in groans bewail
 My poor departed⁸⁴ friend.

⁸²A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 38–39.

⁸³John Wesley underlined “all my stores of grief” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸⁴John Wesley underlined “poor departed” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6 In that Jerusalem above
All is harmony and love,
And joy without a sting:
The tears are banish'd from our eyes,
And not a single sigh can rise,
Where saints forever sing.
- 7 O might I, from this dungeon freed,
Now lay down my weary head,
My mournful soul resign,
This moment meet th' appointed day,
And faint, and sink, and die away
Into the arms divine.

Hymn VIII.⁸⁵

- 1 Jesu, help thy fallen creature!
Conque'ror of the world thou art,
Stronger than the fiend, and greater
Than this poor rebellious heart:
Power, I know, to thee is given,
Power to sentence or release,
Power to shut, or open heaven;
Thou alone hast all the keys.
- 2 Open then, in great compassion,
Open mercy's door to me,
Out of mighty tribulation
Bring me forth thy face to see;
O cut short my days of mourning,
Quickly to my rescue come,
Let me suddenly returning
Reach my everlasting home.

⁸⁵A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 39–40.

- 3 Hear me, Lord, myself bemoaning,
 Banish'd from my native place,
 Languishing for God, and groaning
 To appear before thy face:
 From this bodily oppression
 Set my earnest spirit free,
 Give me now the full possession,
 Let me now thy glory see.
- 4 If thou ever didst discover
 To my faith the promis'd land,
 Bid me now the stream pass over,
 On that heavenly border stand,
 Now surmount whate'er opposes,
 Into thine embraces fly;
 Speak the word thou spakst to Moses,
 Bid me get me up,⁸⁶ and die.

Hymn IX.⁸⁷

- 1 Weary world of sin, and anguish,
 How I long from thee to fly!
 Fainting for relief I languish,
 Dying thro' desire to die:⁸⁸
 O my life, my only treasure,
 Let me cast it all behind,
 Now fill up my mournful measure,⁸⁹
 Now my heavenly Canaan find.
- 2 Never shipwreck'd mari'ner wanted
 More to reach the distant shore,
 Never wandring exile panted
 For his native country more:
 Hear my earnest supplication,
 Thou who only canst release,

⁸⁶Ori., "bid me get up"; corrected to fit meter in 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸⁷A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 41–42.

⁸⁸John Wesley underlined "desire to die" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸⁹John Wesley underlined this line in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

Shew me now thy full salvation,
Let me now depart in peace.

- 3 Hear me, Lord, my suit redouble,
'Till the promise I obtain,
Cease from all my grief, and trouble,
Everlasting comfort gain:
Can it be to thee displeasing,⁹⁰
That I fain thy face would see,
Eager for the mighty blessing,
All on fire to die for thee.
- 4 Present with me in temptation,
Thou my troubled soul hast known,
All my sorrow, and vexation,
All my fear to thee I own:
Lord, I would not live to grieve thee,
Would not from thy bosom stray,
Place me, where I cannot leave thee,
Now transport my soul away.

Hymn X.⁹¹

- 1 O might the gracious hand
Which into being brought,
Transport me to that quiet land,
Where all things are forgot!
That land of settled rest,
Where fear, and grief is o'er,
And loss, and pain no more molest,
And sin torments no more.
- 2 This mountain-load of care,
This bitterness of shame,

⁹⁰John Wesley underlined this line in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756), responding “Yes” in manuscript in the margin.

⁹¹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 42–43.

This memo'ry—I shall lose it there,
 With all I feel, and am:
 In sweet oblivion drown'd
 My sorrows all shall cease;
 There only⁹² peace for me is found,
 A sure eternal peace.

3 I dare not hope⁹³ to see
 My sufferings end below,
 But wait the hour that sets me free
 From life, and all its woe:
 No gleam of joy shall steal⁹⁴
 Into this wretched heart,
 'Till God his perfect love reveal,
 And bid me hence depart.

4 Harden'd in just despair⁹⁵
 I hug the destin'd cross,⁹⁶
 The wound incurable⁹⁷ I bear,
 Th' irreparable loss:
 The pangs thro' which I groan
 On earth shall never end,⁹⁸
 For O! Eternity alone
 Can give me back my friend.

5 O happy, happy hope
 (My only hope of bliss)
 I, even I, shall there look up,
 And see my troubles cease,
 Beyond the cruel power
 Of sin I there shall be,
 I, even I, shall reach the shore
 Of calm eternity.

6 Come then, my friendly foes,
 With kindest violence come,
 Fill up the measure of my woes,
 Hasten my spirit home,

 To drive a wretch—without a name—
 Into the arms divine.

Hymn XI.

On the Death of Samuel Hitchens.⁹⁹

- 1 Again we lift our voice
 And shout our solemn joys!
 Cause of highest rapture this,
 Rapture that shall never fail,
 See a soul escap'd to bliss,
 Keep the Christian festival!
- 2 Our friend is gone before
 To that celestial shore!
 He hath left his mates behind,
 He hath all these storms outrode,
 Found the rest we toil to find,
 Landed in the arms of God.
- 3 And shall we mourn to see
 Our fellow-prisoner free?
 Free from doubts, and griefs, and fears,
 In the haven of the skies!
 Can we weep to see the tears
 Wip'd forever from his eyes?
- 4 No, dear companion, no!
 We gladly let thee go
 From a suffering church beneath
 To a reigning church above:
 Thou hast more than conquer'd death,
 Thou art crown'd with life, and love.

⁹⁹James Hitchens, a blacksmith at Gwennap, Cornwall was an early convert to Methodism. Four of his sons became lay preachers, suffering significant hardship and persecution for their labor. Two died “in the saddle.” The first, Samuel, is commemorated in this hymn. John Wesley published an account of his death and that of his brother a year later: A Short Account of the Death of Sam Hitchens (1746); and A Short Account of the Death of Thomas Hitchens (1747).

5 Thou in thy youthful prime
 Hast leap'd the bounds of time;
Suddenly from earth releast,
 Lo! We now rejoice for thee,
Taken to an early rest,
 Caught into eternity.

6 Thither we all repair,
 That glorious bliss to share:
We shall see the welcome day,
 We shall to the summons bow:
Come, Redeemer, come away,
 Now prepare, and take us now!

Hymn XII.
For One Departing.

1 Happy soul, thy days are ended,
 All thy mourning days below:
Go, by angel guards attended,
 To the sight of Jesus go!
Waiting to receive thy Spirit,
 Lo! The Saviour stands above,
Shews the purchase of his merit,
 Reaches out the crown of love.

2 Struggle thro' thy latest passion
 To thy dear Redeemer's breast,
To his uttermost salvation,
 To his everlasting rest:
For the joy he sets before thee,
 Bear a momentary pain,
Die, to live the life of glory,
 Suffer, with thy Lord to reign.

Hymn XIII.
On the Death of a Friend.¹⁰⁰

- 1 Farewell thou once a sinner,
My poor afflicted friend!
Thy Lord, thy faith's beginner,
Is now its glorious end!
The author of thy being
Hath summon'd thee away,
And faith is lost in seeing,
And night in endless day.
- 2 Thy days of pain and mourning,
Thy punishment is past,
And to thy God returning
Thy soul is sav'd at last:
Sav'd from a world of evils,
With Jesus Christ shut in,
Beyond the range of devils,
Beyond the reach of sin.
- 3 No more o'erwhelm'd with terrors,
Or rack'd with doubts thou art,
No more th' Almighty's arrows
Transfix thy bleeding heart:
No more thy wounded spirit
Faints under its full load,
Or cries, What man can bear it,
The heavy wrath of God!
- 4 The waves and storms of passion
Are all past o'er thy head,
From trouble and temptation
Thou liv'st forever freed:
No loss of friends shall grieve thee,
While all thy Eden share;

¹⁰⁰A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 43b–45.

They cannot, cannot leave thee,
Thy kind companions there.

5 With those that went before thee,
The saints of antient days,
Who shine in sacred story,
Thy soul hath found its place:
Acquainted with their sadness,
While in the weeping vale,
Thou sharest now their gladness,
And joys that never fail.

6 Thine earthly course is ended,
Thou hast obtain'd the prize,
Triumphantly ascended
To God in paradise:
From all thy care and sorrow
Thou art escap'd to-day—
And I shall mount to-morrow,
And I shall soar away.

7 Jesus, my hope of glory,
I owe it to thy grace,
That I shall soon adore thee,
And see thee face to face:
Fulfil my expectation,
And O! To take me home,
With all thy great salvation,
This happy moment come!

Hymn XIV.

Another [On the Death of a Friend].

1 While angel-quires their harps employ,
Strung with everlasting joy,
A stranger to receive,

Our joy with sorrow mixt we find,
The widow'd friends he left behind,
And innocently grieve.

[2]¹⁰¹ Stript of her choicest blessing here,
Nature drops a blameless tear,
From all impatience kept:
Calm we bewail our friend remov'd,
As Jesus mourn'd for his belov'd;
He died; and Jesus wept!

[3] Our loss we solemnly deplore,
Not like men who hope no more
Their ravish'd friend to see,
Sure to o'ertake his parted soul,
In grief, in death, our hope is full
Of immortality.

[4] Superior to ourselves we rise,
Struggle after to the skies,
And antedate the day,
When coming in the clouds we shall
The judge of quick and dead with all
His glorious saints survey.

[5] Amidst that bright ethereal train
We shall find our friend again,
Distinguish'd in the throng,
Our spirits shall his spirit know,
And sing with all we lov'd below
The Lamb's eternal song.

Hymn XV.

On the Death of Thomas Beard, who was Imprest for a Soldier, and Died in the Hospital at Newcastle.¹⁰²

- 1 Soldier of Christ, adieu!
 Thy conflicts here are past,
 Thy Lord hath brought thee thro',
 And giv'n the crown at last:
Rejoice to wear the glorious prize,
Rejoice with God in paradise.
- 2 There all thy sufferings cease,
 There all thy griefs are o'er,
 The pris'ner is at peace,
 The mourner weeps no more;
From man's oppressive tyranny
Thou liv'st, thou liv'st forever free.
- 3 Torn from thy friends below
 In banishment severe,
 A man of strife, and woe,
 No more thou wandrest here,
Join'd to thy better friends above,
At rest in thy Redeemer's love.
- 4 No longer now constrain'd
 With human fiends to dwell,
 To see their evil pain'd,
 Their blasphemies to feel:
Angels and saints thy comrades are,
And all adore the Saviour there.

¹⁰²Thomas Beard (d. 1744) was one of John Wesley's earliest lay preachers.

- 5 Thou canst not there bemoan
 Thy friends or country's loss,
 Thro' sore oppression groan,
 Or faint beneath the cross,
 The joy hath swallow'd up the pain,
 And death is thy eternal gain.
- 6 What hath their malice done
 Who hurried hence thy soul?
 When half thy race was run,
 They push'd thee to the goal,
 Sent to the souls supremely blest,
 And drove thee to thy earlier rest!
- 7 Thou out of great distress
 To thy reward art past,
 Triumphant happiness,
 And joys that always last:
 Thanks be to God, who set thee free,
 And gave the final victory.
- 8 Thy victory we share,
 Thy glorious joy we feel,
 Parted in flesh we are,
 But join'd in spirit still:
 And still we on our brethren call
 To praise the common Lord of all.
- 9¹⁰³ Not for your needless aid,
 Not for your useless prayers,
 (Jesus for us hath pray'd,
 And all our burthens bears)
 Yet still on you we call, and cry
 Extol the Lord of earth and sky.
- 10 Thus let us still maintain
 Our fellowship divine,
 And 'till we meet again
 In Jesus' praises join,

¹⁰³John Wesley crossed out this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

Thus, 'till we all your raptures know,
Sing you above, and we below!

Hymn XVI.

Another [On the Death of Thomas Beard, who was Imprest for a Soldier, and Died in the Hospital at Newcastle].¹⁰⁴

- 1 All worship and love
To the Father above,
Who hath summon'd another his glory to prove:
Who in pity and grace
Hath shortned his race,
And caught up a worm to the sight of his face.
- 2 Our friend is at rest
In a paradise blest,
Which sorrow, and Satan can never molest:
He hath shook off his clay,
He is wafted away,
And escap'd to the regions of permanent day.
- 3 Thrice happy remove
To a country above,
Where all are employ'd in the triumph of love!
We thitherward tend,
We too shall ascend,
And begin the enjoyment which never shall end.
- 4 For this do we mourn,
'Till by angels upborn,
We again to our heavenly border return:
Caught up in the air
We soon shall be there,
And our happy, unfading inheritance share.
- 5 What joy shall abound,
When our brethren around
The throne of our glorious Redeemer are found!

¹⁰⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 45–48.

When our comrades in pain
We embrace them again,
And in Jesus's bosom eternally reign.

6 With loving surprize
The whole company cries
How strangely at last are we met in the skies!
What a wonder of grace
Transcending our praise,
That we should be seen in this holiest place!

7 Poor sinners below,
Acquainted with woe,
How heavily once with our load did we go!
In trials severe
How oft did we fear
We should never hold out, we should never come here!

8 Fellow-prisoners beneath,
Our sorrowful breath
We wasted in passionate wishes for death;
Our evils so rife,
So painful our strife,
And so long did it seem the sad moment of life!

9 That moment is past!
We are landed at last,
We are safely arriv'd, where our anchor was cast:
On Immanuel's land
With a numberless band,
Of cherubs and seraphs exulting we stand.

10 For a moment of pain
We on earth did sustain,
An eternal reward we in heaven obtain:
Who governs the skies,
Hath banish'd our sighs,
And the Lamb he hath wip'd all the tears from our eyes.

- 11 No uneasy alloy
 Shall sully our joy,
 While our harps in Immanuel's praise we employ,
 Not a dissonant string
 Shall be heard while we sing
 With the chorus of angels, our Saviour and King.
- 12 Our Saviour we own
 Who sits on the throne,
 Salvation ascribe to the Father and Son!
 We are sav'd by the Lamb!
 Let all heaven proclaim,
 Let all heaven bow down to the wonderful name.
- 13 Our Jesus surround
 With majesty crown'd,
 And amen to our praises ye seraphim sound:
 Lo! He shews us his face!
 Ye seraphim gaze,
 Or fall, and adore in the spirit of praise.
- 14 Thus, thus let us lie,
 'Till rais'd by his eye,
 Hallelujah, again Hallelujah we cry!
 Progressively move,
 And in rapture improve,
 And eternity spend to the praise of his love.

Hymn XVII.

On the Death of Alexander White.¹⁰⁵

- 1 O what a soul-transporting sight
 Mine eyes to-day have seen,
 A spectacle of strange delight
 To angels, and to men!

¹⁰⁵Charles records writing this hymn in his MS Journal (December 31, 1748). He included the first two stanzas in a Letter to Sarah Gwynne Jr., December 30–31, 1748.

Nor human language can express,
 Nor tongue of angels paint
 The vast mysterious happiness
 Of a departing saint!

[2]¹⁰⁶ See there, ye misbelieving race,
 The wisdom from above!
 Behold in that pale, smiling face
 The power of him we love.
 How calmly through the mortal vale
 He walks with Christ his guide,
 And treads down all the powers of hell,
 And owns the crucified!

[3] Where is the king of terrors? Where
 The pomp of deadly pain?
 A child of God his frowns can dare,
 And all his darts disdain:
 “The king of fears,” he greatly cries,
 “Can never frighten me,
 Who grasp thro’ death the glorious prize
 Of immortality.

[4] “The life, which in my spirit dwells,
 He never can destroy,
 And all the pain my body feels
 Is swallow’d up in joy.
 Jesus doth all my burthens bear:
 And gladly I commend
 The objects of my latest care
 To my eternal friend.

[5] “Whate’er ye ask, whate’er ye want,
 My Lord shall richly give:
 The blessing of a dying saint
 On all your souls I leave.
 Come, follow to that happy place,
 Our Master’s joy to see,
 For O! In one short moment’s space
 Ye all shall rest with me.

¹⁰⁶Ori., “3.” Next stanzas: ori., “4–6” respectively. Error corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6 “Rejoice, my friends, I go before,
To meet my happy doom,
And tell them on the heavenly shore,
Ye all are hastning home.
For me my Father’s chariot waits,
I see the flaming steeds,
And lo! The everlasting gates
Lift up their pearly heads!
- 7 “The blessed messenger is sent,
To lead me to the throne,
Above that starry firmament,
Above that glimmering sun.
The angel beckons me away
To fairer worlds on high:
And let me now the call obey,
And lay me down, and die.
- 8 “At this thrice welcome time of grace,
When God for me was born,
Made ready for his kind embrace,
My spirit shall return.
To-day I shall with rapture see
The child to mortals given,
And kiss the Incarnate Deity,
And keep the feast in heaven.
- 9 “Even now the earnest he reveals
Of my eternal rest,
Th’ immeasurable comfort swells
This weak transported breast:
My body fails, my soul wants air,
And gasps for its remove,
So much of heaven I cannot bear,
I am too full of love.”
- 10 Thrice happy soul! By special grace
So highly favour’d here,
To sound in death the Saviour’s praise,
And breathe the Comforter:

On earth t' enjoy the blissful sight
 To dying Stephen given,
 And see his Lord enthron'd in light,
 And see his opening heaven.

- 11 That heavenly bliss, when language fails,
 His every look displays,
 And every smile divinely tells
 The raptures of the place.
 The glory, while he lays it down,
 Shines thro' the sinking clay,
 And lo! Without a parting groan,
 The soul ascends away!
- 12 Without a groan the Christian dies!
 But not without a word:
 On me, on me, he loudly cries,
 To meet our common Lord.
 He calls me by my worthless name,
 My soul he beckons home:
 And lo! In Jesus' hands I am,
 And lo! I gladly come!
- 13 Witness my undissembled tears,
 If here I wish to stay,
 Or rather to shake off my fears,
 And corruptible clay.
 Witness the searcher of my heart,
 Whose absence I bemoan,
 And pine, and languish to depart,
 And struggle to be gone.
- 14 Lord, if thou didst indeed inspire
 Thy servant's dying breast,
 And fill him with thine own desire,
 That I with thee might rest;
 Thine own desire in me fulfil,
 Thy perfect love dispense,
 And freely my backslidings heal,
 And now transport me hence.

Hymns of Intercession.
[Hymn I.]¹⁰⁷

- 1 Head of thy church, whose Spirit fills,
And flows thro' every faithful soul,
Unites in mystic love, and seals
Them one, and simplifies the whole;
- 2 Less than the least of saints, I join
My littleness of faith to theirs,
O King of all, thine ear incline,
Accept our much-availing prayers.
- 3 Come, Lord, the glorious Spirit cries,
And souls beneath the altar groan,
Come, Lord, the bride on earth replies,
And perfect all our souls in one.
- 4 Pour out the promis'd gift on all,
Answer the universal "Come,"
The fulness of the Gentiles call,
And take thine antient people home.
- 5 To thee let all the nations flow,
Let all obey the gospel-word,
Let all their bleeding Saviour know,
Fill'd with the glory of the Lord.
- 6 O for thy truth and mercy sake,
The purchase of thy passion claim,
Thine heritage the Gentiles take,
And cause the world to know thy name.
- 7 Thee, Lord, let every tongue confess,
Let every knee to Jesus bow:

¹⁰⁷Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 44a–44b; and MS Thirty, 54–55.

O! All-redeeming Prince of Peace,
We long to see thy kingdom now.

- 8 Hasten that kingdom of thy grace,
And take us to our heavenly home,
And let us now behold thy face:
Come, glorious God, to judgment come!

Hymn II.¹⁰⁸

- 1 O thou our husband, brother, friend,
Behold a cloud of incense rise,
The prayers of saints to heaven ascend,
Grateful, unceasing sacrifice.
- 2 Regard our prayers for Sion's peace,
Shed in our hearts thy love abroad;
Thy gifts abundantly increase,
Enlarge, and fill us all with God.
- 3 Before thy sheep, great shepherd, go,
And guide into thy perfect will;
Cause us thy hallow'd name to know,
The work of faith with power fulfil.
- 4 Help us to make our calling sure,
O! Let us all be saints indeed,
And pure as God himself is pure,
Conform'd in all things to our head.
- 5 Take the dear purchase of thy blood;
Thy blood shall wash us white as snow,
Present us sanctified to God,
And perfected in love below.

¹⁰⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 44b–45a; and MS Thirty, 55–56.

- 6 That blood which cleanses from all sin,
That efficacious blood apply,
And wash, and make us throughly clean,
And change, and wholly sanctify.
- 7 From all iniquity redeem,
Cleanse by the water and the word,
And free from every touch of blame,
And make the servants as their Lord.
- 8 Wash out the deep, original stain,
And make us glorious all within,
No wrinkle on our souls remain,
No smallest spot of inbred sin.
- 9 Then, when the perfect life of love
The bride and all her children live,
Come down, and take us from above,
And to thy heaven of heavens receive.

Hymn III.¹⁰⁹

- 1 O most compassionate high-priest,
Full of all grace we know thou art;
Faith puts its hands upon thy breast,
And feels beneath thy panting heart.
- 2 Thy panting heart for sinners bleeds;
Thy mercies, and compassions move;
Thy groaning Spirit interceeds,
And yearn the bowels of thy love.
- 3 Hear then the pleading Spirit's prayer,
(The Spirit's will to thee is known)
For all who now thy sufferings share,
And still for full redemption groan.

¹⁰⁹Published previously as "Prayer for Those Who are Convinced of Sin," appended to Nature, Design, and General Rules... (Newcastle: Gooding, 1743), 10–11. A manuscript precursor appears in MS Thirty, 57–59.

- 4 Poor tempted souls, with tempests tost,
And strangers to a moment's peace;
Disconsolate, afflicted, lost,
Lost in an howling wilderness.
- 5 Torn with an endless war within,
Vex'd with the flesh and Spirit's strife,
And struggling in the toils of sin,
And agonizing into life.
- 6 O! Let the prisoners mournful cries
As incense in thy sight appear!
Their humble wailings pierce the skies,
If hap'ly they may feel thee near.
- 7 The captive exiles make their moans,
From sin impatient to be free:
Call home, call home thy banish'd ones!
Lead captive their captivity!
- 8 Shew them the blood that bought their peace,
The anchor of their stedfast hope;
And bid their guilty terrors cease,
And bring the ransom'd prisoners up.
- 9 Out of the deep regard their cries,
The fallen raise, the mourners cheer;
O Sun of righteousness, arise,
And scatter all their doubt, and fear!
- 10 Pity the day of feeble things:
O! Gather every halting soul,
And drop salvation from thy wings,
And make the contrite sinner whole.
- 11 Stand by them in the fiery hour,
Their feebleness of mind defend;
And in their weakness shew thy power,
And make them patient to the end.

- 12 O! Satisfy their soul in drought;
Give them thy saving health to see,
And let thy mercy find them out;
And let thy mercy reach to me.
- 13 Hast thou the work of grace begun,
And brought them to the birth in vain?
O let thy children see the sun!
Let all their souls be born again.
- 14 Relieve the souls whose cross we bear,
For whom thy suffering members mourn;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer:
Bid every struggling child be born.
- 15 Hark, how thy turtle-dove complains,
And see us weep for Sion's woe!
Pity thy suffering people's pains;
Avenge us of our inbred foe.
- 16 Whom thou has bound, O Lord, expel,
And take his armour all away;
The man of sin, the child of hell,
The devil in our nature slay.
- 17 Him, and his works at once destroy,
The being of all sin erase,
And turn our mourning into joy,
And cloath us with the robes of praise.
- 18 Then, when our sufferings all are past,
O! Let us pure and perfect be,
And gain our calling's prize at last,
Forever sanctified in thee.

[Hymns of Intercession.]
Hymn IV.¹¹⁰

- 1 Author of faith, we seek thy face,
 For all who feel thy work begun;
 Confirm, and 'stablish them in grace,
 And bring thy feeblest children on.
- 2 Thou seest their wants, thou knowst their names:
 Be mindful of thy youngest care;
 Be tender of thy new-born lambs,
 And gently in thy bosom bear.
- 3 The lion roaring for his prey,
 With ravening wolves on every side;
 Watch over them to tear, and slay,
 If found one moment from their guide.
- 4 Satan his thousand arts essays,
 His agents all their powers employ,
 To blast the blooming work of grace,
 The heavenly offspring to destroy.
- 5 Baffle the crooked serpent's skill,
 And turn his sharpest dart aside;
 Hide from their eyes the devilish ill,
 O save them from the plague of pride.
- 6 The dreaming, visionary fiend
 Unmask, and drag to open light,
 And let his wild illusions end,
 And chase him to eternal night.
- 7 In safety lead thy little flock,
 From hell, the world, and sin secure;
 And set their feet upon the Rock,
 And make in thee their goings sure.

¹¹⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 45a–45b; and MS Thirty, 64–65.

- 8 From idol-loves, and vain desires
O God, thy little children keep,
And fill their hearts with holy fires,
And lull them in thy arms to sleep.
- 9 There let them lie secure, and take
Their rest, and never thence remove,
'Till in thy likeness they awake,
The glorious likeness of thy love.

LXV.
[Hymns of Intercession.]
[Hymn V.]
For the Fallen.

- 1 Shepherd of Israel, hear
Our supplicating cry,
And gather in the souls sincere,
That from their brethren fly;
Scatter'd thro' devious ways
Collect thy feeble flock,
And join by thine atoning grace,
And hide them in the Rock.
- 2 Thou every simple heart
With pity dost behold:
Ah! Bring again whom Satan's art
Hath sever'd from the fold;
The souls far off remov'd,
Whose burthen still we bear,
Ah! Give them back so dearly lov'd,
To faith's almighty prayer.
- 3 We stedfastly believe
Such power belongs to thee,
Thou canst the lawful prey retrieve,
And set the captives free,

Canst bring the wanderers back,
So perfectly restore,
That Satan never more shall shake,
Shall never touch them more.

4 O wouldst thou end the storm,
That keeps us still apart;
The thing impossible perform,
And make us of one heart;
One spirit, and one mind,
The same that was in thee;
O might we all again be join'd
In perfect charity.

5 Jesu, at thy command,
We know it shall be done:
Take the two sticks into thy hand,
The two shall then be one;
One body, and one fold,
We then shall sweetly prove,
And live in thee, like those of old,
The life of spotless love.

[6] God of all power, and grace,
Set up thy bloody sign,
And gather those, that seek thy face,
And by thy Spirit join:
Thy few remaining sheep
In Britain's pastures bred,
United to each other keep,
United to their head.

7 The soul-transforming word
In us, ev'n us fulfil:
Join to thyself, our common Lord,
And all thy servants seal;
Confer the grace unknown,
The mystic charity:
As thou art with thy Father one,
Unite us all in thee.

8 So shall the world believe
 Our record, Lord, and thine,
And thee with thankful hearts receive
 The messenger divine,
 Sent from his throne above,
 To Adam's offspring given,
To join, and perfect us in love,
 And take us all to heaven.

Hymn VI.
For a Sick Friend.

1 See, Lord, with pity see
 The object of thy love,
And help his soul's infirmity,
 And all his griefs remove,
 Support the tottering clay
 That weighs his spirit down,
And lead him thro' this thorny way
 To that eternal crown.

2 Yet now in life detain
 His soul for Sion's sake,
In mercy lift him up again,
 And to his friends give back:
 In answer to our cry,
 Thy chosen servant raise,
And send him forth to testify
 The gospel of thy grace.

3 Regard thy faithful ones,
 Who all his burthen bear,
And hear in us the earnest groans,
 The Spirit's silent prayer;

The prayer that oft hath stay'd
The saints in their remove,
And in the vale their souls delay'd,
T' enhance their joy above.

- 4 According to thy will
If now thy Spirit prays,
The prayer of faith the sick shall heal,
And lengthen out his days:
Thou knowst the Spirit's mind
To us, O Lord, unknown;
But lo! We wait on thee, resign'd,
'Till all thy will be done.

Hymn VII.

Another [For a Sick Friend].

- 1 See, Lord, the object of thy love,
And O come quickly from above,
The blessing to impart,
Him to thyself by faith unite,
And in large bloody letters¹¹¹ write
Forgiveness on his heart.
- 2 Feeble, and languishing in pain,
He only longs thy love to gain,
That medicine of the soul:
Jesus, thy pardning love reveal,
And give him now the balm to feel,
Which made our spirits whole.
- 3 Lo! In the arms of faith and prayer
To thee his sin-sick soul we bear,
And place beneath thine eye;
Pronounce the comfortable word,
And speak him now to health restor'd,
And freely justify.

¹¹¹John Wesley underlined “large bloody letters” in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756). He also placed a “Q” in the margin.

- 4 Thou Son of man, with equal ease
 The body's and the soul's disease
 Canst in a moment heal,
 Canst from his bed of sickness raise,
 And by thine instantaneous grace
 His present pardon seal.
- 5 But that the faithless world may know
 Thou canst forgive our sins below,
 Before we reach the skies,
 The double miracle repeat,
 Absolve the sinner at thy feet,
 And bid his body rise.
- 6 Body, and soul at once restore,
 And bid him testify the power,
 That shews his sins forgiven,
 Bid him by faith take up the bed,
 On which thy sacred limbs were laid,
 And bear his cross to heaven.

Hymn VIII.

For a Backslider in Despair.

- 1 See, Lord, with tenderest pity see
 A wandring sheep, cut off from thee,
 And from thy people driven,
 A fallen soul that did run well;
 Arrest her on the brink of hell,
 And snatch her up to heaven.
- 2 Her to the throne of grace we bear,
 And strive, in agony of prayer,
 To tear her from the foe:

Break, Jesu, break the lion's teeth,
And pluck her from the toils of death,
And let the captive go.

3 Is she so near the burning lake,
That thou no more canst bring her back,
Canst ransom her no more?
Nay, but thou able art to save
A soul within the gaping grave,
And bid the deep restore.

4 Stir up, O Lord, thine utmost power,
And pluck her in this gracious hour
Out of the fowler's snare,
Command th' accuser to depart,
And kill the worm that gnaws her heart,
The viper of despair.

5 For her the plaintive turtle moans,
For her the pleading Spirit groans,
And lo! Thy saints agree
Touching this thing, in faith to claim
A pardon, Jesus, in thy name,
A pardon full and free.

6 Canst thou reject thy Spirit's cry?
Canst thou thy bride, thyself deny?
Nay, but thou shalt not rest,
No, never will we let thee go,
'Till she again thy mercy know,
And sink upon thy breast.

7 Extend thine arms, and take her in,
A weary fugitive from sin,
To shew thy utmost power,
Now, Lord, from Satan's bond release,
And freely give her back her peace,
And bid her sin no more.

Hymn IX.
For a Backslider.

- 1 Master, come, no more delay,
From thine own no longer stay,
Whom thou lov'st is sick of pride,
Sick, for whom thyself hast died.
- 2 See the soul whose fall we weep,
Come, and wake him out of sleep,
Lull'd in self-security,
Halting 'twixt the world and thee.
- 3 Hear our faith's effectual prayer,
Snatch him from the fatal snare,
Now thy ready help supply,
Come, before our brother die.
- 4 Ask, (thyself hast said) and have:
Save him then, in mercy save,
Grant the grace for him we claim,
Life we ask in Jesus' name.
- 5 Jesu, call to mind thy word,
Give him to our faith restor'd,
Freely his backslidings heal,
On his heart his pardon seal.
- 6 Make him as the troubled sea,
'Till he find his rest in thee,
Bind, and then his soul release,
Bid him then depart in peace.

Hymn X.
For the Wavering.

- 1 See, Lord, our wavering brethren see,
Ready to leave thy church and thee,
 Beguil'd by hellish art,
O save them, save them from the snare,
Watch o'er thine own with jealous care,
 And keep their feeble heart.

- 2 O do not quit thy gracious hold,
Nor let them straggle from the fold
 In danger's trying hour;
Thine arm in their behalf display,
Bear them on eagles' wings away
 Beyond the tempter's power.

- 3 Why should a child of thine give place
To Satan, with his angel-face?
 Jesu, the cloud dispel,
Give them to see his specious lies,
And strip him of his fair disguise,
 And all his depths reveal.

- 4 Apprize them of the ruin near,
Fill all their soul with sacred fear,
 With wisdom from above
Their unsuspecting heart inspire,
Surround them as a wall of fire,
 And wrap them in thy love.

- 5 Thy love, that found the wandring sheep,
O! Let it still in safety keep
 These children of our prayer;
In answer to our faithful cry,
Preserve them, 'till they reach the sky,
 And own thy people there!

Hymn XI.¹¹²
For the Tempted.

- 1 Meek, patient Son of God and man,
 With us in our temptation stay;
 Our fainting, feeble minds sustain,
 And keep throughout the evil day;
 The evil day of doubts, and fears,
 And fightings, 'till thy face appears.

- 2 We have not an high-priest in thee,
 Who cannot our afflictions feel;
 The tempted soul's infirmity
 With kind concern affects thee still;
 Touch'd with our every grief thou art,
 And bleeds for us thy pitying heart.

- 3¹¹³ For us, by men and fiends distrest,
 For us by various passions torn,
 Who toil to enter into rest,
 Who for thy second coming mourn,
 And fill thy sacred sorrows up,
 And drink thine agonizing cup.

- 4 Companions to the Man of Woe,
 O! Let us still, with thee abide;
 Tempted, alas! To let thee go,
 And start from the command aside,
 By every wind of doctrine driven,
 To seek a broader way to heaven.

- 5 Yes, Lord, with deepest shame we own
 Our weariness of all thy ways,
 Our haste to throw thy burthen down,
 Nor bear the hidings of thy face,
 Nor wait 'till thou create us new,
 And give the crown to conquest due.

¹¹³John Wesley crossed out this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6¹¹⁴ We fear'd to wait thy leizure, Lord,
 Or make the crown thro' sufferings sure,
 Nature the killing word abhor'd,
 Nor would we to the end endure,
 But snatch a cheap fallacious peace,
 And rest in fancied holiness.
- 7 Ah! Do not let thy sheep depart,
 Wide-scatter'd, in the cloudy day,
 But cross th' angelic tempter's art,
 But spoil the lion of his prey,
 Nor let us from our hope remove,
 Our gospel-hope of perfect love.
- 8 Us, and our brethren in distress,
 Patient within thy kingdom keep,
 Sure all thy fulness to possess,
 Our harvest in the end to reap,
 Thy sinless nature to retrieve,
 And glorious in thine image live.

Hymn XII.¹¹⁵

- 1 Saviour, to thee we humbly cry:
 The brethren we have lost restore,
 Recall them by thy pitying eye,
 Retrieve them from the tempter's power,
 By thy victorious blood cast down,
 Nor suffer him to take their crown.
- 2 Beguil'd, alas, by Satan's art
 We see them now far off remov'd,
 The burthen of our bleeding heart,
 The souls whom once in thee we lov'd,
 Whom still we love with grief, and pain,
 And weep for their return in vain.

¹¹⁴John Wesley crossed out this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

¹¹⁵Published previously in Short View of the Difference Between the Moravian Brethren and the Rev. Mr. John and Charles Wesley (London: Strahan, 1745), 23–24.

- 3 In vain, 'till thou the power bestow,
 The double power of quickning grace,
 And make the happy sinners know
 Their tempter with his angel-face,
 Who leads them captive at his will,
 Captive—but happy sinners still:
- 4 O wouldst thou break the fatal snare
 Of carnal self-security,
 And let them feel the wrath they bear,
 And let them groan their want of thee,
 Robb'd of their false pernicious peace,
 Stript of their fancied righteousness.
- 5 The men of careless lives, who deem
 Thy righteousness accounted theirs,
 Awake out of the soothing dream,
 Alarm their souls with humble fears,
 Thou jealous God, stir up thy power,
 And let them sleep in sin no more.
- 6 Long as the guilt of sin shall last,
 Them in its misery detain,
 Hold their licentious spirits fast,
 Bind them with their own nature's chain,
 Nor ever let the wanderers rest,
 'Till lodg'd again in Jesus' breast.

[Hymns of Intercession.]

Hymn XIII.

- 1 Shepherd divine, at whose command
 I seek the wandring souls of men,
 Supported by thy chastning hand,
 To thee I groan mine inmost pain,
 To thee pour out my sad complaint,
 And sweetly on thy bosom faint.

- 2 Thou only knowst the load I bear,
 For every weak and wavering sheep:
For them I in thy bowels care,
 For them in secret places weep,
And tremble at their danger nigh,
And daily mourn, and daily die.
- 3 I mourn for those that did run well,
 But now have left the narrow way,
Have lost their former love, and zeal,
 And fainted in their evil day,
And weakly giv'n to Satan place,
To Satan with his angel-face.
- 4 Beguil'd, alas, of their reward,
 And baffled by his soothing lie,
Poor blinded souls, they call thee Lord,
 But all thy kingly power deny,
Thy perfect power to root out sin,
And bring the heavenly nature in.
- 5 Remov'd from the sure gospel-hope,
 They vilely cast their shield away,
Their calling's glorious prize give up,
 Down the smooth path of pleasure stray,
BlaspHEME the grace they will not prove,
And spurn the pearl of perfect love.
- 6 Lull'd in imaginary peace,
 Rich in a fancied faith they reign,
And fold their arms, and take their ease,
 And settled on their lees again
All inward holiness disclaim,
Since Christ was meek, and chaste for them.
- 7 Thy righteousness to cloak their sin
 They claim with lips and hearts impure,
Unchang'd, unhallow'd, and unclean,
 They fancy their salvation sure,

Wrapt up in fleshly liberty,
Happy in sin, but not in thee.

- 8 Ah! Wouldst thou, Lord, once more awake
Their souls out of the dead repose,
Their Babel schemes in pieces shake,
And give them back the Spirit's throes,
The labour for substantial peace,
The strife for real righteousness.
- 9 My heart's desire, and prayer to thee
Is, that they may be sav'd at last,
Tho' tost on error's stormy sea,
Late on the Rock of Ages cast,
In pieces let them dash their pride,
And sink—into the crucified!
- 10 Who will not be by love constrain'd,
O bring them by thy judgments back,
Regard the prayer of faith unfeign'd,
And save them for thy mercy's sake;
Answer our lab'ring heart's desire,
And save them by affliction's fire.

LXXIV.

[Hymns of Intercession.]

Hymn XIV.

- 1 Ah! Lord, regard my endless woe,
Remove at last the load I bear,
I will not, will not let thee go,
Without an answer to my prayer,
But grieve, 'till thou suppress my sighs,
And dry the fountains of my eyes.
- 2 Ceaseless I mourn my children lost,
The children whom thy grace had giv'n,
Or to and fro by Satan tost,
By every wind of doctrine driven,

Or hamper'd in the toils of hell—
 Poor helpless souls, that did run well!

- 3 Part by their own inventions led,
 Down the broad path of pleasure stray,
 In Egypt hide their guilty head,
 And happy by the fleshpots stay,
 Indulge their sensual heart's desires,
 And mock at what thy law requires.
- 4 Choak'd by the thorns of worldly care
 Others give up their calling's prize,
 No fruit unto perfection bear,
 But bound in lust, or avarice
 Eternity for time forego,
 And seek their base delight below.
- 5 Stumbling on shame's offensive rock,
 Others have left the thorny road,
 Thy people, and thy cause forsook,
 And prudently denied their God,
 Secur'd an honourable name,
 And lost their souls, to keep their fame.
- 6 How many to th' angelic foe
 Have weakly fall'n an easy prey,
 And let their holy calling go,
 And wandred down a smoother way,
 Charm'd by his Antinomian lore,
 To watch, and pray, and strive no more!
- 7 Ah! Lord, the grievous havock see,
 Which Satan of thy church hath made,
 And set once more the prisoners free,
 By pride into his toils betray'd,
 Once more the keen conviction dart,
 And break the self-deceiving heart.

8 O! For the honour of thy name,
Release the slaves to evil sold,
Again with heavenly fire inflame
The souls whose love is waxen cold,
And fix, and stablish us in grace,
The mon'ments of thy perfect praise.

LXXV.

[Hymns of Intercession.]

Hymn XV.

1 Shepherd of souls, lay to thine hand,
And vindicate thine injur'd cause,
The troublers of thy flock withstand,
The foes, and haters of thy cross,
Who cause thy little ones to stray,
And lead them down an easier way.

2 Thy poor, opprest disciples, Lord,
In peril 'mongst false brethren see,
And O! Thy timely help afford
To us, that look for help in thee,
Who hearst the tempted soul's complaint,
And givest power to all that faint.

3 We beckon'd to our friends for aid,
Our partners in the other ship:
They came; our easy trust betray'd,
They came—to sink us in the deep,
Our vessel 'gainst their own to break,
And then to gather up the wreck.

4 Deceitful workers, in thy name,
With guile they catch the simple heart,
The feeble followers of the Lamb
They make them from thy paths depart,

Remove from their high calling's prize,
And rob them of their paradise.

5 Deceiving, and deceiv'd, they glide
Down the smooth stream of carnal peace,
The gate thro' which they pass is wide,
And broad their path of righteousness,
No strife, no conflict, and no care,
No cross, or holiness is there.

6 Perfect at once, and pure, and clean,
Yet foul, imperfect, and impure,
They sin, and bless themselves in sin,
And boast of their salvation sure:
Saviour, the fond delusion shew,
For O! They know not what they do.

7 Alas, for them, that will not know
The Lord abhors their sacrifice,
Who weak, unstable souls o'erthrow,
And on their brethren's ruin rise,
Offer thee fraud, and robbery,
And fawn, and lie, and steal for thee.

8 Forgive them, Lord, but O! Restrain,
No longer let their guile proceed:
O might they their first love regain,
And simply in thy statutes tread,
Their faith by their obedience prove,
And rise with us to perfect love.

Hymns for the Persecuted.

[Hymn I.]

1 Jesu, the growing work is thine,
And who shall hinder its success?
In vain the alien armies join,
Thy glorious gospel to suppress,

And vow, with Satan's aid, t' o'erthrow
The work thy grace revives below.

- 2 The wary world, as Julian wise,
Wise with the wisdom from beneath,
A while its milder malice tries,
And lets these mad enthusiasts breathe,
Breathe to infect their purest air,
And spread the plague of virtue there.
- 3 Wondring the calm despisers stand,
And dream that they the respite give,
Restrain'd by thine o'er-ruling hand,
They kindly suffer us to live,
Live, to defy their master's frown,
And turn his kingdom up-side down.
- 4 Still the old dragon bites his chain,
Not yet commission'd from on high,
Rage the fierce Pharisees in vain,
Away with them the zealots cry,
And hoary Caiaphas exclaims,
And Bonner dooms us to the flames.
- 5 But our great God, who reigns on high,
Shall laugh their haughty rage to scorn,
Scatter their evil with his eye,
Or to his praise their fierceness turn;
While all their efforts to remove
His church, shall stablish her in love.
- 6 Yes, Lord, thy promise-word is true,
Our sacred hairs are number'd all,
Tho' earth, and hell our lives pursue,
Without thy leave we cannot fall:
And if thou slack the murtherer's chain,
We suffer but with thee to reign.

7¹¹⁶ Our sufferings shall advance thy cause,
 And blunt the persecutor's sword,
 Dispread the victory of thy cross,
 And glorify our conqu'ring Lord;
 Evil shall work for Sion's good:
 Its seed is still the martyr's blood.

Hymn II.

For the Brethren at Wednesbury.

- 1 Dear dying Lamb, for whom alone
 We suffer pain, and shame, and loss,
 Hear thine afflicted people groan,
 Crush'd by the burthen of thy cross,
 And bear our fainting spirits up,
 And bless the bitter, sacred cup.
- 2 Drunkards, and slaves of lewd excess,
 Bad, lawless men, thou knowst, we liv'd:
 The world, and we were then at peace,
 No devil his own servants griev'd,
 Evil we did, but suffer'd none;
 The world will always love its own.
- 3 But now we would thy word obey,
 And strive t' escape the wrath divine,
 Expos'd to all, an helpless prey,
 Bruis'd by our enemies, and thine,
 As sheep 'midst ravening wolves we lie,
 And daily grieve, and daily die.
- 4 Smitten, we turn the other cheek,
 Our ease, and name, and goods forego,
 Help, or redress no longer seek
 In any child of man below;

¹¹⁶Ori., "8" (in both editions).

The powers thou didst for us ordain,
For us they bear the sword in vain.

- 5 But wilt thou not at last appear,
 Into thine hand the matter take?
We look for no protection here,
 But thee our only refuge make,
To thee, O righteous judge, appeal,
And wait thine acceptable will.
- 6 Thou wilt not shut thy bowels up,
 Or justice to the opprest deny;
Thy mercy's ears thou canst not stop
 Against the mournful prisoner's cry,
Who ever make our humble moan,
And look for help to thee alone.
- 7 Then help us meekly to sustain
 The cross of man's oppressive power,
To slight the shame, endure the pain,
 And calmly wait the welcome hour,
That brings the fiery chariot down,
And whirls us to our heavenly crown.

Hymn III.

For the Brethren at the Devizes.

- 1 Jesus of Nazareth, look down
On those thou call'st thy flesh and bone,
 Thy suffering members here:
Arise, in their defence arise,
And now, in all the heathen's eyes,
 On Israel's part appear.

- 2 Thy weakest confessors defend,
And let them on thyself depend
For help in their distress:
Support, confirm the feeble mind,
And keep them all on thee reclin'd,
And keep in perfect peace.
- 3 Let none forsake the fold, and fly,
Let none thro' fear their Lord deny,
But stand the fiery hour,
The greatness of thy mercy prove,
The truth of thy redeeming love,
And all-sufficient power.
- 4 Let none unwarily give place
To Satan, with his angel-face,
And yield their souls to sell,
To sell their conscience, and their God,
Or weary leave the narrow road,
And go for ease—to hell.
- 5 Still may they on the world look down,
Superior to its smile and frown,
Its threats and promises;
The tempter tread beneath their feet,
And thee, where Satan keeps his seat,
In life, and death confess.
- 6 Now, Saviour, now their fears remove,
The sense of thy redeeming love
Abundantly impart,
To all whose sacred load¹¹⁷ we feel;
The prayer of faith this moment seal
On every panting heart.

¹¹⁷Ori., “love”; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

Hymn IV.
For One in Prison.

- 1 O Saviour of sinners distrest,
The sighs of thy captive attend,
And succour, and set him at rest,
And ransom his soul to the end:
Our brother, whose burthen we bear,
Whom into thy hands we resign,
Preserve with thy tenderest care,
And seal him eternally thine.

- 2 Afflicted, and hated of men,
Of thee, and thy servants belov'd,
We see him with pity and pain,
From all his companions remov'd;
Whom present in spirit we find,
Him absent in body we mourn,
And long to be perfectly join'd,
And pray for his happy return.

- 3 O Father, who hearest the prayer,
Presented in Jesus's name,
The peaceable answer declare,
Confirm'd in the blood of the Lamb;
We pray thee, for Jesus's sake
The prisoner of Jesus retrieve,
And give us his confessor back,
And all to thy glory receive.

Hymn V.
Another [For One in Prison].

- 1 Hear, O Lord, the ceaseless prayer
The suffering members groan,

Lo! We all the burthen bear,
And grieve the grief of one:
Pray we, Jesus, in thy name,
Give him to thy church restor'd,
Him whom now in faith we claim,
The prisoner of the Lord.

- 2 All together bound with him
We for deliverance cry:
Thou art mighty to redeem,
Thy help is ever nigh:
Who against thy power can stand?
Jesu, Lord, the matter take
Into thine almighty hand,
And send our brother back.
- 3 Now into his dungeon shine,
And sweeten his distress,
Fill his heart with love divine,
And keep in perfect peace;
Let his mind on thee be stay'd,
Lull him in thy arms to rest,
Bid him lean his weary head
On his Redeemer's breast.
- 4 Keep him, 'till th' appointed hour
Thy glory to display,
Then put forth thy kingly power,
And make an open way;
From his sins, and bonds release,
Stamp him with the stamp divine,
Thou thy lawful captive seize,
And seal him ever thine.

Hymn VI.

- 1 Hear, O thou strength of Israel, hear
 Thy poor, afflicted people's cry,
 From Satan, and his legions near,
 To thee our only help we fly;
 All human confidence resign,
 Nor trust in any arm but thine.

- 2 Not one of all the rich, or great,
 Or noble, on our side is seen,
 They shrink to bear thy cross's weight,
 They seek the praise that comes from men,
 Thine honour sell, to save their own,
 And leave us to our God alone.

- 3 Expos'd we seem to Satan's will,
 As sheep 'midst ravening wolves we lie,
 Our foes have learnt the art to kill,
 By legal wrong they doom to die
 The faithful followers of our Lord,
 And slay them as with Ammon's sword.

- 4 In haste to fill their measure up,
 And bring thy plague on all the race,
 Their ears against thy calls they stop,
 Reject the gospel of thy grace,
 Slaughter against thy people breathe,
 And drag thy messengers to death.

- 5 But wilt thou not thy cause maintain,
 Thy helpless, injur'd people right?
 Yes, Lord; our faith shall not be vain,
 Our faith in thy all-saving might
 Shall bring the promis'd succours down,
 And win the fight, and take the crown.

6 Thou wilt, we stedfastly believe,
 Thy glorious arm at last display,
Out of the toils of hell retrieve,
 And take us for thy lawful prey,
Call home thy flock to exile driven,
And lead us to thy fold in heaven.

[Hymns for the Persecuted.]

Hymn VII.

1 Rejoice, ye happy saints,
 Who only Jesus know,
 Whom vice and folly paints
 As monsters here below,
Rejoice in the divine applause,
 The honour from above,
And glory in your Master's cross,
 And triumph in his love.

2 Ye wise and pious few,
 Whose names the world blaspheme,
 They therefore know not you
 Because they know not him:
Strangers, approv'd of God alone,
 To all their wrongs submit,
And let them spurn, and tread you down
 As clay beneath their feet.

3 'Tis thus ye learn to be
 True followers of the Lamb,
 Who died upon the tree,
 That ye might do the same:
With humble thankfulness receive
 The scandal of the cross,
The grace not only to believe,
 But suffer for his cause.

4 By fools accounted mad,
 Of his reproach possest,
 He bids your hearts be glad,
 Your Lord declares you blest:
Exult in your despis'd estate,
 Enjoy the token given,
For O! Beyond conception great
 Is your reward in heaven.

Hymn VIII.

John xvi. 1, 2, 3, 4.

1 Master, we call thy word to mind,
 Thy truth and faithfulness we find
 Our sure support, and stay:
 The time is come, by thee foretold,
 Like sheep we are to slaughter sold,
 And made to wolves a prey.

2 The world, who take thy name in vain,
 Afflict our shrinking flesh with pain,
 Our feeble spirits grieve,
 The Christian world with furious zeal,
 Out of their synagogues expel,
 And murmur that we live.

3 They load us with reproach, and shame,
 As loathsome hereticks disclaim,
 And from thine altars chase;
 Assur'd they do thee service good,
 And merit much, who shed the blood
 Of such a pois'nous race.

4 Because our God they have not known,
 Nor thee his meek, pacific Son,

They all these evils do;
Born of the flesh with cruel scorn
They vex us of the Spirit born,
And would to death pursue.

5 In every place, in every age,
The restless persecutor's rage
Continues still the same;
Reform'd in shew, refin'd in ill,
The heathen world, is heathen still,
And Christian but in name.

6 Beneath their anger's utmost weight
We rise, we glory in their hate,
That token of thy love;
Thou, Lord, hast said, It must be so,
And lo! Thro' great distress we go
To greater joys above.

Hymns for the Watch-Night.¹¹⁸

[Hymn I.]

1 Thou judge of quick and dead,
Before whose bar severe
With holy joy, or guilty dread
We all shall soon appear;
Our caution'd souls prepare
For that tremendous day,
And fill us now with watchful care,
And stir us up to pray.

2 To pray, and wait the hour,
The awful hour unknown,
When robe'd in majesty, and power,
Thou shalt from heaven come down,

¹¹⁸Eleven of the following hymns were selected for inclusion in Watchnight Hymns (1750).

Th' immortal Son of man,
To judge the human race,
With all thy Father's dazzling train,
With all thy glorious grace.

3 To damp our earthly joys,
T' increase our gracious fears,
Forever let the archangel's voice
Be sounding in our ears,
The solemn midnight cry,
"Ye dead, the judge is come,
Arise, and meet him in the sky,
And meet your instant doom."

4 O! May we thus be found
Obedient to his word,
Attentive to the trumpet's sound,
And looking for our Lord:
O! May we thus insure
Our lot among the blest,
And watch a moment, to secure
An everlasting rest.

Hymn II.¹¹⁹

1 Ah, what a wretch am I!
I cannot watch one hour:
The roaring lion still is nigh,
And ready to devour:
A constant watch he keeps,
He eyes me night and day,
And never slumbers, never sleeps,
Lest he should lose his prey.

¹¹⁹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 61a–62a; and MS Thirty, 156–58.

- 2 The world are always nigh,
 And for my halting wait,
The Philistines in ambush lie,
 On me to wreck their hate:
 They watch my every turn,
 They mark where'er I go,
Their malice not to sleep hath sworn,
 'Till it hath kill'd their foe.
- 3 The Delilah within
 Ready each moment stands
To give me up, fast bound by sin,
 Into their cruel hands:
 I slight my Saviour's aid,
 Take my destroyer's part,
And still am falling, self-betray'd
 By my own faithless heart.
- 4 How weak my heart and blind,
 That I can think of ease,
Can comfort for a moment find
 In such a state as this!
 Can fold my arms to sleep,
 Nor pain, nor horror feel,
While sinking swift into the deep,
 And dropping into hell.
- 5 Gracious Redeemer, shake
 This slumber from my soul,
Say to me now, Awake, awake,
 And Christ shall make thee whole:
 Lay to thy mighty hand,
 Alarm me in this hour,
And make me fully understand
 The thunder of thy power.
- 6 Give me on thee to call,
 Always to watch and pray,
Lest I into temptation fall,
 And cast my shield away:

For each assault prepar'd,
And ready may I be,
Forever standing on my guard,
And looking up to thee.

7 O! Do thou always warn
My soul of evil near,
When to the right or left I turn,
The witness let me hear,
"Come back; this is the way:
Come back, and walk herein:"
O may I hearken, and obey,
And shun the paths of sin.

8 I would from every sin
As from a serpent fly,
Abhor to touch the thing unclean,
And rather chuse to die.
I would, I would my last
This very moment breathe,
Would die, that I may never taste
Of sin, and second death.

9 Thou seest my feebleness,
Jesus, be thou my power:
My help, and refuge in distress,
My fortress and my tower:
Cause me to trust in thee,
Be thou my sure abode,
My horn, and rock, and buckler be,
My Saviour, and my God.

10 Myself I cannot save,
Myself I cannot keep;
But strength in thee I surely have,
Whose eyelids never sleep.
My soul to thee alone
Now therefore I commend;
Thou, Jesus, having lov'd thine own,
Shalt love me to the end.

Hymn III.

- 1 I, I am the man that have known
 Distress by the stroke of his rod:
 And still thro' the anguish I groan,
 And pine for the absence of God:
 The happy in Jesus, may sleep:
 But O 'till in me he appears,
 Be this my employment to weep,
 And water my couch with my tears.
- 2 Or rather, if any are nigh,
 Forlorn, and afflicted like me,
 All night let us lift up our cry,
 And mourn his appearing to see,
 (As watchmen expecting the morn)
 Look out for the light of his face,
 And wait for his mercy's return,
 And long to recover his grace.
- 3 His grace to our souls did appear,
 And brought us salvation from sin;
 We felt our Emmanuel here,
 Restoring his kingdom within:
 But O! We have lost him again,
 His Spirit hath taken its flight,
 Our joy, it is turn'd into pain,
 Our day it is turn'd into night.
- 4 O what shall we do to retrieve
 The love for a season bestow'd!
 'Tis better to die than to live
 Exil'd from the presence of God:
 With sorrow distracted, and doubt,
 With palpable horror opprest,
 The city we wander about,
 And seek our repose in his breast.

5 Ye watchmen of Israel, declare
If ye our beloved have seen,
And point to that heavenly fair,
Surpassing the children of men:
Our lover and Lord from above,
Who only can quiet our pain,
Whom only we languish to love,
O where shall we find him again!

6 The joy, and desire of our eyes,
The end of our sorrow and woe,
Our hope, and our heavenly prize,
Our height of ambition below;
Once more if he shew us his face,
He never again shall depart,
Detain'd in our closest embrace,
Eternally held in our heart.

LXXXVII.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn IV.

1 O Jesus, the rest
Of spirits distrest,
In whom all the children of men may be blest,
The blessing design'd
For the whole of mankind,
Give us in the love of thy Spirit to find.

2 For this do we keep
A sad vigil, and weep,
The fruit of our tears that in joy we may reap;
While sent from above
The comfort we prove,
The unspeakable gift of thy ransoming love.

3 Our brethren we see
By mercy set free,
They have found the abundant redemption in thee.

Thy tenders of grace
They gladly embrace,
And tell of thy goodness, and live to thy praise.

4 But still we remain
 In bondage and pain,
Unable to bear, or to shake off our chain;
 In the furnace we cry,
 Come, Lord, from the sky,
Make haste to our help, or in Egypt we die.

5 O Jesus, appear
 Thy mourners to cheer,
Our grief to assuage, and to banish our fear:
 Thy prisoners release,
 Vouchsafe us thy peace,
And our troubles and sins in a moment shall cease.

6 That moment be now;
 The petition allow,
Our present Redeemer, and Comforter thou,
 The freedom from sin,
 The atonement bring in,
And sprinkle our conscience, and bid us be clean.

7 Thy¹²⁰ blessing of grace
 Now let it take place,
The dew of thy mercy descend on our race;
 Thy Spirit, O God,
 Pour out on the croud,
And water us all with a shower of thy blood!

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn V.

1 Father of mercies, hear!
 Who didst of old send down

¹²⁰“Thy” changed to “The” in Watchnight Hymns (1750).

An heavenly messenger,
With tidings of thy Son:
Shepherds, who watch'd their flocks by night,
They first believ'd the word,
And sang, o'erwhelm'd with heavenly light,
The birth of Christ, the Lord.

2 To men of simple heart
The Saviour still reveal,
The welcome news impart
Of joy unspeakable;
To us, who here our stations keep,
To us a child be given,
Who wait to find, while others sleep,
The Lord of earth and heaven.

3 With pure, celestial day
Our ravish'd souls surround,
Or let the heavenly ray
Within our hearts be found:
Let all thy ransom'd sons of grace
Th' angelic army join,
And chaunt in ceaseless songs of praise,
The majesty divine.

4 Glory to God above
For his redeeming plan,
And peace on earth, and love
Benevolent to man:
We justly own the glory his,
With heaven's acclaiming powers;
For O! The benefit and bliss,
Is all forever ours!

LXXXIX.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn VI.

- 1 Jesus, my Master, and my Lord,
I would thy will obey,
Humbly receive thy warning word,
And always watch, and pray.
My constant need of watchful prayer
I daily see, and feel,
To keep me safe from every snare
Of sin, and earth, and hell.

- 2 Into a world of ruffians sent,
I walk on hostile ground,
Wild human beasts, on slaughter bent,
And ravening wolves surround.
The lion seeks my soul to slay,
In some unguarded hour,
And waits to tear his sleeping prey,
And watches to devour.

- 3 But worse than all my foes, I find
The enemy within,
The evil heart, the carnal mind,
My own insidious sin:
My nature every moment waits
To render me secure,
And all my paths with ease besets,
To make my ruin sure.

- 4 But thou hast given a loud alarm,
And thou shalt still prepare
My soul for all assaults, and arm
With never-ceasing prayer.
Thou wilt not suffer me to sleep,
Who on thy love depend,
But still thy faithful servant keep,
And save me to the end.

XC.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn VII.

- 1 Jesus, bestow the power,
 Who gavest the command:
Unwearied on thyself, my tower,
 Enable me to stand;
 Chearful to undergo
 Whole nights of sweet distress,
And watch against my three-fold foe,
 'Till all my conflicts cease.

- 2 Bid me of men beware,
 And to my ways take heed,
Discern their every secret snare,
 And circumspectly tread.
 O might I calmly wait,
 Thy succours from above,
And stand against their open hate,
 And well-dissembled love.

- 3 My spirit, Lord, alarm,
 When men and devils join,
Against the wiles of Satan, arm
 In panoply divine.
 O may I fix my face
 His onsets to repel,
Quench all his fiery darts, and chase
 The fiend to his own hell.

- 4 But above all afraid
 Of my own bosom-foe,
Still let me sue to thee for aid,
 To thee my weakness shew,
 Hang on thine arm alone
 With self-mistrusting care,
And deeply in the Spirit groan
 The never-ceasing prayer.

5 Give me a sober mind,
 A quick-discerning eye
The first approach of sin to find,
 And all occasions fly.
 Still may I cleave to thee,
 And never more depart,
But watch with godly jealousy
 Over my evil heart.

6 Thus let me pass my days
 Of sojourning beneath,
And languish to conclude my race,
 And render up my breath,
 In humble love and fear,
 Thine image to regain,
And see thee in the clouds appear,
 And rise with thee to reign.

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]

Hymn VIII.¹²¹

1 Hark, how the watchmen cry!
 Attend the trumpet's sound,
Stand to your arms; the foe is nigh,
 The powers of hell surround:
 Who bow to Christ's command
 Your arms and hearts prepare;
The day of battle is at hand,
 Go forth to glorious war.

2 See on the mountain's top
 The ensign of your God,
In Jesu's name I lift it up,
 All-stain'd with hallow'd blood:
 His standard-bearer I
 To all the nations call,

¹²¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 66a–67b; and MS Thirty, 28–31.

Let all to Jesu's cross draw nigh;
He bore the cross for all.

3 Ye who his call obey,
 Behold the banner spread
To cover in the evil day
 His faithful soldier's head:
 Be strong in Jesu's might;
 The panoply divine
Put on, beneath this standard fight,
 And conquer in this sign.

4 Go up with Christ, your head,
 Your Captain's footsteps see,
Follow your Captain, and be led
 To certain victory:
 All power to him is given,
 He ever reigns the same,
Salvation, happiness, and heaven
 Are all in Jesu's name.

5 Ye now have took the field,
 And fearlesly march on,
Fight the good fight, hold fast your shield,
 'Till Satan is cast down,
 Cast down he soon shall be,
 He shall, he shall submit,
Compell'd with all his host to flee
 Or bruis'd beneath your feet.

6 Only have faith in God,
 In faith your foes assail,
Not wrestling against flesh and blood,
 But all the powers of hell:
 From thrones of glory driven,
 By flaming vengeance hurl'd,
They throng the air, and darken heaven,
 And rule the lower world.

- 7 Angels your march oppose,
 Who still in strength excel,
Your secret, sworn, eternal foes,
 Countless, invisible;
 With rage that never ends,
 Their hellish arts they try,
Legions of dire malicious fiends,
 And spirits enthron'd on high.
- 8 On earth th' usurpers reign,
 Exert their baleful power,
O'er the poor fallen sons of men
 They tyrannize their hour.
 But shall believers fear?
 But shall believers fly?
Or see the bloody cross appear,
 And all their powers defy?
- 9 Jesu's tremendous name,
 Puts all our foes to flight!
Jesus the meek, the angry Lamb
 A lion is in fight:
 By all hell's host withstood,
 We all hell's host o'erthrow,
And conquering them thro' Jesu's blood,
 We still to conquer go.
- 10 Our Captain leads us on,
 He beckons from the skies,
He reaches out a starry crown,
 And bids us take the prize;
 "Be faithful unto death,
 Partake my victory,
And thou shalt wear this glorious wreath,
 And thou shalt reign with me."
- 11 'Tis thus the righteous Lord
 To every soldier saith,
Eternal life is the reward
 Of all-victorious faith:

Who conquer in his might
The victor's meed receive,
And claim a kingdom in his right,
Which God is bound to give.

- 12 But let us all abide
 Throughout the glorious war,
 'Till every soul is sanctified,
 And more than conqueror;
 'Till every perfect one
 To heavenly joys remove,
 And sit with Jesus on his throne
 Of everlasting love.

XCII.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn IX.

- 1 Captain, God of our salvation,
 Night and day
 Will we pay
 Thee our adoration:
All day long our lips confess thee,
 All the night
 Our delight
 Is in songs to bless thee.
- 2 Whom thy dying love o'er-powers,
 Lost in thee
 Happy we
 Never count the hours:
Love, our one delightful lesson,
 Love and joy
 Still employ
 Every gracious season.

- 3 Rivals of the heavenly quire,
Lo! We rise
To the skies,
Higher still, and higher:
There we have our conversation,
Talk with God,
Him whose blood
Purchas'd our salvation.
- 4 We like all thy host adore thee:
Restless they
Night and day
Render thee the glory.
Author of our every blessing,
God of grace,
Thee we praise
Never, never ceasing.
- 5 This be here our whole employment,
'Till we claim,
Thro' thy name,
All thy love's enjoyment;
'Till we drink the chrystal river,
Drink and sing
To our King,
Sing and shout forever.

XCIII.

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]

Hymn X.

- 1 Jesus, God of our salvation,
Give us eyes thyself to see,
Waiting for thy consolation,
Longing to believe on thee:
Now vouchsafe the sacred power,
Now the faith divine impart,
Meet us at this solemn hour,
Shine in every drooping heart.

- 2 Anna-like within the temple,
Simeon-like we meekly stay;
Daily with thy saints assemble,
Nightly for thy coming pray:
While our souls are bow'd before thee,
While we humbly sue for grace,
Come, thy people's light and glory,
Shew to all thy heavenly face.
- 3 If to us thy sacred Spirit
Hath the future grace reveal'd,
Let us by thy righteous merit,
Now receive our pardon seal'd;
To eternal life appointed,
Let us thy salvation see,
Now behold the Lord's anointed,
Now obtain our heaven in thee.

XCIV.

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]

Hymn XI.

- 1 Jesus, guard thy gather'd sheep,
Who thy voice begin to know,
Day and night in safety keep,
Help us after thee to go:
Eyeing thee with fixt regard,
By thy word and Spirit led,
Walk we in the works prepar'd,
Close in all thy footsteps tread.
- 2 In thy pilgrimage with men,
(Objects of thy constant care)
Thou didst all their griefs sustain,
Lab'ring, watching unto prayer:

Thou whole nights in prayer didst spend
On the mount for us employ'd,
Prompt the helpless to defend,
Prevalent with man and God.

- 3 By no private wants compell'd,
Only love inspir'd thy breast,
Love thy steady hands upheld,
Love inforc'd the kind request:
And shall we refuse to join,
We who all the good receive,
Reap the fruit of toil divine,
By the prayer of Jesus live!
- 4 Nay, but in thy strength we rise,
Nightly to the mountain go,
Breathe our wishes to the skies,
For the sleeping crowd below;
Pray, my watchful brethren, pray,
Full of wants, and sins, and fears,
Wrestle 'till the break of day,
'Till the saving grace appears.
- 5 Jesus, hear our midnight cry,
Execute thy love's design,
Bring thy great salvation nigh,
Claim a ransom'd world for thine,
Take the purchase of thy blood,
(Blood that speaks our sins forgiven)
Let it bring us near to God,
Let it pray us up to heaven!

XCV.

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]

Hymn XII.

- 1 To thee, the true eternal light,
At this awful noon of night,

Our longing souls ascend,
For thee we watch, for thee we pray,
And hasten to the joyful day,
When all our toils shall end.

- 2 The joyful day we soon shall see,
With no sad obscurity
Attended, or pursu'd,
No dark eclipse shall intervene,
Nor gloomy grief pollute the scene,
Or stain the day of God.
- 3 The day of God shall then be ours,
Numbred with the angel-powers,
And souls on earth forgiven,
We in the New Jerusalem
Shall all our happy mansions claim,
The citizens of heaven.
- 4 We all shall see the golden blaze
Of that high and lofty place,
And breathe the purpled air,
It needs nor sun, nor candle's light,
Divinely fair, divinely bright,
For Christ the Lamb is there.
- 5 By faith we now the veil look thro',
Now a glimpse of glory view,
And bless the opening ray,
Far, far above all heighth we soar,
The depths of deity t' explore
In everlasting day.

XCVI.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XIII.

- 1 How happy, gracious Lord, are we
 Divinely drawn to follow thee,
 Whose hours divided are
 Betwixt the mount and multitude;
 Our day is spent in doing good,
 Our night in praise and prayer.

- 2 With us no melancholy void,
 No moment lingers¹²² unemploy'd,
 Or unimprov'd below;
 Our weariness of life is gone,
 Who live to serve our God alone,
 And only thee to know.

- 3 The winter's night, and summer's day
 Glides imperceptibly away,
 Too short to sing thy praise,
 Too few we find the happy hours,
 And haste to join those heavenly powers
 In everlasting lays.

- 4 With all who chant thy name on high,
 And holy, holy, holy cry,
 A bright harmonious throng,
 We long thy praises to repeat,
 And restless sing around thy seat
 The new eternal song.

XCVII.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XIV.

- 1 Meet and right it is to sing
 At every time and place

¹²²“Moment lingers” changed to “moments linger” in Watchnight Hymns (1750).

Glory to our heavenly King,
The God of truth and grace:
Join we then with sweet accord,
All in one thanksgiving join,
Holy, holy, holy, Lord,
Eternal praise be thine!

- 2 Thee the first-born sons of light
In choral symphonies
Praise by day, day without night,
And never, never cease:
Angels, and archangels all
Sing the mystic Three in One,
Sing, and stop, and gaze, and fall
O'erwhelm'd before thy throne.
- 3 Vyeing with that happy quire
Who chaunt thy praise above,
We on eagles' wings aspire,
The wings of faith and love:
Thee they sing with glory crown'd,
We extol the slaughter'd Lamb,
Lower if our voices sound,
Our subject is the same.
- 4 Father, God, thy love we praise,
Which gave thy Son to die,
Jesus full of truth and grace
Alike we glorify,
Spirit, Comforter divine,
Praise by all to thee be given,
'Till we in full chorus join,
And earth is turn'd to heaven.

XCVIII.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XV.

- 1 Join all ye ransom'd sons of grace,
 The holy joy prolong,
 And shout to the Redeemer's praise
 A solemn midnight song.
- 2 Blessing, and thanks, and love, and might
 Be to our Jesus given,
 Who turns our darkness into light,
 Who turns our hell to heaven.
- 3 Thither our faithful souls he leads,
 Thither he bids us rise;
 With crowns of joy upon our heads,
 To meet him in the skies.
- 4 To seal the universal doom,
 The skies he soon shall bow—
 But if thou must at midnight come,
 O let us meet thee now!

XCIX.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XVI.

- 1 Call aloud on Jesu's name,
 Watchmen of Jerusalem,
 Ye, that by our Lord's command
 On her ruin'd rampart stand,
 Day and night your care express,
 Never, never hold your peace,
 For a gracious answer cry,
 Urge, and force him to reply.

- 2 Well maintain the post assign'd,
Put your faithful God in mind,
Instantly the promise plead,
'Till the word of grace proceed,
Never suffer him to rest,
'Till he answer your request,
'Till our Sion he repair,
Fix his constant presence there.

- 3 Set for this if, Lord, I am,
Let me now the promise claim,
Let my faithful brethren join,
All remembrancers divine,
All who Sion's burthen bear,
Join ye in the fervent prayer,
'Till his utmost truth we prove,
Edified in perfect love.

- 4 Jesus, head, and Lord of all,
Answer to our midnight call,
Our Jerusalem repair,
Build again thy house of prayer,
Now thy antient wonders shew,
Raise a glorious church below,
Sion from her ruins raise,
Spread throughout the earth her praise.

- 5 Spread throughout the earth thine own,
Fully by thy people known;
Let us with thy lustre shine,
Pillars in the dome divine,
Master of the building art,
'Stablish every faithful heart,
Finish thy great work of grace,
Perfect us in holiness.

[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XVII.
Innocent Diversions.

- 1 Come let us anew
 Our pleasures pursue:
 For Christian delight
 The day is too short; let us borrow the night.
 In sanctify'd joy
 Each moment employ,
 To Jesus's praise,
 And spend, and be spent in the triumph of grace.
- 2 The slaves of excess,
 Their senses to please
 Whole nights can bestow,
 And on in a circle of riot they go:
 Poor prodigals, they
 The night into day
 By revellings turn,
 And all the restraints of sobriety scorn.
- 3 The drunkards proclaim
 At midnight their shame,
 Their sacrifice bring,
 And loud to the praise of their master they sing:
 The hellish desires
 Which Satan inspires,
 In sonnets they breathe,
 And shouting descend to the mansions¹²³ of death.
- 4 The civiller croud,
 In theatres proud,
 Acknowledge his power,
 And Satan in nightly assemblies adore:
 To the masque and the ball
 They fly at his call;

¹²³“Mansions” changed to “regions” in Watchnight Hymns (1750).

Or in pleasures excel,
And chaunt in a grove* to the harpers of hell.

5 And shall we not sing
 Our Master and King
 While men are at rest,
With Jesus admitted at midnight to feast?
 Here only we may
 With innocence stay,
 The enjoyment improve,
And abide at the banquet of Jesus's love.

6 In him is bestow'd
 The spiritual food,
 The manna divine,
And Jesus's love is far better than wine:
 With joy we receive
 The blessing, and give
 By day and by night,
All thanks to the source of our endless delight.

7 Our concert of praise
 To Jesus we raise,
 And all the night long
Continue the new evangelical song:
 We dance to the fame
 Of Jesus's name,
 The joy it imparts
Is heaven begun in our musical hearts.

8 Thus, thus we bestow
 Our moments below,
 And singing remove,
With all the redeem'd to the Sion above:
 There, there shall we stand¹²⁴
 With our harps in our hand,
 Interrupted no more,
And eternally sing, and rejoice, and adore.

* Ranelagh's Gardens, Vaux-Hall, &c.

¹²⁴Changed to "There, there we shall stand" in Watchnight Hymns (1750).

Hymn XVIII.

- 1 Ye virgin souls arise,
 With all the dead awake,
 Unto salvation wise,
 Oil in your vessels take,
Upstarting at the midnight cry,
Behold the heavenly Bridegroom nigh.

- 2 He comes, he comes to call
 The nations to his bar,
 And raise to glory all
 Who fit for glory are;
Made ready for your full reward,
Go forth with joy to meet your Lord.

- 3 Go meet him in the sky
 Your everlasting friend,
 Your head to glorify
 With all his saints ascend,
Ye pure in heart, obtain the grace
To see without a veil his face.

- 4 Ye that have here receiv'd
 The unction from above,
 And in his Spirit liv'd
 Obedient to his love,
Jesus shall claim you for his bride;
Rejoice with all the sanctified.

- 5 Rejoice in glorious hope
 Of that great day unknown,
 When all shall be caught up
 And stand before his throne,
Call'd to partake the marriage feast,
And lean on our Immanuel's breast.

- 6 The everlasting doors
 Shall soon the saints receive,
 Above those angel powers
 In glorious joy to live:
Far from a world of grief, and sin,
With God eternally shut in.
- 7 Then let us wait to hear
 The trumpet's welcome sound,
 To see our Lord appear
 Watching let us be found;
When Jesus doth the heavens bow,
Be found—as Lord thou find'st us now.

CII.
[Hymns for the Watch-Night.]
Hymn XIX.

- 1 Sinners look up, by grace forgiven,
Behold an open door in heaven,
Attend, ye souls in Jesus found,
The Saviour's voice, the trumpet's sound.
Hither come up, he cries, and see
The secrets of eternity.
- 2 Rise, in the Spirit's rapture, rise
To yon bright throne above the skies,
To him who sits sublime thereon,
In colour like a sardine stone,
And scatters, as the jasper's rays,
The glories of his dreadful face.
- 3 Tremble; yet O! With love draw near,
The showery bow forbids your fear,
The throne it quite incircles round,
(And grace on every side is found,
In colour like an emerald seen,
Delightful, and eternal green.

- 4 Turn as he will, the eyes divine
Must ever meet that sacred sign,
Sign of his covenanted grace,
Confirm'd to all our ransom'd race,
Who sing the great Redeemer's love,
Triumphant with that host above.
- 5 Near the Most-High, on either hand
Behold a venerable band!
Twenty and four on seats behold!
Inrobed in white, and crown'd with gold,
With Jesu's joy supremely blest,
Inthron'd in everlasting rest!
- 6 God over all his state maintains,
And high amidst his antients reigns,
Voices are heard, and thunders roar,
And loud proclaim his awful power,
And waving flames of lightning shine,
Thick-flashing from the throne divine.
- 7 Burning before the Sovereign Sire
Are seven lamps of living fire,
His ministerial spirits they,
Who ever in his presence stay,
The purest essences above,
The brightest flames of heavenly love.
- 8 Fronting the throne a chrystal sea
Rolls on its perfect purity,
Laver of sanctifying grace,
It justly holds the middle space,
For none approach the holy God,
'Till throughly wash'd in Jesu's blood.
- 9 Between the saints, and Holy One,
Around his seat, and plac'd thereon,
Four emblematic creatures shine,
Replete with eyes and powers divine,

And all the various virtues shew
Of Jesu's ministers below.

- 10 The lion bold their heart displays,
The lab'ring ox their strength of grace,
The man their mind discreet humane,
The eagle doth their speed explain,
Wherewith they soar aloft, to gaze
On the bright Sun of righteousness!
- 11 Spangled with eyes before, behind,
(Fit emblem of a watchful mind)
The six-wing'd messengers appear,
And full of inward eyes severe,
Themselves with strictest search to scan,
'Till modell'd by the perfect plan.
- 12 God they extol above the sky,
And holy, holy, holy cry,
Who was, and is, and still shall be
In essence One, in Persons Three,
By all incessantly ador'd,
Omnipotent, eternal Lord.
- 13 Soon as in hymns the mystic four
The everlasting God adore,
The elders prostrate at his seat
His glorious attributes repeat,
The source of all their blessings own,
And cast their crowns before his throne.
- 14 Honour, and might, and majesty,
Who gavest all that is to be,
Thou, Lord, art worthy to receive:
And lo! For this in heaven we live,
With all thy creatures to commend
Our source, support, and glorious end!

Hymns for Those that Wait
for Full Redemption.
[Hymn I.]

- 1 O Saviour from sin,
 If mine thou hast been,
And sprinkled my conscience, and bid me be clean;
 With thy servant, while tried
 In the furnace, abide,
And O! Let me never be torn from thy side.

- 2 I never shall rest,
 Or be perfectly blest,
While the tempter hath left any hold in my breast:
 Thou hast loosen'd the chain,
 Thou hast softned the pain,
Yet my sorrow, as long as my sin, must remain.

3 From actual blame
 I am sav'd by thy name,
 But mourn, 'till thou save me from all that I am;
 'Till more than subdued,
 'Till entirely renew'd
 Both my heart, and my nature are wash'd in thy blood.

4 My pardon is sure,
 If I always endure;
 But still I expect thee to perfect my cure:
 With trembling and fear,
 While sin is so near,
 I pass the short time of my pilgrimage here.

5 Fain would I be clean,
 And all-holy within,
 I thirst for thine utmost salvation from sin:
 Thou still dost restrain;
 But how great is my pain,
 When I do not commit it, to feel that I can.

6 For this do I wail
 Thro' the sorrowful vale,
 'Till my sin and my trouble at once thou expel:
 This, this is my load,
 Tho' absolv'd by thy blood,
 I am capable still of offending my God.

7 Come, Jesus, and cleanse
 My inbred offence,
 O take the occasion of stumbling from hence,
 The infection within,
 The possible sin
 Extirpate, by bringing thy righteousness in.

8 By all thou hast done
 For me to atone,
 By all thou hast suffer'd to make me thine own,

By all which thou art,
I beseech thee, convert,
And renew, and eternally reign in my heart.

Hymn II.

- 1 O thou gentle Lamb of God,
Hear thy ransom'd follower pray,
Wash me in thy cleansing blood,
Bear my inbred sin away;
All the curse, the plague remove,
All the hell of creature-love.
- 2 Take the guilt and power of sin,
Take its cursed relicks hence;
Make me throughly pure within
By thy love's omnipotence;
Let me all thy nature have,
Feel thine utmost power to save.
- 3 Bounds I will not set to thee,
Shorten thine almighty hand:
Save from all iniquity,
Let not sin's foundations stand,
Every stone o'erturn, o'erthrow;
I believe it may be so.
- 4 Wilt thou lop the boughs of sin,
Leaving still the stock behind?
No, thy love shall work within,
Quite expel the carnal mind,
Root and branch destroy my foe;
I believe it shall be so.

Hymn III.¹

- 1 Being of beings, God of love,
High-seated on thy dazzling throne,
Pity, and draw me from above,
Raise, and bring home thy banish'd son.
- 2 I am not as from thee I came:
Out of my second chaos call:
Fallen alas! From thee I am;
O God, redeem me from my fall.
- 3 Laid in the lowest deep of sin,
Enslav'd to vain and base desires,
Sensibly dead, and dark within,
Fit fuel for infernal fires;
- 4 An outcast from thy blissful face,
Broke off from God, and scatter'd wide,
Most fallen of that fallen race,
For which thy only Son hath died.
- 5 Father of mercies, hear my cry,
This, only this is all my plea,
Jesus the just hath bow'd the sky,
Thy Son hath died, hath died for me.
- 6 Jesus hath undertook my cause,
Finish'd the great redeeming plan,
Humbled to death my Saviour was,
And stoop'd to raise his creature man.
- 7 By love, meer pitying love, inclin'd
He caught my nature in its fall,
A common head of all mankind,
Assum'd the flesh, and guilt of all.

¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 139–40; MS Clarke, 158–59; and MS Shent, 114a–114b.

- 8 Father, thou knowst he bought my peace,
 My life, and health, and liberty,
 My present, and eternal bliss;
 He purchas'd all thou art for me.
- 9 Assur'd thy fulness to receive,
 With earnest, calm desire I wait,
 For all thou hast in Christ to give,
 The glories of my first estate.
- 10 I trust thy image to regain,
 Whate'er thou hast to sinners given,
 All, all I shall in Christ obtain,
 Pardon, and paradise, and heaven.

Hymn IV.²

- 1 Happy soul, that safe from harms
 Rests within his shepherd's arms!
 Who his quiet shall molest,
 Who shall violate his rest?
- 2 Jesus doth his spirit bear,
 Jesus takes his every care,
 He who found the wandring sheep,
 Jesus still delights to keep.
- 3 Dogs, and wolves in vain appear,
 Roaring lions still are near,
 Ravening wolves unmov'd he sees
 Howling in the wilderness.
- 4 Calm he eyes them from above,
 Safe in his protector's love,
 There he rests, and undismay'd
 Drops his arms, and hangs his head.

²Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 65–66; MS Clarke, 72–73; and MS Shent, 115a–115b.

- 5 O that I might so believe,
Stedfastly to Jesus cleave,
On his only love rely,
Smile at the destroyer nigh!
- 6 Free from sin, and servile fear,
Have my Jesus ever near,
All his care rejoice to prove,
All his paradise of love.
- 7 Jesu, seek thy wandring sheep,
Bring me back, and lead, and keep,
Take on thee my every care,
Bear me, on thy bosom bear.
- 8 Let me know my shepherd's voice,
More, and more in thee rejoice;
More, and more of thee receive,
Ever in thy Spirit live:
- 9 Live, 'till all thy life I know,
Perfect in my Lord below
Gladly then from earth remove,
Gather'd to the fold above.
- 10 O that I at last may stand
With the sheep at thy right-hand,
Take the crown so freely given,
Enter in by thee to heaven!

Hymn V.³

- 1 Jesu, my hope, my joy, my rest,
Indulge me in this one request,
Thou know'st what I would say,

³Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 61–62; MS Clarke, 68–69; and MS Shent, 127a–127b.

My every want to thee is known,
Thou hear'st th' unutterable groan,
Thou hear'st thy Spirit pray.

2 Give me the thing thou long'st to give,
The thing for which thou here didst live
A life of grief and pain;
Give me the dearly-purchas'd good,
Bought with thy heart's last drop of blood,
Nor live, nor die in vain.

3 Give me what God to thee did give,
The grace thou didst for me receive,
When all thy pangs were o'er;
Send down thy Spirit from above,
Spirit of power, and health, and love,
And let me sin no more.

4 I ask nor joy, nor life, nor ease,
I ask not earthly happiness,
But purity within;
On others, Lord, those gifts bestow,
But let me cease from sin below,
But let me cease from sin.

5 Hasten to grant my sole request,
Take me into that second rest,
That glorious liberty,
And let me then my soul resign,
Receiv'd into the arms divine,
Forever lost in thee.

Hymn VI.

“Sun stand thou still upon Gibeon.”

[Joshua x. 12.]

1 Arm of the Lord, awake, arise,
And save a soul that hangs on thee,

Put on thy strength, and bow the skies,
 And work thy antient work in me,
 Thy grace miraculous display,
 The rapid course of nature stay.

2 My Joshua, bid the sun stand still,
 Suspend the storm in mid career,
 Arrest the torrent of my will,
 Restrain me from the sin I fear,
 The power of loving faith impart,
 And fix my poor unsettled heart.

3 Jesus, my constant Jesus stand
 Betwixt my bosom-sin and me:
 Nature submits to thy command,
 All things are possible to thee;
 Thou infinite in love and power,
 Preserve me, that I sin no more.

Hymn VII.⁴

“The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, but the Spirit against the flesh (and these are contrary the one to the other) that ye may not do the things which ye would.” Gal[atians] v. 17.

1 While pride and self⁵ remain within,
 While ought of the old Adam lives,
 The fleshly principle of sin
 Against the Spirit lusts, and strives;
 We groan our evil heart to feel,
 Children in Christ, and carnal still.

2 But God is to his promise just,
 And arms us with sufficient grace,
 The Spirit exerts a stronger lust,
 We need not once to sin give place;

⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 210–11; and MS Shent, 91a–91b.

⁵John Wesley substituted “wrath” for “self” in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

We do not yield to flesh and blood,
Or do the things which nature would.

3 Who in the Spirit walk, and live,
 Their fleshly lusts shall not fulfill;
O God, thy saying we receive,
 And wait to prove thy perfect will,
To sin we will no longer bow,
It shall not have dominion now.

4 It shall not always vex us here,
 But lose its being with its reign;
Thou, Lord, shalt in our flesh appear,
 And sin shall then no more remain;
The devil's works destroy'd shall be,
And all our souls be fill'd with thee.

Hymn VIII.⁶

1 Jesu, come, my hope of glory,
 Purify me, that I
May with saints adore thee.

2 Big with earnest expectation,
 Still I sit at thy feet,
Longing for salvation.

3 My poor heart vouchsafe to dwell in,
 Make me thine, love divine,
By thy Spirit's sealing.

4 Give me, Lord, thy Holy Spirit,
 Let me see all in thee,
All in thee inherit.

⁶Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 58–59; and MS Clarke, 65.

- 5 Thou hast laid the sure foundation:
 O my hope, build me up,
 Finish thy creation.
- 6 From this inbred sin deliver,
 Let the yoke now be broke,
 Make me thine for ever.
- 7 Partner of thy perfect nature,
 Let me be now in thee
 A new sinless⁷ creature.
- 8 Perfect when I walk before thee,
 Soon, or late, then translate
 To the realms of glory.
- 9 Then the blissful sight be given,
 Then to gaze on thy face
 This be all my heaven.

Hymn IX.⁸

Luke i. 68, &c.

- 1 Blest be the Lord! By earth and heaven
 For ever blest be Israel's God!
 Himself he hath to sinners given,
 His Son he hath on all bestow'd.
- 2 God was in Christ, and dwelt with men,
 The Father sent his only Son,
 To bring us to his arms again,
 And make a sinful world his own.

⁷John Wesley substituted "spotless" for "sinless" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 83–85; and MS Clarke, 94–97.

- 3 He to himself hath reconcil'd
The whole of Adam's rebel race,
The world by sin destroy'd, defil'd,
May all be cleans'd, and sav'd by grace.
- 4 Jesus for us our God rais'd up,
Jesus almighty to redeem,
The nation's joy, desire, and hope,
Who all may now be sav'd thro' him.
- 5 Salvation is in Jesu's name,
The Lord of David, and his Son;
To save a world from heaven he came,
To perfect all our souls in one.
- 6 The Father hath his word fulfil'd,
The prophecies of antient days,
Honour'd his messengers, and seal'd
The records of his promis'd grace.
- 7 He by the holy men of old,
His prophets since the world begun,
The great salvation hath foretold,
Salvation in his dying Son.
- 8 Salvation from our foes within,
From death, and hell, and Satan's chains,
Salvation from the power of sin,
Salvation from its last remains.
- 9 His word for ever shall endure,
His word doth now on us take place,
He made it to our fathers sure,
The promise of his perfect grace.
- 10 The cove'nant of redemption he,
The faithful God, hath call'd to mind,
The cove'nant from all sin to free
The captive souls of all mankind.

- 11 The oath he hath to Abraham sworn,
That all mankind should in his seed
Be blest, and find a power to turn,
And live from sin for ever freed.
- 12 Yes, with a solemn oath the Lord
Hath us, ev'n us, engag'd to bless,
To free, and hallow by his word,
And cleanse from all unrighteousness,
- 13 From all our foes, our sins redeem,
The * possible offence remove,
And make us pure, and all like him,
Renew'd, and perfected in love.
- 14 Perfect in love, that casts out fear,
We here shall his commands fulfil,
Walk in the light, and see him here,
And answer all his righteous will.
- 15 In all his glorious image bright
We here shall serve him all our days,
And then with saints in heavenly light
Record his everlasting praise.

Hymn X.⁹

“All things are possible to him that believeth.”
[Mark ix. 23.]

- 1 All things are possible to him,
That can in Jesu's name believe:
Lord, I no more thy truth blaspheme,
Thy truth I lovingly receive;
I can, I do believe in thee,
All things are possible to me.

* I.e., the possibility of offending.

⁹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 91–92; and MS Clarke, 104–5.

- 2 The most impossible of all,
 Is, that I e'er from sin should cease;
Yet shall it be: I know, it shall:
 Jesus, look to thy faithfulness!
If nothing is too hard for thee,
All things are possible to me.
- 3 I without sin on earth shall live,
 Ev'n I, the chief of sinners I:
Thy glory, Lord, to thee I give,
 O God of truth, thou canst not lie;
What thou hast said shall surely be:
All things are possible to me.
- 4 Though earth and hell the word gain say,
 The word of God can never fail:
The Lamb shall take my sins away,
 'Tis certain, though impossible;
The thing impossible shall be:
All things are possible to me.
- 5 When thou the work of faith hast wrought,
 I here shall in thine image shine,
Nor sin in deed, or word, or thought;
 Let men exclaim, and fiends repine,
They cannot break the firm decree:
All things are possible to me.
- 6 Th' unchangeable decree is past,
 The sure predestinating word,
That I, who on my Lord am cast,
 I shall be like my sinless Lord:
'Twas fixt from all eternity:
All things are possible to me.
- 7 Thy mouth, O Lord, hath spoke, hath sworn
 That I shall serve thee without fear,
Shall find the pearl which others spurn,
 Holy, and pure, and perfect here,

The servant as his Lord shall be:
All things are possible to me.

- 8 All things are possible to God,
To Christ the power of God in man,
To me, when I am all renew'd,
When I in Christ am born again,
And witness, from all sin set free,
All things are possible to me.

Hymn XI.¹¹

“This is the victory!”

[1 John v. 4.]

- 1 Surrounded by an host of foes,
Storm'd by an host of foes within,
Nor swift to fly, nor strong t' oppose,
Single against hell, earth, and sin,
Single, yet undismay'd I am:
I dare believe in Jesu's name.
- 2 What though a thousand hosts¹² engage,
A thousand worlds, my soul to shake,
I have a shield shall quell their rage,
Shall drive the alien armies back,
Pourtray'd it bears a bleeding Lamb:
I dare believe in Jesu's name.
- 3 Me to retrieve from Satan's hands,
Me from this evil world to free,
To purge my sins, and loose my bands,
And save from all iniquity,
My Lord and God, from heaven he came:
I dare believe in Jesu's name.
- 4 Salvation in his name there is,
Salvation from sin, death, and hell,
Salvation into glorious bliss,
How great salvation who can tell!

¹⁰Ori., “120”; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

¹¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 78–79; and MS Clarke, 89–90.

¹²Charles Wesley changed “hosts” to “host” in All in All (1761).

But all he hath for mine I claim:
I dare believe in Jesu's name.

Hymn XII.¹³

“Come unto me—learn of me,” &c.
Matt[hew] xi. [28–30].

- 1 Lovely Lamb, I come to thee,
 Thou hast oft invited me;
 Surely now I would be blest,
 Give me now the promis'd rest.
- 2 All my business and concern
 Is of thee, my Lamb, to learn;
 Shew me thy first lesson shew,
 Now alas! I nothing know.
- 3 Gentle thou, and meek in heart,
 All humility thou art;
 Full of wrath, and pride I am,
 How unlike my lowly Lamb!
- 4 But thou canst my soul transform,
 Humble an aspiring worm,
 My unbroken spirit break,
 Make the angry leopard meek.
- 5 Thou art greater than my heart,
 Thou canst make me as thou art,
 Sink the proud, and tame the wild,
 Change me to a little child.
- 6 Turn me, Lord, and turn me now,
 To thy yoke my spirit bow;
 Grant me now the pearl to find
 Of a meek and quiet mind.

¹³Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 54–55; MS Clarke, 61–62; and MS Shent, 133a–133b.

7 Calm, O calm my troubled breast,
 Let me gain that second rest,
 From my works for ever cease,
 Perfected in holiness.

8 Soon, or later then remove,
 Take me to my rest above:
 All's alike to me, so I
 In my Lord may live, and die.

CXV.

Hymn XIII.¹⁴

1 My Jesus, my Lamb,
 I trust in thy name,
 And all thy unsearchable riches I claim.

2 For me thou hast died,
 Thy blood is applied;
 I am come to the fountain of Jesus's side.

3 The earnest I prove,
 Thy Spirit doth move,
 And melt my hard heart with a spark of thy love.

4 Yet can I not rest,
 'Till perfectly blest
 I lean every moment on Jesus's breast.

5 What tongue cannot tell
 In believing I feel,
 The pledge and the witness; but where is the seal?

6¹⁵ The seal is secure,
 And keeps my heart pure:
 This, this is the proof I shall always endure.

¹⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 165–67.

¹⁵John Wesley crossed out stanzas 6–8 in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 7 For this do I call
 On my Jesus, my all;
O tell me by love that I never shall fall;
- 8 That I never shall sin:
 O wash my heart clean:
Now, Lord, thy immoveable kingdom bring in.
- 9 Thy nature impart,
 My soul to convert,
And 'stablish the thing thou hast wrought in my heart.
- 10 My Alpha is here,
 Thou always art near,
But in me, my Lord, the Omega appear.
- 11 Thy gifts that are past
 Behind me I cast:
The beginning, and first, be the end, and the last.
- 12 Now, now let me feel,
 Thou in me dost dwell;
To the day of redemption, O Comforter, seal.
- 13 Return from above
 In the Spirit of love,
And the mountain of sin by thy presence remove.
- 14 For this do I pray,
 Nothing else can I say,
But, take the occasion of stumbling away.
- 15 Then shall I be clean,
 And live without sin,
'Till the life of my Jesus breaks out from within.
- 16 My body that dies
 With advantage shall rise,
And be fashion'd like his, when we meet in the skies.

- 17 In the skies we shall meet;
Who am now at thy feet,
I at thy right hand in thy kingdom shall sit:
- 18 I the glory shall see
Thou hast purchas'd for me,
And inherit my heaven of heavens in thee.

CXVI.
[Hymns for Those that Wait

Hymn XIV.¹⁶

- 1 Jesu, cast a pitying eye,
Humbled at thy feet I lie,
Fain within thy arms would rest,
Fain would lean upon thy breast;
Thrust my hand into thy side,
Always in the cleft abide,
Never from thy wounds depart,
Never leave thy bleeding heart.
- 2 Surely I have pardon found,
Grace doth more than sin abound,
God, I know, is pacified,
Thou for me, for me hast died:
But I cannot rest herein,
All my nature still is sin,
Comforted I will not be,
'Till my soul is all like thee.
- 3 See my burthen'd, sin-sick soul,
Give me faith, and make me whole,
Finish thy great work of grace,
Cut it short in righteousness:
Speak the second time, Be clean,
Take away my power to sin,¹⁷
Now the stumbling-block remove,
Cast it out by perfect love.

¹⁶Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 96–97; MS Clarke, 111–12; and MS Shent, 185a–185b.

¹⁷John Wesley substituted “inbred sin” for “power to sin” in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

4 Nothing less will I require,
Nothing more can I desire;
None but Christ to me be given,
None but Christ in earth, or heaven.
O that I might now decrease!
O that all I am might cease!
Let me into nothing fall,
Let my Lord be all in all!

[CXVII.]¹⁸

Hymn XV.¹⁹

1 Jesu, my good and faithful Lord,
To thee with confidence I fly;
I hang upon thy changeless word,
The truth itself can never lie;
I have the promises I claim,
Whate'er I ask in Jesu's name.

2 The word thy blessed lips hath past,
Ask, and ye shall the grace receive,
Seek, and be sure to find at last,
Knock, and I will admittance give;
Ye shall whate'er ye ask obtain,
Ye cannot seek my face in vain.

3 O Jesus, full of truth, and grace,
Thy love and faithfulness I plead,
Thine all-containing word embrace,
Thou knowst alas, I all things need,
But only one I now implore;
I ask, that I may sin no more.

Hymn XVI.²⁰

- 1 Get thee behind me, fiend! No more
 To flesh or thee I credit give;
The snare is broke, the charm is o'er,
 In Jesus I at last believe;
Whate'er I want, whate'er I claim,
Is mine thro' faith in Jesu's name.
- 2 Faith asks impossibilities,
 Impossibilities are given;
And I, ev'n I, from sin shall cease,
 And live on earth the life of heaven;
I dare believe thro' Jesu's power,
That I, ev'n I, shall sin no more.
- 3 Thy every faithful promise, Lord,
 I bring to bear against my sin,
Thy pardning, and thy hallowing word,
 Thy power, and will to make me clean,
Thy truth, and love, are on my part,
And all thou hast, and all thou art.

Hymn XVII.²¹

- 1 What is the reason of my hope,
 My hope to live and sin no more?
After his likeness to wake up,
 And God in spi'rit, and truth adore,
To serve him as the hosts above
In perfect peace, and perfect love?

²⁰A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 192b.

²¹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 193a–193b.

- 2 Faith in the blood of Christ I have;
He freely lov'd, and died for me:
Sinners he came from sin to save,
From all, from all iniquity;
Without the camp he deign'd to die,
Us by his blood to sanctify.
- 3 His blood shall sanctify throughout
My spirit, soul, and body here:
Because he died, I cannot doubt,
Because he died, I cannot fear;
His blood shall make me pure within,
His blood shall cleanse me from all sin.
- 4 He wills, that I should holy be,
He promises to make me clean,
His oath confirms the sure decree;
The remnant, and the root of sin
The God of truth hath sworn to slay,
And take its being all away.
- 5 God hath ordain'd, that I should see
In perfect holiness his face,
Retrieve his image here, and be
Forever sanctified by grace;
His truth, and power, and mercy join,
The will, and word, and oath divine.
- 6 Here then my foot of faith stands sure,
And earth, and hell in vain deny;
I shall be pure as God is pure,
Holy as God is holy I,
Perfect, as God is perfect, rise,
And take my mansion in the skies.

Hymn XVIII.²²

- 1 Light of life, seraphick fire,
 Love divine, thyself impart,
 Every fainting soul inspire,
 Shine in every drooping heart,
 Every mournful sinner chear,
 Scatter all our guilty gloom;
 Son of God appear, appear,
 To thine human temples come.

- 2 Come in this accepted hour,
 Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;
 Fill us with the glorious power
 Rooting out the seeds of sin:
 Nothing more can we require,
 We will covet nothing less:
 Thou art all our heart's desire,
 All our joy, and all our peace.

- 3 Whom but thee have we in heaven,
 Whom have we on earth but thee?
 Only thou to us be given,
 All besides is vanity;
 Grant us love, we ask no more,
 Every other gift remove;
 Pleasure, fame, and wealth, and power,
 Still we all enjoy in love.

 So full of desperate wickedness!

- 2 So weak, so impotent, so blind,
 So earthly, sensual, devilish all!
 What words of horror can I find
 To picture out my total fall?
- 3 My total fall I never knew,
 'Till I had tasted of thy grace,
 Thy Spirit then the veil withdrew,
 And shew'd the inbred monster's face.
- 4 The man of sin, the mystery
 Of wickedness thou hast reveal'd,
 (Sure pledge of good!) my plague I see;
 My plague I know, shall all be heal'd!
- 5 A perfect soundness faith shall give,
 A perfect holiness below;
 Jesu, I in thy blood believe,
 Thy blood shall wash me white as snow.
- 6 The loss I by the first sustain
 The second Adam shall repair:
 I shall the life of God regain,
 The image of the heavenly bear.
- 7 Let others from themselves remove,
 And chase salvation far away;
 But thou canst perfect me in love,
 Canst perfect me in love to-day.
- 8 Let others madly hug their chains,
 Their idol of inbeing sin;
 I cannot plead for sin's remains,
 When thou hast said, Ye shall be clean.
- 9 If thou hast power and will to save,
 Sav'd to the utmost I shall be,
 The fulness of the Godhead have;
 For all the Godhead is in thee.

Hymn XX.²⁴

- 1 Jesu, thou strength of all that turn
 The battle to the gate,
 Behold us for thy glory burn,
 And for thy kingdom wait.

- 2 O that thy foes were all subdued,
 In bonds of love confin'd,
 And forc'd to own th' all-cleansing blood,
 That flow'd for all mankind.

- 3 Captain of our salvation, hear,
 Saviour of human race,
 Appear, in thy own cause appear,
 And vindicate thy grace.

- 4 Thy grace for all divinely free
 Doth every sinner call;
 Thou drawest all men unto thee,
 For thou hast purchas'd all.

- 5 Lo! Here we are, thy truth to prove,
 To witness thou art good,
 T' assert thine universal love,
 And all-redeeming blood.

- 6 Thy blood from all iniquity
 Redeems, and makes us clean;
 From pride, and self²⁵ it sets us free,
 From all indwelling sin.

- 7 The Spirit's living law it writes
 Upon our inward parts,
 Our new-born souls to God unites,
 And purifies our hearts.

²⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 190a–191a; and MS Thirty, 170–73.

²⁵John Wesley substituted “wrath” for “self” in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 8 It keeps our mind in perfect peace,
Thy kingdom it brings in,
Thine everlasting righteousness,
And makes an end of sin.
- 9 This sovereign antidote expels
The poison from our veins;
Our old congenial sickness heals,
And purges all our stains.
- 10 A perfect soundness it imparts,
Destroys the carnal mind,
And forms in all believing hearts
The Saviour of mankind.
- 11 Come then, dear²⁶ Lamb, for sinners slain,
Bring in the cleansing flood;
Apply, to wash out every stain,
Thine efficacious blood.
- 12 O let it sink into our soul
Deep as the inbred sin,
Make every wounded spirit whole,
And every leper clean.
- 13 Thy sanctifying word is sure;
Lord, we our sins confess,
Faithful and just, O make us pure
From all unrighteousness.
- 14 Such power belongeth unto thee,
Thy saying we receive;
We shall be pure in heart, and see
Thy smiling face, and live.
- 15 Lord, we believe, and with calm zeal
For this our faith contend,
Waiting 'till thou thyself reveal,
And hoping to the end.

²⁶John Wesley substituted “O thou” for “then dear” in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 16 Our high, and holy calling's prize
We earnestly pursue;
Nor fear we, least our thoughts should rise,
Above what thou canst do.
- 17 Thy goodness, O all-gracious Lord,
Is equal to thy power;
And we shall try thy utmost word,
And we shall sin no more.
- 18 Thou willest, and it must be done,
That we should holy be;
And we shall live to thee alone,
And we shall die to thee.

Hymn XXI.

“For any who think they have already attained.”
[cf. Philippians iii. 12.]

- 1 Omnipotent, omniscient Lord,
Present in heaven, and earth, and hell,
Spirit, and soul-dividing Word,
Searcher of hearts unsearchable,
Behold us with thine eyes of flame,
And tell me what by grace I am.
- 2 We would not our own souls deceive,
Or fondly rest in grace begun:
Thy wise discerning unction give,
And make us know as we are known;
Search, and try out our hearts, and reins,
And shew if sin in us remains.
- 3 Thy thoughts and ways are not as ours,
Thou only knowst what is in man;
Ev'n now we taste the heavenly powers;
But tell us, are we born again?

Are we redeem'd from inbred sin?
 What saith the oracle within?

- 4 Shine on the work thyself hast wrought,
 If thou hast wrought the work in me:
 Or shew us, if we know thee not:
 Am I, my God, stopt short of thee?
 The powerful, quick conviction dart,
 And shine in every naked heart.
- 5 Thou would'st not have thy children stray,
 Thou never canst mislead the blind;
 If brought into thy perfect way,
 O let us now the witness find,
 And shout to hear thy speaking blood,
 And eccho to the voice of God.
- 6 Touching this thing we all agree,
 Father, to ask in Jesu's name,
 That each his true estate may see:
 In faith we now the promise claim;
 Now, now for Jesu's sake reveal
 Our inward heaven, or inward hell.
- 7 Send forth thy pure, unerring light,
 Jesus, the truth, the life, the way,
 And guide our helpless spirits right,
 That all may see thy perfect day,
 May all thy glorious fulness prove,
 The²⁷ depth of everlasting love.

Another [“For any who think they

- 1 Come, thou omniscient Son of man,

 Come with the winnowing Spirit's fan,
 And throughly purge the floor.

- 2 The chaff of sin, th' accursed thing
Far from our souls be driven;
The wheat into thy garner bring,
And lay us up for heaven.
- 3 Now let us by thy word be tried,
Search out our reins and heart,
Spirit, and soul, O Lord, divide,
And joints and marrow part.
- 4 Look thro' us with thine eyes of flame,
The clouds and darkness chase;
And shew me what by sin I am,
And what I am by grace.
- 5 We would not of ourselves²⁹ conceive
Above what thou hast done;
But still to thee the matter leave,
'Till thou shalt make it known.
- 6 We would not, Lord, ourselves conceal,
But walk in open day;
We pray thee, all our sin reveal,
And purge it all away.
- 7 Whate'er offends thy glorious eyes
Far from our hearts remove,
As dust before the whirlwind flies,
Disperse it by thy love.
- 8 Then let us all thy fulness know,
From every sin set free:
Sav'd, to the utmost sav'd below,
And perfectly like thee.

Philip[pians] iii. 13.

- 1 Come, let us who to Christ are join'd,
 Forgetting still the things behind,
 This only thing persist to do,
 Our calling's glorious prize pursue.
- 2 Our works, and gifts, and graces past,
 All, all behind our back be cast,
 This, only this remembered be,
 Jesus hath died for us; for me.
- 3 He died, that we to him might live,
 Might all his righteousness receive,
 Fulness of love, and health, and power;
 He died, that we might sin no more.
- 4 He shed his blood to wash us clean
 From all unrighteousness, and sin,
 To save from all iniquity;
 Jesus hath died for us; for me.
- 5 He died that we might be made whole,
 Holy in body, spirit, soul,
 Might do his will like those above,
 Renew'd in all the life of love.
- 6 Lay the foundation then no more,
 Reach forth unto the things before,
 On to the prize undaunted press,
 And seize the crown of righteousness.
- 7 We shall the end of faith attain,
 The uttermost salvation gain,

³⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 1–2; and MS Clarke, 1–2.

(Our calling's hope, our calling's prize,
The tree of life in paradise.)

- 8 Shall taste the manna of his grace,
And pure in heart behold his face,
Our Jesus shall himself impart,
And cleanse, and fill the sinless heart.
- 9 His nature to our souls make known,
And write the name in the white stone,
We all shall all his fulness prove,
And find the pearl of perfect love.

Hymn XXIV.³¹

Ephes[ians] iv. 8, 11, &c.

- 1 Let all mankind in Christ rejoice!
The Lord is risen for you, and me,
Ascending with a merry noise,
He captive led captivity.
- 2 Our Jesus is gone up on high,
And gifts he hath receiv'd for men,
He sends his Spi'rit to purify
Our souls from every sinful stain.
- 3 Teachers he gives our souls to feed,
The word of truth and grace t' impart,
Dispensers of the living bread,
And pastors after his own heart.
- 4 He makes them apt to teach, and guide
The flock with wisdom from above,
'Till all are wholly sanctified
Thro' faith, and perfected in love.

³¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 2-4; and MS Clarke, 2-5.

- 5 The glorious ministry divine
For this he did on earth ordain,
Nor can he miss of his design,
Or send his messengers in vain.
- 6 They, under him, his church shall build,
And lead his feeblest people on,
'Till all our souls with God are fill'd,
For ever sanctified in one.
- 7 Believing on our common Lord,
'Till we his image here regain,
Experiencing his utmost word,
And brought unto a perfect man.
- 8 'Till farther still by faith we go,
And nearer view the opening skies,
And more and more like Christ below,
To all his glorious stature rise.
- 9 That highest point of love divine,
To all that heaven we here arrive,
And then our parting souls resign,
And cease at once to grow, and live.
- 10 This is his acceptable will,
That we on earth should holy be,
The fulness of his Spirit feel,
And live from sin for ever free.
- 11 No more in our imperfect state,
Feeble, and babes in Christ no more,
But strong in him, and truly great,
And fill'd with all his love and power.
- 12 Children we liv'd, alas! Too long,
Tost to and fro with every wind,
And many a false, deceitful tongue
Subverted our unstable mind.

- 13 Carried about from God's own ways,
At every smooth seducer's will,
We left the channels of his grace,
And slothfully at last stood still.
- 14 With speeches fair, and glozing lies
They watch'd, and strove to cast us down,
Remove us from our calling's prize,
O'erturn our faith, and take our crown.
- 15 But let us now the promise prove,
And perfect holiness below,
Hold fast, and speak the truth in love,
And up to Christ in all things grow.
- 16 We all shall gain what we pursue,
Be pure in heart, and saints indeed,
Grafted in Christ, and creatures new;
The members shall be like their head.
- 17 From him the quickning Spirit flows,
And lo! The social members join,
The well-compacted body grows,
And swells with energy divine.
- 18 By that which every joint supplies
The whole doth still increase, and move,
'Till all compleat the body rise,
And perfectly built up in love.

Hymn XXV.³²

- 1 Come let us arise,
And aim at the prize,
The hope of our calling on this side the skies.

³²A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Cheshunt, 216–17.

- 2 By works let us shew
 That Jesus we know,
While steadily on to perfection we go.
- 3 But may we not strive,
 Yet never arrive
To be saints, or to live without sin, while alive?
- 4 No, no, never fear,
 If we look for him here,
But our uttermost Saviour in us shall appear.
- 5 We dare not believe,
 That God can deceive,
And never intend what he promis'd to give.
- 6 He hath said, from all sin
 Ye here shall be clean,
All-holy, all-pure, and all-glorious within.
- 7 We rest on his word,
 We shall here be restor'd
To his image; the servant shall be as his Lord.
- 8 Our faith is not vain,
 We are sure to regain
The nature divine of the heavenly man.
- 9 Then let us not stop,
 But continue in hope
Rejoicing, 'till all in his image wake up;
- 10 His purity share,
 His character bear,
And the truth of his hallowing promise declare.
- 11 Thus, thus let us stay,
 And wait for the day
When the angels are sent to conduct us away.

- 12 When with joy we remove
 To our brethren above,
 And fly up to heaven in a chariot of love.

Hymn XXVI.³³

- 1 All glory, and praise to Jesus our Lord,
 We witness his grace, and life-giving word,
 Poor justified sinners his goodness we prove,
 The weakest beginners in Jesus his love.
- 2 His love we proclaim, and publish abroad,
 The blood of the Lamb hath brought us to God:
 He purchas'd our pardon, who died in our stead,
 The uttermost farthing our surety hath paid.
- 3 He died from all sin our souls to redeem,
 And we shall be clean, and sinless thro' him,
 The end of his passion accomplish'd shall be,
 And all his salvation we shortly shall see.
- 4 Then let us go on, 'till Jesus appear,
 And give us the crown of righteousness here;
 'Till justified fully his promise we prove,
 All happy, and holy, and perfect in love.

Hymn XXVII.³⁴

- 1 Ye servants of God, who trust in his Son,
 And feel that his blood for all did atone,
 Your songs of thanksgiving delightfully raise,
 And praise him by living to Jesus his praise.

³³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 125a.

³⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 125b.

- 2 Believe on his name, 'till inwardly clean
Ye live without blame, ye live without sin:
Go on to perfection, thro' Jesus his power,
Make sure your election, and sin is no more.

Hymn XXVIII.³⁵

“As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.” John i. 12.

- 1 Jesus, in thine all-saving name
We stedfastly believe,
And lo! The promis'd power we claim,
Which thou art bound to give:
Power to become the sons of God,
An all-sufficient power,
We look to have on us bestow'd
A power to sin no more.
- 2 We yield to be redeem'd from sin,
The life divine to live,
Open our hearts to take thee in;
And all thy grace receive.
Thee we receive as God and man,
Both in one person join'd,
To finish the redeeming plan,
To rescue all mankind.
- 3 On both thy natures we rely,
Neither can save alone;
The God could not for sinners die,
The man could not atone.
The merit of a suffering God
Hath bought our perfect peace,
It stamp'd the value on that blood,
Which sign'd our soul's release.

³⁵Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 195a–196b; and MS Thirty, 148–51.

- 4 Thy pretious blood hath wash'd away
The universal sin;
And every child of Adam may
Have all thy life brought in.
Thy office is to teach, and bless,
T' atone, and sanctify;
Ready the Spirit of thy grace
Thy merits to apply.
- 5 To thee, O Christ, the praise we give,
Thy threefold function sing,
The Lord's anointed one receive,
Our prophet, priest, and King.
Thou, only thou, our wisdom art,
Our strength and righteousness;
Sprinkle, inform, and rule our heart,
Victorious Prince of Peace.
- 6 Foolish, we come to learn of thee,
Guilty, to be forgiven,
Poor, sinful worms to be made free
From sin, and fit for heaven.
Teach us the perfect will of God,
For us, and in us pray;
Wash us in thine all-cleansing blood;
Thy kingly power display.
- 7 Thy kingly power in us exert,
Our rebel heart subdue;
More than subdue our rebel heart,
Thine utmost virtue shew.
Shew us thy sanctifying grace,
And take our sin away;
Its being utterly erase,
All, all its relicks slay.
- 8 Jesu, we in thy name believe,
Which fiends and men deny,
To them we dare not credit give
Who give our God the lie.

Jesus, the power of Jesu's name
Our sinless souls shall feel;
Lord, we believe thee still the same,
An utmost Saviour still.

- 9 Thou wilt to us thy name impart,
 Thou bear'st it not in vain:
 What thou art call'd, thou surely art,
 Saviour of sinful man.
 Into thy name, thy nature, we
 Assuredly believe,
 Jesus from sin, thee, only thee
 Our Jesus we receive.
- 10 Our Jesus thou from future woe,
 From present wrath divine,
 Shalt save us from our sins below,
 And make our souls like thine.
 Jesus from all the power of sin,
 From all the being too,
 Thy grace shall make us throughly clean,
 And perfectly renew.
- 11 Jesus from pride, from wrath, from lust,
 Our inward Jesus be,
 From every evil thought we trust
 To be redeem'd by thee.
 When thou dost in our flesh appear,
 We shall the promise prove,
 Sav'd into all perfection here,
 Renew'd in sinless love.
- 12 Come, O thou prophet, priest, and King,
 Thou Son of God, and man,
 Into our souls thy fulness bring,
 Instruct, atone and reign.
 Holy, and pure, as just, and wise,
 We would be in thy right,
 Less than thine all cannot suffice,
 We grasp the infinite.

- 13 Our Jesus thee, entire, and whole
 With willing heart we take;
 Fill ours, and every faithful soul
 For thy own mercy's sake:
 We wait to know thine utmost name,
 Thy nature's heavenly powers,
 One undivided Christ we claim,
 And all thou art is ours.

Hymn [XXIX].³⁶

“Let God be true, and every man a liar.”
 [Romans iii. 4.]

- 1 And hast thou died, O Lamb of God,
 To take away our inbred sin?
 And shall we trample on thy blood,
 And say, “It cannot make us clean,
 The truth on earth we cannot know,
 There's no perfection here below?”
- 2 From all iniquity to save,
 To cleanse from all unrighteousness,
 Thy life thou hast a ransom gave,
 To make the first transgression cease,
 To finish sin, my Lord was slain,
 But died (the faithless cry) in vain.
- 3 “In vain was he in flesh reveal'd,
 For sin can never be destroy'd;
 We cannot by his stripes be heal'd,
 We cannot wholly live to God:
 No, though he died to have it done,
 We cannot live to God alone.
- 4 “The flesh is weak, and will prevail;
 We all have our infirmities,

³⁶Ori., “XXXIX” (in both editions). Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 103–5; MS Clarke, 118–20; and MS Shent, 178a–179a.

“Live without sin! Impossible!
 With God impossible is this:
 At least he will not sanctify,
 He will not cleanse us—’till we die.”

- 5 Poor, abject souls! They tell thee, Lord,
 Thou shalt not in their life-time save;
 Thou never canst fulfil thy word,
 Before they drop into the grave;
 But when their sins no more can stay,
 Thou then mayst take their sins away.
- 6 The great salvation thou hast wrought,
 They cannot, will not yet receive,
 Or bear th’ intolerable thought,
 While living, without sin to live;
 They keep it to their latest breath,
 Sinners in life, and saints in death.
- 7 Saints without holiness are they,
 Elect without election’s seal,
 They do, yet cannot, fall away;
 In Christ, and yet in sin they dwell:
 Their freemen are to evil sold,
 Their creatures new are creatures old.
- 8 Sinners, and saints at once they are,
 They send forth bitter streams and sweet;
 Good trees, yet evil fruit they bear,
 And Christ in them and Belial meet:
 Their pure in heart are all unclean,
 And born of God they can’t but sin.
- 9 No promise can their wisdom find
 Of sinless holiness below;
 To sin, and yet to Jesus, join’d:
 And on they to perfection go,
 To what they never can attain,
 As God had bid them seek in vain.

- 10 Ah! Foolish man, where are thine eyes,
 To search for the meridian sun!
 Thou canst not see thy calling's prize,
 Thou wilt not love thy God alone;
 Blind thro' the love of sin thou art,
 And still the veil is on thy heart.
- 11 O that the veil might now be rent!
 Give up your sins, ye faithless race,
 To part with all for Christ consent,
 Accept the offers of his grace,
 His holy will submit to prove,
 And take the crown of perfect love.

Hymn XXX.³⁷

- 1 And shall we then abide in sin,
 Nor hope on earth to be set free?
 Hath Jesus bled to wash us clean,
 To save from all iniquity,
 And can he not his blood apply,
 And cleanse, and save us—'till we die?
- 2 Alas! If their report be true,
 Who teach that sin must still remain,
 If sin we scarcely can subdue,
 But never full redemption gain,
 Where is thy power, Almighty Lord?
 Where is thine everlasting word?
- 3 Where is the glorious church below,
 From every spot and wrinkle free!
 The trees that to perfection grow,
 The saints that blameless walk with thee,
 Adorn'd in linnen white and clean,
 The born of God that cannot sin!

³⁷Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 105–7; MS Clarke, 121–22; and MS Shent, 179a–179b.

- 4 Where are in Christ the creatures new,
 The mon'ments of thy saving power,
The witnesses that God is true,
 The pillars that go out no more,
Th' election of peculiar grace,
The chosen priests, the royal race?
- 5 Where are the spirits to Jesus join'd,
 Freed from the law of death and sin?
The Saviour's pure and spotless mind?
 The endless righteousness brought in?
The heavenly man, the heart renew'd,
The living portraiture of God?
- 6 The Spirit of power, and health, and love,
 The pledge, the witness, and the seal,
Th' unerring unction from above,
 The glorious gift unspeakable,
The hidden life, the wide-spread leaven,
The law fulfilled in earth and heaven!
- 7 Can the good God his grace deny?
 Th' Almighty God want power to save?
Th' omniscient err? The faithful lie?
 All, all thy attributes we have;
Thy wisdom, power, and goodness join
To save us, with an oath divine.
- 8 Lord, we believe, and rest secure,
 Thine utmost promises to prove,
To rise restor'd, and throughly pure,
 In all the image of thy love,
Fill'd with the glorious life unknown,
Forever sanctified in one.

Hymn XXXI.³⁸

- 1 Prisoners of hope, arise,
And see your Lord appear;
Lo! On the wings of love he flies,
And brings redemption near!
Redemption in his blood
He calls you to receive;
Come unto me, the pardning God,
Believe, he cries, believe.
- 2 The reconciling word
We thankfully embrace,
Rejoice in our redeeming Lord,
A blood-besprinkled race:
We yield to be set free,
Thy council we approve,
Salvation, praise ascribe to thee,
And glory in thy love.
- 3 Jesus, to thee we look,
'Till sav'd from sin's remains,
Reject the inbred tyrant's yoke,
And cast away his chains:
Our nature shall no more
O'er us dominion have;
By faith we apprehend the power,
Which shall forever save.
- 4 In sure and stedfast hope
To be redeem'd below,
On to the holy mountain's top
We all exulting go:

³⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 189a–189b; and MS Thirty, 218.

We shall the prize receive,
We shall be all renew'd,

Hymn XXXII.³⁹

- 1 O Jesus, at thy feet we wait,
'Till thou shalt bid us rise,
Restor'd to our unsinning state,
To love's sweet paradise.
- 2 Saviour from sin we thee receive,
From all indwelling sin,
Thy word, we stedfastly believe,
Shall make us thoroughly clean.
- 3 Still we continue in thy word,
Our faith by works we shew,
Expecting to be as our Lord,
And all the truth to know.
- 4 The truth that makes us free indeed,
The living truth divine,
The glorious fulness of our head
Shall in his members shine.
- 5 Lord, we believe; and wait the hour
That brings the promis'd grace,
When born of God we sin no more,
But always see thy face.
- 6 Since thou wouldst have us free from sin,
And pure as those above,
Make haste to bring thy nature in,
And perfect us in love.

³⁹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Cheshunt, 147–48.

- 7 The counsel of thy love fulfil,
Come quickly, gracious Lord,
Be it according to thy will,
According to thy word.
- 8 According to our faith in thee,
Let it to us be done;
Oh! That we all thy face might see,
And know as we are known!
- 9 Oh! That the perfect gift were given,
The love diffus'd abroad,
Oh! That our hearts were all an heaven
Forever fill'd with God!

Hymn XXXIII.⁴⁰

- 1 Jesus comes with all his grace,
Comes to save a fallen race:
Object of our glorious hope,
Jesus comes to lift us up.
- 2 Let the living stones cry out,
Let the sons of Abraham shout,
Praise we all our lowly King,
Give him thanks, rejoice, and sing.
- 3 He hath our salvation wrought,
He our captive souls hath bought;
He hath reconcil'd to God,
He hath wash'd us in his blood.
- 4 We are now his lawful right,
Walk as children of the light;
We shall soon obtain the grace
Pure in heart to see his face.

⁴⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 188a–188b; and MS Thirty, 88–89.

- 5 Free from sin we here shall live,
Here the end of faith receive,
The salvation of our soul,
Perfectly in Christ made whole.
- 6 We have not believ'd in vain,
We shall surely here obtain
Full redemption in his blood,
We, ev'n we shall be like God.
- 7⁴¹ We his life on earth shall live,
We his image shall retrieve,
Pure as the first sinless man,
Modell'd by the perfect plan.
- 8 We shall gain our calling's prize,
After God we all shall rise,
Fill'd with love, and joy, and peace,
Perfected in holiness.
- 9 Let us then rejoice in hope,
Steadily to Christ look up,
Trust to be redeem'd from sin,
Wait 'till he appears within.
- 10 Fools, and madmen let us be,
Yet is our sure trust in thee,
Faithful is the promise-word,
We shall all be as our Lord.
- 11 Hasten, Lord, the perfect day,
Let thy every servant say,
I have now receiv'd the power,
Born of God I sin no more!

Hymn XXXIV.

- 1 Come let us rejoice in confident hope
 Of hearing the voice that raises us up,
 All inwardly glorious, and holy, and clean,
 And more than victorious o'er hell, earth, and sin.

- 2 The power of our Lord doth all things subdue,
 We shall by his word be fashion'd anew;
 Our souls and our bodies shall bow to his reign,
 The weakness of God is far stronger than men.

- 3 Men, devils agree to tell us in vain
 Poor sinners like thee must always complain,
 “My leanness, my leanness, my inbeing load,
 The weakness of men is far stronger than God.”

- 4 But Jesus shall shew his fulness of power,
 And perfect below, and throughly restore
 Our souls to his nature (if still we pursue)
 And seal the new creature eternally new.

- 5 The blood of the Lamb shall wash our hearts clean,
 His nature and name is freedom from sin;
 This is the foundation immoveably sure,
 His mighty salvation shall always endure.

- 1 Let all in thy great praise agree,
 O Saviour of mankind,

⁴²A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 177.

Our Saviour to the utmost thee
We soon expect to find.

- 2 Saviour from sin we thee receive,
From all indwelling sin;
Thy blood, we stedfastly believe,
Shall make us pure within.
- 3 We cannot rest in sin subdued,
Or look for endless wars;
We shall be conquerors thro' thy blood,
And more than conquerors.
- 4 Let others plead for sin's remains,
Their dear, inbeing sin,
If all thy blood can wash our stains,
We shall be thoroughly clean.
- 5 We dare avow the gospel-hope,
And wait the truth to prove,
After thy likeness to wake up,
Renew'd in sinless love.

- 1 Salvation is in Jesu's name
For all who him receive:
To save the world from heaven he came,
That every soul might live.
- 2 Thro' grace we take the purchas'd grace,
We answer to his call,
The Saviour of mankind embrace,

⁴³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 146.

- 3 His blood, we know, hath bought our peace,
We have no hope beside,
By his imputed righteousness
We all are justified.
- 4 Sav'd from the guilt and power of sin,
For Jesu's sake forgiven,
We trust to have the grace brought in,
The new-created heaven.
- 5 Forgetting still the things behind,
To'ward the high prize we press,
And look the pretious pearl to find,
The perfect holiness.
- 6 We shall be wholly sanctified,
As many as Christ receive,
As sure as he for us hath died,

- 1 The babes in Christ should nothing know
But Jesus crucified:
Let us, 'till dead to all below,
In those dear wounds abide.
- 2 Then let us follow on, to prove
His resurrection's power,
Wait to be perfected in love,
To rise, and fall no more!
- 3 Jesu, our life, in us appear,
Who daily die thy death,
Reveal thyself the Finisher,
Thy quickning Spirit breathe.

⁴⁴A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 147.

- 4 Unfold the hidden mystery,
 The second gift impart,
 Reveal thy glorious self in me,
 In every waiting heart.
- 5 We shall attain what we pursue,
 Unless our faith is vain;
 If thou art good, if thou art true,
 We shall the prize attain;
- 6 Partake on earth the heavenly bliss,
 And pure and holy be,
 And perfect as thy Father is,
 And one with God in thee.

Hymns for Widows.

[Hymn I.]⁴⁵

- 1 O thou, who pleadst the widow's cause,
 Who only canst repair my loss,
 And sweeten all my woe,
 Distrest, disconsolate, forlorn
 Let me in thy dear bosom mourn,
 Nor other comfort know.
- 2 A deso'late soul, thou knowst, I am,
 For thou hast call'd me by my name,
 Thy poor afflicted one,
 Hast in the fiery furnace tried,
 And chose a mourner for thy bride,
 When all my joys were gone.
- 3 The soul whom more than life I lov'd,
 Thy jealous mercy hath remov'd,
 To make me wholly thine:

⁴⁵This hymn was included (in manuscript form) in a letter of Charles to Mrs. Elizabeth Witham (January 16, 1746).

With streaming eyes the hand I see,
 And bow me to the just decree,
 And bless the love divine.

4 Still would⁴⁶ I pour my mournful tears,
 And all my⁴⁷ solemn days, or years,
 In sacred sadness⁴⁸ spend;
 Instant in strong effectual prayers,
 'Till death release me from my cares,
 And faith in vision end.

5 For this I in thy Spirit groan,
 Forsaken, comfortless,⁴⁹ alone
 I would with God abide,
 Cut off from man, to Jesus cleave,
 And never for a moment leave
 My heavenly Bridegroom's side.

6 Allow, dear Lord, the widow's plea,
 And oh! Shut up my soul with thee,
 Against the nuptial feast;
 Make ready for that glorious day,
 And then thy spotless bride convey
 To thine eternal rest.

Hymn II.

1 Let heathens murmur and complain,
 I rest me here, it is the Lord
 Calls for my heart's desire again;
 His will be done, his name ador'd!

2 Who first the pretious blessing lent,
 He justly hath resum'd his own,
 I yield him back with full consent:
 Thy name be prais'd, thy will be done.

⁴⁹John Wesley underlined "Forsaken, comfortless" in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 3 Thy mercy in the stroke I see,
Enter into my God's design,
From every fond engagement free,
Thou wouldst my heart should all be thine.
- 4 Thou wouldst that I from man should cease,
Thou hast my earthly lord remov'd,
That all my soul might thee confess
My only, as my best-belov'd.
- 5 Thy will I chearfully obey,
From every creature-good retreat;
And desolate delight to stay
An happy mourner at thy feet.
- 6 Devoted to my God below,
My all of bliss in thee I have,
No other love resolv'd to know,
No other bride-bed but the grave.

Hymn III.

- 1 Happy state of widowhood!
State of us that mourn to God,
Who from all our comforts torn,
Only live to pray and mourn.
- 2 Meanest of the number I
For my old companion sigh,
Patiently my loss deplore,
Weep for one who weeps no more.
- 3 Me my consort hath outrun,
Out of sight he now is gone,
He his course hath finish'd here,
First come to the sepulchre.

- 4 Following on with earnest haste,
'Till my mourning days are past,
I my partner's steps pursue,
I shall soon be happy too;
- 5 Find the ease for which I pant,
Gain the only good I want,
Quietly lay down my head,
Sink into my earthen bed.
- 6 There my flesh shall rest in hope,
'Till the quicken'd dust fly up,
'Till to glorious life I rise,
Meet my husband in the skies.

Hymn IV.

- 1 Thou, Lord, who hast ravish'd away
The joy of mine eyes with a stroke,
To thee in my trouble I pray,
To thee for my comfort I look:
No help upon earth can I see,
And deeply disconsolate mourn,
The world is a desart to me,
'Till Jesus, and Eden return.
- 2 Thy favour alone can supply
The place of all other relief,
The pity that drops from thine eye
Asswages and quiets my grief:
A widow in want and distress,
If thee my defender I prove,
I sweetly recover my peace,
And calmly rejoice in thy love.

- 3 Now therefore a spirit receive,
 Resolv'd upon thee to depend,
And wholly to thee let me live,
 My only unchangeable friend:
Preserve me a widow indeed,
 'Till call'd to my lasting abode,
From sorrow eternally freed,
 And rapt to the bosom of God.

CXLIV.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn V.

- 1 Weep, ye common mourners, weep,
 Tell aloud your shallow woe,
Silent all my griefs, and deep
 In an even current flow,
'Till they reach the peaceful sea,
Lost in calm eternity.
- 2 Wisely let me mourn my dead,
 Live according to his will,
In the Saviour's footsteps tread,
 All my calling's works fulfil,
Act thro' life the decent part,
Give to God my broken heart.
- 3 Happy soul! What wills he now?
 (God and he desire the same)
Wills he I should set my brow,
 Glory in my Master's shame,
Him with simple faith confess,
Stand with Jesus' witnesses!
- 4 Would he I should closer cleave
 To the souls that cleave to God?
Still into my heart receive
 All who know th' atoning blood,

Only in the saints delight,
Walk with Christ and them in white?

- 5 Teach me, O my guide, my friend,
 Heavenly Counseller divine,
To thy secret purpose bend
 This obedient heart of mine,
Make thine utmost pleasure known,
All thy will on me be done.⁵⁰
- 6 Lead me into every deed
 Which for me thou hast prepar'd,
Me with all thy children lead
 To my infinite reward,
To my friend that waits above,
To my throne of glorious love.

CXLV.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn VI.

- 1 Thou very present aid
 In suffering and distress,
The soul, which still on thee is stay'd,
 Is kept in perfect peace;
 The soul by faith reclin'd
 On his Redeemer's breast,
Midst raging storms exults to find
 An everlasting rest.
- 2 Sorrow and fear are gone,
 Whene'er thy face appears,
It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
 And dries the widow's tears,
 It hallows every cross,
 It sweetly comforts me,
And makes me now forget my loss;
 And lose myself in thee.

⁵⁰Ori., "on me done"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

3 Peace to the troubled heart,
 Health to the sin-sick mind,
The wounded spirit's balm thou art,
 The healer of mankind:
 In deep affliction blest
 With thee I mount above,
And sing, triumphantly distrest,
 Thine all-sufficient love.

4 Jesus, to whom I fly,
 Doth all my wishes fill,
In vain the creature-streams are dry,
 I have the fountain still.
 Stript of my earthly friends
 I find them all in one,
And peace, and joy, that never ends,
 And heaven, in Christ alone!

CXLVI.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn VII.

1 O my tender-hearted Lord,
 How shall I thy grace commend!
True I find thee to thy word,
 Thee I find the widow's friend;
Nearest in our greatest need,
 Present at thy mourner's call,
Thou, O God, art love indeed,
 Thou, O Christ, art all in all.

2 Of my earthly all bereav'd,
 Thou hast call'd, and look'd on me,
Me, alas, in spirit griev'd,
 Me o'erwhelm'd with misery,
By my other self forsook,
 Poor, disconsolate, distrest
Thou into thine arms hast took,
 Made me on thy bosom rest.

3 Shall I then my state bemoan,
Mournful state of widowhood?
Can I call myself alone,
Happy, happy in my God!
Long with stormy troubles tost,
I have now my port obtain'd,
Have an earthly husband lost,
Have an heavenly husband gain'd.

4 Join'd to me my Maker is,
With me still my Lord shall stay,
Keep the covenant of peace,
Peace, which none can take away:
Never shall thy truth depart,
Never shall thy grace remove,
Thou hast clasp'd me to thine heart,
Lov'd with an eternal love.

CXLVII.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn VIII.

1 Happy we who trust in Jesus!
Jesus turns our loss to gain:
Still his balmy mercies ease us,
Sweeten all our grief and pain:
When he calls our friends t' inherit
All the glories of the blest,
He assures the widow'd spirit
Thou shalt quickly be at rest.

2 For their dead, the heathen mourning
No relief like this can have,
Hopeless of their late returning
From the all-devouring grave:
But the God of consolation
Whispers better things to me,
I shall share the full salvation,
I the church above shall see.

3 Tho' my flesh and spirit languish,
 Can I of my lot complain!
 Sure at last t' out-live the anguish,
 Sure to find my friend again:
Ransom'd from a world of sorrow,
 He to-day is taken home,
I shall be releas'd to-morrow;
 Come, my full Redeemer, come!

4 In the kingdom of thy patience
 Well thou knowst I daily die;
Out of mighty tribulations
 Take me up to rest on high;
From my sanctified distresses
 Now, or when thou wilt, retrieve,
Grant me but in thine embraces
 After all my deaths to live.

CXLVIII.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn IX.

1 Hail holy, holy, holy Lord,
 Mysterious Three in One,
For ever be thy name ador'd,
 Thy will for ever done!
For this alone on earth I wait,
 To glorify my God;
Admitted to the high estate
 Of sacred widowhood.

2 O may I in thy strength fulfil
 My awful character;
And prove thine acceptable will,
 And do thy pleasure here:
The children unto thee restore,
 Whom thou to me hast given,
And rule my house with all my power,
 And train them up for heaven.

- 3 Be this my hospitable care,
The stranger to receive,
The burthen of thy church to bear,
And all their wants relieve;
My labour of unwearied love
With pleasure to repeat,
My faith upon thy saints approve,
And gladly wash their feet.
- 4 The servant of thy servants bless
With active earnest zeal,
And every work of righteousness
I shall with joy fulfil;
Mixt with their guardian angels tend
The heirs of glorious grace,
And still like them to heaven ascend,
And still behold thy face.
- 5 Happy might I the grace receive
Which thy true widows share,
With God in close communion live
A life of faith and prayer,
In thee my only friend confide,
Delightfully alone,
And desolate in prayer abide
'Till all my course is run.
- 6 Surely I now rely on thee,
Within thine arms I am,
And trust the glorious face to see
Of my triumphant Lamb.
I know the prayer of faith is heard,
I feel the answer given,
And haste, by holiness prepar'd,
To meet my Lord in heaven.

CXLIX.
[Hymns for Widows.]
Hymn X.

- 1 My everliving Lord,
 Thy faithfulness I own,
Call'd by thy providence and word
 To trust on thee alone,
 My faith by works to shew,
 And still on thee to call,
And witness, as to heaven I go,
 That God is all in all.

- 2 Already, Lord, I feel
 Thou hast my loss repair'd,
With thee I now in Eden dwell,
 And wait my full reward;
 My joy, my portion thou
 Hast knit my heart to thee;
My Maker is my husband now,
 And shall forever be.

- 3 I dare in thee confide,
 I in thy mercies rest,
Thou wilt not let me leave thy side,
 Or wander from thy breast:
 Beyond the reach of sin,
 The world, and hell's alarms,
Thy love shall keep me safe within
 Its everlasting arms.

- 4 Long as on earth I stay,
 It shall be all my care
With thee to wrestle night and day
 In never-ceasing prayer;

My life, like Anna, I
Will in thy temple spend,
'Till taken to the church on high,
Where prayer in praise shall end.

CL.
[Hymns for Widows.]
Hymn XI.

- 1 Thanks be to God alone
 Who comforts the distrest!
 His faithful word I own,
 Which speaks the mourner blest:
A daughter of affliction, I
 On Jesus cast my care,
And for my native country sigh,
 And for my kindred there.

- 2 My company is gone
 Over the stream before,
 And lo! I hasten on
 To yon eternal shore:
That happy sharer of my heart
 I there again shall find,
Where time and death can never part
 The souls in Jesus join'd.

- 3 I quickly shall o'ertake
 My dear departed friend,
 Receiv'd for Jesus' sake
 To joys that never end:
Ev'n now I taste the blessed hope
 Thro' Jesu's passion given,
It swallows all my sorrows up,
 And turns this earth to heaven.

- 4 Whom next to God I love,
 He beckons me away,
 To solemnize above
 Our second bridal-day:
I come, my longing soul replies,
 To Jesu's arms I come,
And force my passage to the skies,
 And fly triumphant home.

CLI.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn XII.

- 1 Rise, my soul, the dawn appears
 Of that eternal day!
Quit in hope the vale of tears,
 And mount, and soar away!
Darting thro' this lower air,
 Quick as a seraphic flame,
Rise, the marriage-feast to share,
 The marriage of the Lamb.
- 2 In the wedding-garb of love
 By heavenly pity drest,
I shall soon sit down above
 At that celestial feast;
To my elder brethren join'd,
 I shall there my partner see,
In the arms of Jesus find
 The soul that twinn'd with me.
- 3 There we shall with transport meet,
 And see our Saviour's face,
Moses', Jesu's song repeat,
 In extasy of praise:

Bright as his our bodies are,
Like the head the members shine,
All our open foreheads bear
The glorious stamp divine.

- 4 With the high and lofty one
We dwell in bliss supreme,
Share the pleasures of his throne,
And taste the chrystal stream,
Banquet on angelic food,
Father, Son, and Spirit know,
Drink the joys that flow from God,
And shall forever flow.

CLII.
[Hymns for Widows.]
Hymn XIII.

- 1 All worship and praise
Are Jesus's due,
So plenteous in grace
So faithful and true!
In great tribulation
His fulness I prove,
His strength of salvation,
His riches of love.
- 2 As sorrowful I,
Yet always rejoice,
My Lord is so nigh,
So charming his voice:
He whispers, and fills me
With comfort and peace,
And keeps, 'till he seals me
Eternally his.

3 Afflicted, and griev'd,
Forlorn, and distrest,
He kindly receiv'd,
And lull'd me to rest:
He will not forsake me,
My heavenly head,
But tarry, and make me
A widow indeed.

4 Betroth'd to the Son
Of God, I abide,
'Till Jesus come down
And challenge his bride,
To all his salvation
With triumph receive,
In full consummation
Of glory to live.

CLIII.
[Hymns for Widows.]
Hymn XIV.

1 Rest, my troubled spirit, rest,
So long with tempests tost!
God hath caught him to his breast,
Hath found whom I have lost;
Lost as for a moment's space,
'Till I after him repair,
To that happy, happy place,
And claim my husband there.

2 Can a true believer doubt
If souls each other know?
Surely I shall find him out
Whom most I priz'd below:
Later, but at last, remov'd
I shall then my wish obtain,
Meet him with my best-belov'd,
And never part again.

- 3 Happy both, no matter then
Which of us went before,
Both at Jesus' side are seen,
And live to die no more,
Both our golden harps employ,
Vocal with our Saviour's name,
Both the blissful sight enjoy,
The presence of the Lamb.
- 4 Who can tell the solid bliss
Which in this hope I prove!
We shall see him as he is
The glorious God of love,
We shall sink with all his host;
All that know th' atoning blood,
Sink, o'erwhelm'd, o'erpower'd, and lost,
And swallow'd up in God.

CLIV.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn XV.

- 1 Who is this, that now comes up
Out of the wilderness,
Leaning on her strength, her hope,
Her darling Prince of Peace!
On her Lord, and well-belov'd
Sweetly she delights to rest:
Never shall she be remov'd,
Who leans on Jesus' breast.
- 2 See that happy soul in me
By faith on Christ reclin'd!
Rest from all my misery
In Jesus' love I find:
I a desolate mourner was,
Wandered earth's wide desert o'er,
'Till I found him on the cross,
And now I weep no more.

3 Me he call'd, a woman griev'd,
A wife in youth forsook,
Kindly all my wants reliev'd,
And all my burthens took:
Me he call'd his love, his bride,
"See, thine heavenly husband see,
I am by my Father's side,
And thou shalt sit by me."

4 True, and faithful is my Lord,
Infallible my hope,
Lo! I hang upon his word,
'Till Jesus take me up:
Come, his loving Spirit cries
Hastning on the joyful day,
Come, the longing bride replies,
My Jesus, come away!

CLV.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn XVI.

1 Come, ye real widows, come
All that seek your heavenly home,
All who now with griefs opprest,
Languish for eternal rest;
Cast away your anxious care,
For the nuptial day prepare,
Strong in hope's assurance rise,
Meet the Bridegroom in the skies.

2 Lo! He in the clouds descends,
Girt about with heavenly friends,
David's everlasting Son,
Sitting on his ivory throne!
See th' imperial banner spread,
Flaming with a crimson red,
To the well-known ensign flow,
To the cross ye bore below.

- 3 Where are Jesu's witnesses,
 Those who dar'd their Lord confess!
 Jesus knows, and calls them forth,
 Openly declares their worth,
 These my faithful servants were,
 Gloried my reproach to bear,
 Bearers of the bloody tree,
 Treated in the world like me.
- 4 These are they that own'd my name,
 Triumph'd in their Master's shame,
 Gladly counted all things loss,
 Nobly suffer'd for my cause:
 Scorn'd of all they kept my word,
 Fools and madmen for their Lord,
 Firm against a world they stood,
 Strove resisting unto blood.
- 5 Angels all, the men behold,
 Purchas'd and redeem'd of old,
 Once my confessors beneath,
 True, and faithful unto death!
 Cover'd o'er with glorious scars,
 Each the bleeding token bears,
 Each displays the shepherd's sign—
 Father, see! They all are mine!
- 6 Come, ye then, my servants dear,
 Find your happy mansions here,
 Come ye of my Father blest,
 Celebrate the marriage-feast,
 Take your infinite reward,
 From eternity prepar'd,
 All your heavenly joy receive,
 Kings with me forever live!

CLVI.
[Hymns for Widows.]
Hymn XVII.

- 1 Where shall I rest my weary head,
 Where shall I find assur'd relief?
Deserted at my greatest need,
 Consign'd to solitary grief,
No kind companion nigh, with whom
To weep, and wait 'till comfort come!

- 2 Mine eyes and heart's desire is gone,
 And now no more my burthen shares,
I mourn unpitied and alone,
 I bear my complement of cares,
I sink beneath th' unequal load,
I faint—into the arms of God.

- 3 His everlasting arms receive
 The mourner in her last distress,
He tells me, "I forever live,
 In me, thy Lord, thou shalt have peace,
Be of good cheer, my mourner thou,
Thy Maker is thy husband now."

- 4 I hear, I feel the balmy word,
 And turn again unto my rest,
I bless my all-sufficient Lord,
 I lean on my Redeemer's breast,
And smile at dissolution near,
And joyful drop the mended tear.

- 5 My mourning days shall quickly end,
 And time commence eternity,
My spotless soul shall soon ascend,
 And face to face its Saviour see,
While not one plaintive groan or sigh
Is heard in all the joyous sky.

[6] Amidst the storms of life I stand
Unshaken on the rock of peace,
'Till caught up to that heavenly land,
I see my Jesus as he is,
And sing, with all our glorious friends,
The marriage-song that never ends.

CLVII.

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn XVIII.

1 Jesus, my strength, my peace,
My refuge in distress,
Now incline thy gracious ear,
Now regard a mourner's call,
Now in my behalf appear,
Shew thyself my God, my all.

2 Thou only canst relieve
And comfort them that grieve:
Turn my misery into bliss,
Of my earthly all bereft
Bid me acquiesce in this,
Happy still, that God is left.

3 From all of woman born
May I to Jesus turn,
Fairer than the sons of men
Thee my happy all I see,
Fulness of delight obtain,
Happiness compleat in thee.

4 Of thee alone possest
I am, I must be blest,
Author, sum of my desires,
None but Christ thou hearst me cry,
None but Christ my heart requires,
None but Christ in earth or sky.

5 Above the reach of care
 My quiet spirit bear,
Bear me on thine eagle-wings
 To those happy realms above,
Where my old companion sings,
 High enthron'd in glorious love.

6 Nor would I him o'ertake,
 Or see but for thy sake:
Thou my vast, my sole reward,
 For thy only love I care,
Heaven is hell without my Lord,
 Hell is heaven, if thou art there!

CLVIII.

Hymn XIX.

On the Death of a Widow.

1 Give glory to Jesus our head,
 With all that incompass his throne!
A widow, a widow indeed,
 A mother in Israel is gone:
The winter of trouble is past,
 The storms of affliction are o'er,
Her struggle is ended at last,
 And sorrow and death are no more.

2 The soul hath o'ertaken her mate,
 And caught him again in the sky,
Advanc'd to her happy estate,
 And pleasure that never shall die,
Where glorified spirits by sight
 Converse in their holy abode,
As stars in the firmament bright,
 And pure as the angels of God.

- 3 Inflamm'd with seraphical love,
 Combin'd in a manner unknown,
 Not given in marriage above,
 Or given to Jesus alone,
 The just, who admitted by grace
 That first resurrection attain,
 With rapture each other embrace,
 And one with the deity reign.
- 4 O heaven! What a triumph is there,
 While all in his praises agree,
 His beautiful character bear,
 And shine with the glory they see!
 The glory of God and the Lamb
 (While all in the extasy join)
 Darts into their spiritual frame,
 And gives the enjoyment divine.
- 5 In loud hallelujahs they sing,
 And harmony ecchoes his praise,
 When lo! The celestial King
 Pours out the full light of his face!
 The joy neither angel nor saint
 Can bear so ineffably great,
 But see! The whole company faint,
 And heaven is found—at his feet!

Hymn XX.

On the Death of Mrs. Anne Jenkins.

- 1 Happy soul, enjoy thy gain,
 Thy greatest gain to die,
 From our vale of grief, and pain,
 Remov'd to worlds on high,

Thou the glorious fight hast won,
 Ended well the doubtful race,
 All th' allotted service done:
 Thy works shall speak thy praise.

- 2 Ever careful to abound
 In fruits of righteousness,
 Still thou labour'dst to be found
 In God's appointed ways,
 Walking on with Christ in white,
 Virtues thy companions were,
 Praise thy permanent delight,
 And all thy business prayer.
- 3 True to thy great Master thou,
 And zealous for his cause,
 Simply didst thy faith avow,
 And glory in his cross;
 By the loving Spirit led,⁵¹
 By the sayings of thy Lord,
 Thou in all his steps didst tread,
 And keep his written word.
- 4 Long the wily soothing foe
 Thy steady virtue tried,
 Vainly urg'd thee to forego,
 And cast the means aside,
 Worship more refin'd and pure,
 Still the silent tempter shew'd,
 Still thy foot stood fast and sure
 In the old paths of God.
- 5 Never once wast thou betray'd
 Into the serpent's snare,
 While he labour'd to dissuade
So much of praise and prayer:
 "Friend be still (he softly cried)
 Outward praise your God offends:"
 "Friends sing on (thy zeal replied)
 The song that never ends."

⁵¹Ori., "Spirit Spirit led"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6 Such thy fair example was,
 The same in life and death,
Love's sweet task, and prayer, and praise
 Imploy'd thy latest breath,
Prompt to succour the distrest,
 Glad the tempted soul to chear,
Pity mov'd thy dying breast,
 And dropp'd thy latest tear.
- 7 Thou in Jesu's words and ways
 Exhortedst us t' abide,
Witness of the perfect grace,
 And wholly sanctified:
All his promises fulfill'd,
 All his gifts to thee were given,
Pardon'd here, renew'd, and seal'd,
 And fully ripe for heaven.
- 8 Pure into the hands of God
 Thou didst thy soul resign,
Fitted for that high abode,
 And fellowship divine:
Oh! How sweet thy parting word,
 Last of all thou spak'st below,
"Keep me, keep me, dearest Lord,
 And never let me go!"

[Hymns for Widows.]

Hymn XXI.

- 1 Ye happy souls, no longer tost,
 Like us on life's tempestuous sea,
Who cannot now be shipwreck'd, lost,
 Safe-landed in eternity,
Are mortals banish'd from your mind,
Or think ye of your friends behind?

- 2 Releas'd from all your wants and cares,
 What commerce can ye have with men?
Ye need not now our useless prayers;
 Nor will we ask your succour vain,
One only Advocate we own,
And trust in Jesu's help alone.
- 3 Yet (for he bids us keep in view
 Your active faith, and patient hope)
As ye your Lord, we follow you,
 And wait for him to take us up,
Our closest fellowship t' improve,
Our fellowship with saints above.
- 4 'Till then we hold your memory dear,
 Which now relieves our drooping heart:
Like us ye mourn'd and suffer'd here,
 Like us ye languish'd to depart,
And labour'd on with painful strife,
And drag'd the heavy load of life.
- 5 The world cast out your name like ours,
 And counted you not fit to live:
Expos'd to all th' infernal powers,
 Ye dar'd your Master's lot receive,
Beneath his cross rejoic'd to bow,
And drank the cup we drink of now.
- 6 Tempted, detain'd in sore distress,
 With all our fiery trials tried,
Lost in this howling wilderness,
 Troubled, perplex'd on every side,
Ye pray'd—in groans at Jesu's stay,
And still complain'd—ye could not pray.
- 7 Ye felt the cruel tortu'ring fear
 Which now our soul asunder saws,
The doubt ye should not persevere,
 But scandalize the Saviour's cause,

Disgrace, and shame the friends of God,
And fall, and perish in your blood.

8 Men of like passions once ye were
 With us, who still ourselves bemoan;
This inbred sin ye groan'd to bear,
 And hop'd relief from death alone,
As death alone could purge the stain,
And Christ had shed his blood in vain.

9 But, oh! Your evil day is past,
 Accomplish'd is your warfare here,
And more than conquerors at last
 Our sad desponding hearts ye cheer,
Ye bid us still your steps pursue,
And we shall more than conquer too.

10 Encompast with so great a cloud
 Of witnesses, who speak tho' dead,
We cast aside our every load,
 And follow where our Lord hath led,
With patience run th' appointed race,
And die to see his glorious face.

CLXI.

The Marks of Faith.

[Hymn I.]

1 How can a sinner know
 His sins on earth forgiven?
How can my Saviour, shew
 My name inscrib'd in heaven?
What we ourselves have felt, and seen,
 With confidence we tell,
And publish to the sons of men
 The signs infallible.

- 2 We who in Christ believe
 That he for us hath died,
 His unknown peace receive,
 And feel his blood applied:
Exults for joy our rising soul,
 Disburthen'd of her load,
And swells, unutterably full
 Of glory, and of God.
- 3 His love, surpassing far
 The love of all beneath
 We find within, and dare
 The pointless darts of death:
Stronger than death, or sin, or hell
 The mystic power we prove,
And conquerors of the world we dwell
 In heaven, who dwell in love.
- 4 The pledge of future bliss
 He now to us imparts,
 His gracious Spirit is
 The earnest in our hearts:
We antedate the joys above,
 We taste th' eternal powers,
And know that all those heights of love,
 And all those heavens are ours.
- 5 'Till he our life reveal,
 We rest in Christ secure:
 His Spirit is the seal,
 Which made our pardon sure:
Our sins his blood hath blotted out,
 And sign'd our soul's release:
And can we of his favour doubt,
 Whose blood declares us his?
- 6 We by his Spirit prove,
 And know the things of God,

The things which of his love
He hath on us bestow'd:
Our God to us his Spirit gave,
And dwells in us, we know,
The witness in ourselves we have,
And all his fruits we shew.

7 The meek and lowly heart,
Which in our Saviour was,
He doth to us impart,
And signs us with his cross:
Our nature's course is turn'd, our mind
Transform'd in all its powers,
And both the witnesses are join'd,
The Spirit of God with ours.

8 Whate'er our pardning Lord
Commands, we gladly do,
And guided by his word,
We all his steps pursue:
His glory is our sole design,
We live our God to please,
And rise with filial fear divine
To perfect holiness.

[The Marks of Faith.]

Hymn II.

1 How shall a slave releast
From his oppressive chain
Distinguish ease, and rest
From weariness, and pain?
Can he his burthen borne away
Infallibly perceive?
Or I before the judgment-day
My pardon'd sin believe?

- 2 Redeem'd from all his woes,
 Out of his dungeon freed,
 Ask, how the prisoner knows
 That he is free indeed!
 How can he tell the gloom of night
 From the meridian blaze?
 Or I discern the glorious light,
 That streams from Jesu's face?
- 3⁵² The gasping patient lies
 In agony of pain!
 But see him light arise,
 Restor'd to health again!
 And doth he certainly receive,
 The knowledge of his cure!
 And am I conscious that I live?
 And is my pardon sure?
- 4 A wretch for years consign'd
 To hopeless misery,
 The happy change must find,
 From all his pain set free:
 And must not I the difference know
 Of joy, and anxious grief,
 Of grace, and sin, of weal, and woe,
 Of faith, and unbelief?
- 5 Yes, Lord, I now perceive,
 And bless thee for the grace,
 Thro' which redeem'd I live
 To see thy smiling face:
 Alive I am, who once was dead,
 And freely justified;
 I know thy blood for me was shed,
 I feel it now applied.
- 6 By sin no longer bound,
 The prisoner is set free,
 The lost again is found
 In paradise, in thee:

⁵²John Wesley crossed out this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

In darkness, chains, and death I was,
 But lo! To life restor'd,
 Into thy wondrous light I pass,
 The freeman of the Lord.

7 In comfort, power, and peace
 Thy favour, Lord, I prove,
 In faith, and joy's increase,
 And self-abasing love:
 Thou dost my pardon'd sin reveal,
 My life, and heart renew;
 The pledge, the witness, and the seal
 Confirm the record true.

8 The Spirit of my God
 Hath certified him mine,
 And all the tokens shew'd
 Infallible, divine:
 Hereby the pardon'd sinner knows
 His sins on earth forgiven,
 And thus my faithful Saviour shews
 My name inscrib'd in heaven.

Hymn III.

1 Ah! Foolish world, forbear
 Thine unavailing pain,
 Nor needlessly declare
 Our hope, and labour vain:
 Tell us no more, we cannot know
 On earth the heavenly powers,
 Or taste the glorious bliss below,
 Or feel, that God is ours.

2 So ignorant of God,
 In sin brought up, and born,

Ye fools, be not so proud,
Suspend your idle scorn:
For us who have receiv'd our sight
Ye fain would judges be,
And make us think, there is no light,
Because you cannot see.

3 The same in your esteem,
 Falshood and truth ye join,
 The wild pretender's dream,
 And real work divine:
Between the substance, and the shew
No difference you can find,
For colours all, full well we know,
Are equal to the blind.

4 Wherefore from us depart,
 And to each other tell
 "We cannot on our heart
 The written pardon feel:"
A stranger to the living bread
Ye may beguile, and cheat,
But us you never can persuade,
That honey is not sweet.

CLXIV.
[The Marks of Faith.]
Hymn IV.

1 Who of the great, or wise
 Hath our report believ'd!
Alas! They close their eyes,
 Nor will be undeceiv'd:
The world cry out, in needless fright,
"Your rash attempt forbear
To lift us to presumption's height
Or plunge us in despair.

- 2 “Whoever seek to know
 Their sins on earth forgiven
 Or sink in hopeless woe,
 Or rise to madness driven.”
They safely chuse the middle way,
 Aware of each extream,
The only prudent men are they,
 And wisdom dies with them.
- 3 The sayings of our Lord
 Their folly dares despise,
 Above the written word,
 To their own ruin, wise:
The written word, by which we steer
 From all mistake secure,
It bids us make our calling here
 And our election sure.
- 4 It bids the weary come,
 And find in Christ their rest,
 Invites the wanderer home
 To his Redeemer’s breast;
It stirs us up to knock, and pray,
 And seek the pardning God,
'Till Jesus take our sins away,
 And wash us in his blood.
- 5 It proffers happiness
 To all who dare believe,
 And promises a peace,
 Which man can never give;
With full assurance of belief
 Commands us to draw near,
And taste the joy that casts out grief,
 The love that casts out fear.
- 6 Water of life divine
 It bids us freely take,
 And mystic milk and wine
 For Jesu’s only sake:

The Holy Ghost, the Comforter
To all who ask is given,
That seal of our salvation here,
That antepast of heaven.

7 But still the world refuse
 An heaven begun below,
 And vainly fear t' abuse
 The grace they never know:
The grace their pride will not receive
 They impiously deny,
And in their sins securely live,
 And desperately die.

CLXV.
[The Marks of Faith.]
Hymn V.

1 Yet hear, ye souls that cleave
 To earth and misery,
 The joyful news receive,
 And yield to be set free;
Redeem'd from pride, and guilty shame,
 The grace of Jesus prove,
The virtue of your Saviour's name,
 The humbling power of love.

2 His blood by faith applied
 Shall wash you white as snow,
 And all the justified
 Themselves and Jesus know:
Who honour God, themselves despise
 With deep humility,
And none so vile in their own eyes
 As those that Jesus see.

3 He never will insnare,
 Or by his gifts destroy

The objects of his care,
The vessels of his joy:
His mercy shall with lowly fear
Your faithful souls abase,
And make you in the dust revere
The pardning God of grace.

4 His truth, and love, and power
Shall his own gifts maintain;
But may ye not implore
The Saviour's grace in vain?
What if ye seek, and never find
The pardon in his blood?—
What if the Saviour of mankind
Be neither just, nor good!—

5 Hath he not spoke the word,
“Who ask shall all receive!”
Believe our faithful Lord,
Ye abject souls believe!
The hellish doubt reject, disclaim,
And on our God rely,
Our God continues still the same,
Nor can himself deny.

6 We now affix our seal
That God is good, and true,
His faithful love we feel,
And ye may feel it too:
We know, ye all the grace may take,
Ye all the truth may prove,
And twice ten thousand souls we stake
On Jesu's faithful love.

CLXVI.
For the Fear of God.

- 1 God of all grace, and majesty,
Supremely great, and good,
If I have favour found with thee,
Thro' the atoning blood;
The guard of all thy mercies give,
And to my pardon join
A fear, lest I should ever grieve
The gracious Spirit divine.
- 2 If mercy is indeed with thee,
May I obedient prove,
Nor e'er abuse my liberty,
Or sin against thy love:
This choicest fruit of faith bestow
On a poor sojourner,
And let me pass my days below
In humbleness and fear.
- 3 Rather I would in darkness mourn
The absence of thy peace,
Than e'er by light irreverence turn
Thy grace to wantonness:
Rather I would in painful awe
Beneath thine anger move,
Than e'er reject the gospel-law
Of liberty and love.
- 4 But oh! Thou wouldst not have me live
In bondage, grief, and pain,
Thou dost not take delight to grieve
The helpless sons of men:
Thy will is my salvation, Lord,
And let it now take place,
And let me tremble at thy word
Of reconciling grace.

5 Still may I walk as in thy sight,
My strict observer see,
And thou by reverent love unite
My child-like heart to thee.
Still let me, 'till my days are past,
At Jesu's feet abide,
So shall he lift me up at last,
And seat me by his side.

CLXVII.
For a Tender Conscience.⁵³

1 Almighty God of truth and love,
In me thy power exert,
The mountain from my soul remove,
The hardness from my heart:
My most obdurate heart subdue,
In honour of thy Son,
And now the gracious wonder shew,
And take away the stone.

2 I want a principle within,
Of jealous, godly fear,
A sensibility of sin,
A pain to feel it near:
I want the first approach to feel
Of pride, or fond desire,
To catch the wandrings of my will,
And quench the kindling fire.

3 From thee that I no more may part,
No more thy goodness grieve,
The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience give,
Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God, my conscience make:

⁵³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 2–4.

Awake my soul, when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

- 4 If to the right, or left I stray,
That moment, Lord, reprove,
And let me weep my life away
For having griev'd thy love:
Give me to feel an idle thought
As actual wickedness,
And mourn for the minutest fault
In exquisite distress.
- 5 O may the least omission pain
My well-instructed soul,
And drive me to the blood again,
Which makes the wounded whole:
More of this tender spirit, more
Of this affliction send,
And spread the moral sense all o'er,
'Till pain with life shall end.

CLXVIII.

“It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do.” Phil[ippians] ii. 13.
[Hymn I.]

- 1 Father, to thee my soul I lift,
My soul on thee depends,
Convinc'd, that every perfect gift
From thee alone descends.
Mercy and grace are thine alone,
And power and wisdom too,
Without the Spirit of thy Son
We nothing good can do.
- 2 We cannot speak one useful word,
One holy thought conceive,
Unless, in answer to our Lord,
Thyself the blessing give:

His blood demands the purchas'd grace,
His blood's availing plea
Obtain'd the help for all our race,
And sends it down to me.

- 3 Thou all our works in us hast wrought,
Our good is all divine,
The praise of every virtuous thought,
Or righteous work, is thine:
From thee, thro' Jesus, we receive
The power on thee to call,
In whom we are, and move, and live,
Our God is all in all.

CLXIX.

["It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do." Philipians ii. 13.]
Hymn II.

- 1 How empty then the former boast,
The impotence of pride,
When in ourselves we put our trust,
And on our works relied:
Strong in our liberty of will,
Our nature's noble powers,
We vow'd to scale the heavenly hill,
And seize the crown as ours.
- 2 The stress of our salvation, we
On human efforts laid:
Or if sometimes we mention'd thee,
And slightly ask'd thine aid,
Our own attempts, we thought, should gain
For us the glorious prize,
Our meritorious toil and pain
Should lift us to the skies.

- 3 Our own desires, tho' weak, sincere,
 Our own endeavours stood,
 T' atone for our transgressions here,
 In place of Jesu's blood.
 Alas for us! We knew not then
 His blood and righteousness,
 Thro' which alone the sons of men
 May all be sav'd, by grace.

CLXX.

["It is God which worketh in you both
 to will and to do." Philippians ii. 13.]

Hymn III.

- 1 But now, my gracious God, thy love
 Hath taught me better things:
 My all is given me from above,
 From thee salvation springs.
 Freely thy love delights to save,
 And ransoms without price;
 Mercy thou wilt on sinners have,
 And not our sacrifice.
- 2 Jesus for me the winepress trod,
 He paid our debt alone,
 He bought our pardon with his blood,
 And did for all atone.
 We nothing think, or speak, or do,
 Thy favour to procure:
 But when my heart believes thee true,
 The grace to me is sure.
- 3 'Tis not of him that wills or runs,
 That labours or desires:
 In answer to my Saviour's groans,
 Thy love my breast inspires:
 The meritorious cause I see,
 That precious blood divine,
 And I, since Jesus died for me,
 Shall live forever thine.

CLXXI.

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Pain.

- 1 Giver of life, and strength renew'd,
I bless thy balmy name,
Heal'd by the virtue of thy blood
My healer I proclaim.
Jesus, thou canst with equal ease
Pronounce my sins forgiven,
And bid me rise, and go in peace,
And bear my cross to heaven.

- 2 Thrown, as an useless vessel, by,
A lump of pain I lay,
My Saviour cast a pitying eye,
And mov'd his saints to pray:
The prayer of faith hath chas'd the pain,
Put all my grief to flight,
And rais'd my feeble flesh again,
And cloath'd my soul with might.

- 3 I now with all my brethren join
To double health restor'd,
I glory in the strength divine,
I glory in the Lord.
The strength thou dost thyself impart
I for thyself employ,
And give thee back a thankful heart
Which tastes thy gifts with joy.

- 4 Take all my heart, my thanks, my love;
But O! My friends repay,
Who brought the blessing from above,
And save them at that day.
Ten thousand, thousand blessings shower
On my companions dear,
And keep them by thy mercy's power,
'Till thou, our life, appear.

5 Happy, might I obtain the grace
 My happier friends to see,
 Adorn'd with robes of righteousness,
 And palms of victory!
 Happy might I with them be found,
 The meanest of the throng,
 And sing the glorious throne around
 Thine own eternal song!

CLXXII.

Thanksgiving for a Deliverance from Shipwreck.⁵⁴

1 All praise to the Lord,
 Who rules with a word
 The untractable sea,
 And limits its rage by his stedfast decree:
 Whose providence binds,
 Or releases the winds,
 And compels them again
 At his beck to put on the invisible chain.

2 Even now he hath heard
 Our cry, and appear'd
 On the face of the deep,
 And commanded the tempest its distance to keep:
 His piloting hand
 Hath brought us to land,
 And no longer distrest,
 We are joyful again in the haven to rest.

3 O that all men would raise
 His tribute of praise,
 His goodness declare,
 And thankfully sing of his fatherly care!
 With rapture approve
 His dealings of love,
 And the wonders proclaim
 Perform'd by the virtue of Jesus's name!

⁵⁴Charles records the deliverance reflected in this hymn in his MS Journal (October 10, 1748). The initial manuscript version of the hymn was included in his journal letter covering September 26–October 27, 1748.

4 Thro' Jesus alone
 He delivers his own,
 And a token doth send
 That his love shall direct us, and save to the end:
 With joy we embrace
 The pledge of his grace,
 In a moment outfly
 These storms of affliction, and land in the sky.

CLXXIII.

After Deliverance from Temptation.

1 Glory, honour, thanks, and praise
 To Jesu's conquering name!
 Scarcely sav'd I am by grace,
 Yet sav'd by grace I am;
 Pluck'd from the devourer's teeth,
 Lo! I lift my joyful eyes,
 From the gates of hell, and death
 To life eternal rise.

2 Yes, the lion is once more
 Defrauded of his prey,
 Though he thrust at me full sore,
 I am not fall'n away;
 Satan long'd my soul to seize,
 Would like wheat have sifted me,
 Jesus pray'd, and kept me his,
 And his I still shall be.

3 He from sin who saved me now,
 Is ready still to save:
 Jesus, at thy feet I bow,
 And strength in thee I have,
 Bless thee for my trials past,
 Trust thy constant aid to prove,
 All my care, my soul I cast
 On thy redeeming love.

- 4 Jesus, in thy saving name
 I stedfastly believe,
 All the help I humbly claim,
 Which thou art rais'd to give:
 Still into thy bosom take,
 O my Saviour, brother, friend,
 Love me for thy mercy's sake,
 And love me to the end.

CLXXIV.

After a Deliverance from Death by the Fall of an House.⁵⁵

- 1 Glory and thanks to God we give!
 Our sacred hairs are number'd all,
 Not one, we find, without his leave,
 Not one unto the ground can fall.
- 2 How blest whom Jesus calls his own,
 How quiet, and secure from harms!
 The adversary cast us down,
 The Saviour caught us in his arms.
- 3 'Twas Jesus check'd his straitned chain,
 And curb'd the malice of our foe,
 Allow'd to touch our flesh with pain,
 No farther could the murtherer go.
- 4 'Twas Jesus rais'd our bodies up,
 And stronger by our fall we stand;
 Our life is hid with Christ our hope,
 Hid in the hollow of his hand.
- 5 We rest in his protection here;
 But languish for the final day,
 When Christ shall in the clouds appear,
 And heaven and earth shall pass away.

⁵⁵A manuscript precursor for this hymn appears in MS Shent, 140a–140b. Charles records the incident that is behind this hymn in his MS Journal (14 March 1744).

- 6 The great archangel's trump shall sound,
(While twice ten thousand thunders roar)
Tear up the graves, and cleave the ground,
And make the greedy sea restore.
- 7 The greedy sea shall yield her dead,
The earth no more her slain conceal,
Sinners shall lift their guilty head,
And shrink to see a yawning hell.
- 8 But we who now our Lord confess,
And faithful to the end endure,
Shall stand in Jesu's righteousness,
Stand as the Rock of Ages sure.
- 9 We, while the stars from heaven shall fall,
And mountains are on mountains hurl'd,
Shall stand unmov'd amidst them all,
And smile to see a burning world.
- 10 See the celestial bodies roll
In spires of smoak beneath our feet!
They shrivel as a parchment scrawl!
The elements melt with fervent heat!
- 11 The earth and all the works therein
Dissolves by raging flames destroy'd,
While we survey the awful scene,
And mount above the fiery void.
- 12 By faith we now transcend the skies,
And on that ruin'd world look down,
By love above all height we rise,
And share the everlasting throne.

CLXXV.
Written in Going to Wakefield to Answer a Charge of Treason.⁵⁶

- 1 Jesu, in this hour be near,
On thy servant's side appear,
Call'd thine honour to maintain,
Help a feeble child of man.
- 2 Thou who at thy creature's bar,
Didst thy deity declare,
Now my mouth and wisdom be,
Witness for thyself in me.
- 3 Gladly before rulers brought,
Free from trouble as from thought,
Let me thee in them revere,
Own thine awful minister.
- 4 All of mine be cast aside,
Anger, fear, and guile, and pride,
Only give me from above,
Simple faith, and humble love.
- 5 Set my face, and fix my heart,
Now the promis'd power impart,
Meek, submissive, and resign'd
Arm me with thy constant mind.
- 6 Let me trample on the foe,
Conquering, and to conquer go,
'Till above his world I rise,
Judge th' accuser in the skies.

⁵⁶Charles records the incident that is behind this hymn in his MS Journal (March 15, 1744).

CLXXVI.
Afterwards.⁵⁷

- 1 Who that trusted in the Lord
 Was ever put to shame?
 Live, by heaven and earth ador'd,
 Thou all-victorious Lamb:
 Thou hast magnified thy power,
 Thou in my defence hast stood,
 Kept my soul in danger's hour,
 And arm'd me with thy blood.

- 2 Satan's slaves against me rose,
 And sought my life to slay;
 Thou hast baffled all my foes,
 And spoil'd them of their prey;
 Thou hast cast th' accuser down,
 Hast maintain'd thy servant's right,
 Made mine innocency known,
 And clear as noonday-light.

- 3 Evil to my charge they laid,
 And crimes I never knew;
 But my Lord the snare display'd,
 And drag'd the fiend to view;
 Glar'd his bold malicious lie!
 Satan, shew thine art again,
 Hunt the pretious life, and try,
 To take my soul in vain.

- 4 Thou, my great redeeming God,
 My Jesus still art near,
 Kept by thee, nor secret fraud,
 Nor open force I fear;
 Safe amidst the snares of death,
 Guarded by the King of kings,
 Glad to live, and die beneath
 The shadow of thy wings.

⁵⁷A manuscript copy of this hymn (with no variants) is present in the Methodist Archives Research Centre, The John Rylands University Library: DDCW 3/15.

[CLXXVII.]⁵⁸

“Seek ye first, the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.” Matt[hew] vi.⁵⁹ 33.

- 1 The earth is the Lord’s, and all it contains,
The truth of his words forever remains:
The saints have a mountain of blessings in him,
His grace is the fountain, his peace is the stream.
- 2 To him our request we now have made known,
Who sees what is best for each of his own:
Our heathenish care we cast it aside,
He heareth the prayer, and God shall provide.
- 3 The modest and meek this earth shall possess:
The kingdom who seek of Jesus’s grace,
That power of his Spirit shall joyfully own,
And all things inherit in virtue of one.
- 4 Whatever we need his bounty shall give,
And hallow the bread we daily receive;
We live by his blessing (that bread from above)
All fulness possessing in Jesus’s love.

[CLXXVIII.]

On a Journey.

- 1 Saviour, friend of lost mankind,
Now thy love we call to mind,
Us thou hast in mercy sought,
Us unto thyself hast brought.

⁵⁸Ori., “CLXXVIII”. Hymn CLXXVIII to Hymn CXCIV have also been corrected (error occurs in both editions).

⁵⁹Ori., “vii” (in both editions).

- 2 Long, too long we went astray,
Wanderers from the narrow way,
Down a broad destructive road,
Far from peace, and far from God.
- 3 We the paths of death pursued
With the thoughtless multitude,
Worldly good was all our aim,
Pleasure, power, and wealth, and fame.
- 4 But thy tender pity saw,
Stopp'd us by a sacred awe,
Us our fatal error shew'd,
Turn'd, and brought us back to God.
- 5 Walking in thy pleasant ways,
Humbly still we sue for grace,
Thy directing aid implore;
Never let us wander more:
- [6] Lest again we start aside,
Lord, be thou our constant guide,
Kindly take us by the hand,
Lead us to the promis'd land.

[CLXXIX.]

Another [On a Journey].

- 1 Come all, whoe'er have set
Your faces Sion-ward,
In Jesus let us meet,
And praise our common Lord,
In Jesus let us still walk on,
'Till all appear before his throne.

- 2 Nearer and nearer still
 We to our country come,
 To that celestial hill,
 The weary pilgrim's home,
The New Jerusalem above,
The seat of everlasting love.
- 3 The ransom'd sons of God
 All earthly things we scorn,
 And to our high abode
 With songs of praise return,
From strength to strength we still proceed,
With crowns of joy upon our head.
- 4 The peace and joy of faith
 We every moment feel,
 Redeem'd from sin, and wrath,
 And death, and earth, and hell,
We to our Father's house repair,
To meet our elder brother there.
- 5 Our brother, Saviour, head,
 Our all in all is he;
 And in his steps who tread,
 We soon his face shall see,
Shall see him with our glorious friends,
And then in heaven our journey ends.

[CLXXX.]

Another [On a Journey].

- 1 Come, let us anew
 Our journey pursue,
 With vigour arise,
And press to our permanent place in the skies.

2 Of heavenly birth,
 Tho' wandring on earth,
 This is not our place,
But strangers and pilgrims ourselves we confess.

3 At Jesus's call
 We gave up our all;
 And still we forego
For Jesus's sake our enjoyments below.

4 No longing we find
 For the country behind,
 But onward we move,
And still we are seeking a country above.

5 A country of joy
 Without any alloy,
 We thither repair,
Our heart, and our treasure already are there.

6 We march hand in hand
 To Immanuel's land;
 No matter what cheer
We meet with on earth; for eternity's near.

7 The rougher our way,
 The shorter our stay,
 The troubles that come
Shall come to our rescue, and hasten us home.

8 The fiercer the blast,
 The sooner 'tis past,
 The tempests that rise
Shall gloriously hurry our souls to the skies.

[CLXXXI.]
At the Baptism of Adults.⁶⁰

- 1 Come, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Honour the means injoin'd by thee,
Make good our apostolic boast,
And own thy glorious ministry.
- 2 We now thy promis'd presence claim,
Sent to disciple all mankind,
Sent to baptize into thy name:
We now thy promis'd presence find.
- 3 Father in these reveal thy Son,
In these for whom we seek thy face,
The hidden mystery make known,
The inward, pure, baptizing grace.
- 4 Jesu, with us thou always art,
Effectuate now the sacred sign,
The gift unspeakable impart,
And bless thine ordinance divine.
- 5 Eternal Spirit, descend from high,
Baptizer of our spirits thou,
The sacramental seal apply,
And witness with the water now.
- 6 Oh! That the souls baptiz'd herein,
May now thy truth and mercy feel,
May rise, and wash away their sin—
Come, Holy Ghost, their pardon seal.

⁶⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 89; and MS Clarke, 102.

[CLXXXII.]

Another [At the Baptism of Adults].

- 1 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 In solemn power come down,
 Present with thy heavenly host
 Thine ordinance to crown:
 See a sinful worm of earth!
 Bless for her the laving flood,
 Plunge her by a second birth
 Into the depths of God.

- 2 Let the promis'd inward grace
 Accompany the sign,
 On her new-born soul impress
 The glorious name divine:
 Father, all thy love reveal,
 Jesus all thy mind impart,
 Holy Ghost, renew, and dwell
 Forever in her heart.

[CLXXXIII.]

Hymn for the Kingswood Colliers.⁶¹

- 1 Let all men rejoice by Jesus restor'd!
 We lift up our voice, and call him our Lord,
 His joy is to bless us, and free us from thrall,
 From all that oppress us he rescues us all.

- 2 Him prophet, and King, and priest we proclaim,
 We triumph, and sing of Jesus's name:
 Poor idiots he teaches to shew forth his praise,
 And tell of the riches of Jesus's grace.

⁶¹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 32–33.

- 3 No matter how dull the scholar whom he Takes into his school, and gives him to see:
A wonderful fashion of teaching he hath,
And wise to salvation he makes us thro' faith.
- 4 The wayfaring men, tho' fools, shall not stray,
His method so plain, so easy his way:
The simplest believer his promise may prove,
And drink of the river of Jesus's love.
- 5 Poor outcasts of men whose souls were despised,
And left with disdain, by Jesus are prized;
His gracious creation in us he makes known,
And brings us salvation, and calls us his own.

[CLXXXIV.]

Another [Hymn for the Kingswood Colliers].⁶²

- 1 My brethren belov'd, your calling ye see:
In Jesus approv'd, no goodness have we:
No riches or merit, no wisdom or might,
But all things inherit thro' Jesus's right.
- 2 Our God would not have one reprobate die:
Who all men would save hath no man pass'd by:
His boundless compassion on sinners doth call;
He offers salvation thro' mercy to all.
- 3 Yet not many wise his summons obey;
And great ones despise so vulgar a way;
And strong ones will never their helplessness own,
Or stoop to find favour thro' mercy alone.

⁶²A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 33–35.

- 4 And therefore our God the outcasts hath chose,
His righteousness shew'd to heathen like us:
When wise ones rejected his offers of grace,
His goodness elected the foolish and base.
- 5 To baffle the wise, and noble, and strong,
He bad us arise, an impotent throng:
Poor ignorant wretches we gladly imbrace
A prophet that teaches salvation by grace.
- 6 The things that were not his mercy bids live;
His mercy unbought we freely receive,
His gracious compassion we thankfully prove,
And all our salvation ascribe to his love.

[CLXXXV.]

The Physician's Hymn.

- 1 Physician, friend of human-kind,
Whose pitying love is pleas'd to find
 A cure for every ill;
By thee rais'd up, by thee bestow'd
To do my fellow creatures good,
 I come to serve thy will.
- 2 I come, not like the sordid herd,
Who mad for honour, or reward,
 Abuse the healing art:
Nor thirst of praise, nor lust of gain,
But kind concern at human pain,
 And love constrains my heart.
- 3 On thee I fix my single eye,
Thee only seek to glorify,
 And make thy goodness known,
Resolv'd if thou my labours bless,
To give thee back my whole success,
 To praise my God alone.

- 4 The friendly properties that flow,
Thro' nature's various works, I know
The fountain whence they came,
And every plant, and every flower
Medicinal derives its power
From Jesus' balmy name.
- 5 Confiding in that name alone,
Jesus, I in thy work go on,
To tend thy sick and poor,
Dispenser of thy med'cines I;
But thou, the blessing must supply,
But thou must give the cure.
- 6 For this I humbly wait on thee;
The servant of thy servants see
Devoted to thy will,
Determin'd in thy steps to go,
And help the sickly sons of woe,
Who groan thy help to feel.
- 7 Afflicted by thy gracious hand,
They now may justly all demand
My instrumental care;
Thy patients, Lord, shall still be mine;
And to my weak attempts I join
My strong effectual prayer.
- 8 O while thou giv'st their bodies ease,
Convince them of their worst disease,
The sickness of the mind,
And let them groan by sin opprest,
'Till coming unto thee for rest,
Rest to their souls they find.
- 9 With these, and every sin-sick soul,
I come myself to be made whole,
And wait the sovereign word;
Thou canst, I know, thou dost forgive:

But let me without sinning live,
To perfect love restor'd.

- 10 Myself, alas, I cannot heal,
But thou shalt every seed expel
Of sin out of my heart,
Thine utmost saving health display,
And purge my inbred plague away,
And make me as thou art.
- 11 'Till then in thy blest hands I am,
And still in faith the grace I claim
To all believers given:
Perfect the cure in me begun,
And when my work on earth is done,
Receive me up to heaven.

[CLXXXVI.]

An Hymn for a Mother.

- 1 Father of all, whose sovereign will
Hath call'd thy servant to fulfil
The softer parent's part,
With gifts and graces from above,
With calmest care, and wisest love
Instruct my simple heart.
- 2 Oh! May I every moment see
The end for which alone to me
Thou hast my children given,
A blessed instrument divine
Thro' thee to make, and keep them thine,
And train them up for heaven.
- 3 My first concern their souls to rear,
And principled with godly fear

In virtue's paths to lead,
The hunger after thee t' excite,
And stir them up with all their might
To seek the living bread.

- 4 Be this dear Lord, my chief desire,
That every child may still aspire
To those pure joys above,
Lay up their heart and treasure there,
Content on earth with Mary's share,
And blest in Jesus' love.
- 5 If anxious here for their success,
A momentary happiness
I labour to secure,
How should it all my powers engage
Their never-failing heritage
Their endless bliss t' insure?
- 6 If for their bodies I provide,
And from the slightest suffering hide
The suckling on my knee,
Shall I by my neglect expose
Their dearer souls to fearful woes
Thro' all eternity?
- 7 Shall I the haughty wish instill,
Or give them up to their own will,
And every vain desire?
As kind the pagan parent was,
Who made his sons and daughters pass
To Molock thro' the fire.
- 8 Expos'd in this bleak wilderness
To pining want or sad distress
Could I my offspring see?
Could I the heavier burthen bear
To see them void of sacred care,
And lost for want of thee?

9 Thou, Lord, the fatal ill prevent,
 And guard whom thou to me hast lent,
 And guide them by thine eye;
 Convert—or to thyself receive,
 And let them to thy glory live,
 Or innocently die!

[CLXXXVII.]

For an Unconverted Child.

1 Thou God, that hearst the whisper'd prayer,
 Regard a mournful mother's care
 For her poor thoughtless son:
 Anxious, distrest, thou knowst I live,
 And still in secret places grieve
 For follies not my own.

2 Can I my own dear child forget,
 Or see without the last regret
 His wild disorder'd ways,
 His enmity to things divine,
 His league with hell, his feasts with swine,
 His total want of grace?

3 Son of my womb, to evil sold,
 Him I with streaming eyes behold
 Intirely dead to thee,
 Careless, secure on Tophet's brink,
 Ready with all his sins to sink
 Into eternity.

4 But will his desperate madness go
 Self doom'd to everlasting woe,
 Content, insensible?
 What heart can bear the dreadful thought!
 And have I into being brought,
 And borne a child for hell!

- 5 Forbid it, O most gracious God!
 With pity see him in his blood,
 For Jesus' sake alone,
 Regard my endless griefs and fears,
 Nor let the son of all these tears
 Be finally undone.
- 6 Fulfil at last my heart's desire,
 And pluck the brand out of the fire,
 And save him by thy grace,
 So shall I manifest thy name,
 With all I have, and all I am,
 Devoted to thy praise.
- 7 My son I will to thee restore,
 And anxious for the world no more,
 Cast all my care on thee,
 I and my house will serve the Lord,
 And wait, obedient to thy word,
 Thy glorious face to see.

[CLXXXVIII.]

The True Use of Musick.⁶³

- 1 Listed into the cause of sin,
 Why should a good be evil?
 Musick, alas! Too long has been
 Prest to obey the devil:
 Drunken, or lewd, or light the lay
 Flow'd to the soul's undoing,
 Widen'd, and strew'd with flowers the way
 Down to eternal ruin.
- 2 Who on the part of God will rise,
 Innocent sound recover,

⁶³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Occasional Hymns, 74–76. See as well the altered version in MS Miscellaneous Poems, 9–11.

Fly on the prey, and take the prize,
Plunder the carnal lover,
Strip him of every moving strain,
Every melting measure,
Musick in virtue's cause retain,
Rescue the holy pleasure?

3 Come let us try if Jesu's love
Will not as well inspire us:
This is the theme of those above,
This upon earth shall fire us.
Say, if your hearts are tun'd to sing,
Is there a subject greater?
Harmony all its strains may bring,
Jesus's name is sweeter.

4 Jesus the soul of musick is;
His is the noblest passion:
Jesus's name is joy and peace,
Happiness and salvation:
Jesus's name the dead can raise,
Shew us our sins forgiven,
Fill us with all the life of grace,
Carry us up to heaven.

5 Who hath a right like us to sing,
Us whom his mercy raises?
Merry our hearts, for Christ is King,
Chearful are all our faces:
Who of his love doth once partake
He evermore rejoices:
Melody in our hearts we make,
Melody with our voices.

6 He that a sprinkled conscience hath,
He that in God is merry,
Let him sing psalms, the Spirit saith,
Joyful, and never weary,

Offer the sacrifice of praise,
Hearty, and never ceasing,
Spiritual songs and anthems raise,
Honour, and thanks, and blessing.

- 7 Then let us in his praises join,
Triumph in his salvation,
Glory ascribe to love divine,
Worship, and adoration:
Heaven already is begun,
Open'd in each believer;
Only believe, and still sing on,
Heaven is ours forever.

[CLXXXIX.]

Another [The True Use of Musick].

“I will sing with the Spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.”
1 Cor[inthians] XIV. 15.

- 1 Jesus, thou soul of all our joys,
For whom we now lift up our voice,
And all our strength exert,
Vouchsafe the grace we humbly claim,
Compose into a thankful frame,
And tune thy people's heart.
- 2 While in the heavenly work we join,
Thy glory be our sole design,
Thy glory, not our own:
Still let us keep our end in view,
And still the pleasing task pursue,
To please our God alone.
- 3 The secret pride, the subtle sin
Oh! Let it never more steal in,
T' offend thy glorious eyes,

To desecrate our hallow'd strain,
And make our solemn service vain,
And mar our sacrifice.

4 To magnify thy awful name,
To spread the honours of the Lamb,
Let us our voices raise,
Our souls and bodies powers unite,
Regardless of our own delight,
And dead to human praise.

5 Still let us on our guard be found,
And watch against the power of sound,
With sacred jealousy;
Lest haply sense should damp our zeal,
And musick's charms bewitch and steal
Our heart away from thee.

6 That hurrying strife far off remove,
That noisy burst of selfish love,
Which swells the formal song;
The joy from out our heart arise,
And speak, and sparkle in our eyes,
And vibrate on our tongue.

7 Thee let us praise our common Lord,
And sweetly join with one accord,
Thy goodness to proclaim:
Jesus, thyself in us reveal,
And all our faculties shall feel
Thine harmonizing name.

8 With calmly reverential joy
We then shall all our lives employ
In setting forth thy love,
And raise in death our triumph higher,
And sing with all the heavenly choir
That endless song above.

[CXC.]
On His Birth-day.

- 1 Away with my fears!
 The glad morning appears,
 When an heir of salvation was born!
 From Jehovah I came,
 For his glory I am,
 And to him I with singing return.
- 2 No grievous alloy
 Shall diminish the joy
 I today from my Maker receive:
 'Tis my duty to praise
 His unspeakable grace,
 And exulting in Jesus to live.
- 3 Thy⁶⁴ Jesus alone
 The fountain I own
 Of my life and felicity here,
 And cheerfully sing
 My Redeemer and King,
 'Till his sign in the heavens appear.
- 4 With thanks I rejoice
 In thy fatherly choice
 Of my state and condition below;
 If of parents I came,
 Who honour'd thy name,
 'Twas thy wisdom appointed it so.
- 5 I sing of thy grace
 From my earliest days
 Ever near to allure, and defend:
 Hitherto thou hast been
 My preserver from sin,
 And I know thou wilt save to the end.

⁶⁴“Thy” changed to “Thee” in All in All (1761).

- 6 Oh! The infinite cares,
 And temptations, and snares
Thy hand hath conducted me thro'!
 Oh! The blessings bestow'd
 By a bountiful God,
 And the mercies eternally new!
- 7 What a mercy is this,
 What an heaven of bliss!
How unspeakably happy am I,
 Gather'd into the fold,
 With thy people inroll'd,
 With thy people to live, and to die!
- 8 How rich in the friends
 Thy providence sends
To help my infirmity on!
 What a number I see,
 Who could suffer for me,
 And ransom my life with their own!
- 9 Oh! The goodness of God
 Implying a clod
His tribute of glory to raise!
 His standard to bear,
 And with triumph declare
His unsearchable riches of grace!
- 10 Oh! The fathomless love,
 That has deign'd to approve,
And prosper the work of my hands!
 With my pastoral crook
 I went over the brook,
 And behold! I am spread into bands.
- 11 Who, I ask, in amaze,
 Hath begotten me these?
And inquire, from what quarter they came?

My full heart it replies
They are born from the skies,
And gives glory to God, and the Lamb.

12 All honour, and praise
To the Father of grace,
To the Spirit, and Son I return,
The business pursue
He hath made me to do,
And rejoice, that I ever was born.

13 In a rapture of joy
My life I employ,
The God of my life to proclaim:
'Tis worth living for this,
To administer bliss,
And salvation in Jesus's name.

14 My remnant of days
I spend in his praise
Who died the whole world to redeem;
Be they many, or few,
My days are his due,
And they all are devoted to him.

Hymns for Christian Friends.

[Hymn I.]⁶⁵

1 Friendship divine! Thy praise I sing,
Descendant of the heavenly King,
Thou fairest of th' angelic kind,
Thou copy of the perfect mind,
Indulg'd poor mortals from above,
To teach our hearts that God is love.

⁶⁵A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Friendship II, 1–3.

- 2 Thee, thine ally, the heav'n-born muse
Throughout this lower world pursues,
Thy lovely lineaments to trace,
And point thee to the fallen race,
If haply some thy charms may see,
And paradise regain'd in thee.
- 3 But who on earth with thee is blest,
And where doth sacred friendship rest?
Shall we to palaces repair?
Alas! Thy name alone is there,
Thou canst not dwell with polish'd art,
Or harbour in a selfish heart.
- 4 Thou never didst the wicked join,
Or cast thy pearls to worldly swine,
Howe'er they touch with lips prophane,
And take thy hallow'd name in vain:
Who will not to their Maker bend,
"Who fear no God can love no friend."
- 5 Seldom alas! Thy silken cord
Hath bound a subject to his lord:
For how can contraries be join'd,
An humble with an haughty mind,
Or two so different in degree,
Descend, arise, and meet in thee?
- 6 Falsely to thee the great pretend,
Not all their gold can buy a friend,
Who fancy thee their easy spoil,
Attracted by an high-born smile:
Thou wilt not yield thy treasures up,
To crown their impudence of hope.
- 7 Thee to procure how fond their boast!
The beggars cannot bear the cost:
Nor will the flatter'd worms submit
To lay their honour at thy feet,

Give up their life, to friendship's claim,
Or sacrifice their dearer fame.

- 8 Strangers to truth, how can it be,
That such should bear it all from thee?
And therefore banish'd from their sight,
Thou takst thine everlasting flight,
Nor stoopst again to souls so mean,
When pride has fixt the gulph between.
- 9 Far from the world thy calm retreat,
The needy rich, and vulgar great,
Who mourn their impotence of power,
And want relief amidst their store,
For thy support the wretches sigh,
And pine undone for love's supply.
- 10 Poor is the man by slaves ador'd,
Of kneeling worlds the friendless lord:
A thousand barter'd worlds t' obtain
The blessing of a friend, were gain;
Yet none the blessing can bestow,
But he who died to save his foe.
- 11 That happy man whom Jesus loves,
And with peculiar smiles approves,
On him the angel shall descend,
And God shall bless him with a friend,
To none but chosen vessels given,
Those highest favourites of heaven.

[Hymns for Christian Friends.]

Hymn II.⁶⁶

- 1 Foolish world, who canst not find
Friendship in a Christian mind!

⁶⁶A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Clarke, 172–74 (corresponding pages are torn from MS Cheshunt).

“Where the heart so many share,
No peculiar love is there:”
Idly doth thy malice rage,
Baffled by the sacred page,
Vainly would thy maxims prove
God incapable of love.

- 2 God of all-redeeming grace,
Hath he not his chosen race?
Dare ye hence his love deny,
Feign he pass'd one sinner by?
Some if he hath doubly blest,
Hath he therefore curs'd the rest?
No, like rain his blessings fall,
Loving is our God to all.
- 3 Taught of God, like him we love
All to whom his bowels move;
Pity, and good-will we find
To the whole of human kind:
But the saints, who walk in white,
These are all our soul's delight,
These we seek, in these we rest,
Most desire, and love the best.
- 4 Yet of these if God's decree
Single out a soul for me,
Give me to his tenderest care,
Bid him all my burthens bear,
Each for each if Jesus use,
Shall we dare the grace refuse?
Shall we not the blessing own,
Glad that all his will is done?
- 5 Is it not his will to join
Spirits in a bond divine,
Knit in friendship's closest tie,
Each with each to live and die?

Did he not inspire, approve
Jonathan and David's love?
Had not God his fav'rite one,
Jesus his beloved John?

6 Happy soul, above the rest!
Leaning on thy Saviour's breast,
Thou the dear disciple art,
Ever closest to his heart,
Thou dost all his secrets know,
Choicest of his friends below,
Call'd peculiarly to prove
Christ is God, and God is love!

7 Jesu, lover of mankind,
Grant me thy extensive mind,
Head of the believing race,
Give me thy peculiar grace,
Give it to my dearest friend,
Make him faithful to the end,
Root and 'stablish him in thee,
Save my other self, and me.

8 Let it in our souls be seen
Thy unbounded love to men,
Shew in us how good thou art,
Stamp thy image on our heart,
Call us out thy witnesses,
Bid us all thy life express,
All the happiness above,
All the heighth of Christian love.

Hymn III.⁶⁷

1 Father, at thy footstool see
Two⁶⁸ who now are one in thee,

⁶⁷A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Clarke, 175 (corresponding page is torn from MS Cheshunt).

⁶⁸Charles Wesley changed "Two" to "We" in All in All (1761), to render the hymn more general.

Draw us by thy grace alone,
Give, O give us to thy Son.

- 2 Jesus, friend of humankind,
Let us in thy name be join'd,
Each to each unite and bless,
Keep us still in perfect peace.
- 3 Heavenly, all-alluring Dove,
Shed thine over-shadowing love,
Love, the sealing grace impart,
Dwell within our single heart.
- 4 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Be to us what Adam lost,
Let us in thy image rise,
Give us back our paradise.
- 5 Made like the first happy pair,
Let us here thy nature share,
Holy, pure, and perfect be,
Transcript of the Trinity.
- 6 Foremost of created things,
Nearest the great King of kings,
Standing as at first we stood,
Made a little less than God!

[CXCIV.]
[Hymns for Christian Friends.]
Hymn IV.⁶⁹

- 1 Author of friendship's sacred tie,
Regard us with a gracious eye,
Two⁷⁰ souls whom thou hast join'd in one,
Join'd by the unction from above
In bonds of pure seraphic love,
United in thy love alone.

⁶⁹A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Clarke, 169–71 (corresponding pages are torn from MS Cheshunt).

⁷⁰Charles Wesley changed “Two” to “Our” in All in All (1761), to render the hymn more general.

Searcher of hearts unsearchable,
To thee, great God, we dare appeal,
 To thee we dare our cause commend;
Thou knowst our simpleness of heart,
And as thou didst the grace impart,
 O keep us, keep us to the end.

- 2 Our friendship sanctify, and guide,
Unmixt with selfishness, and pride,
 Thy glory be our single aim:
In all our intercourse below
Still let us in thy footsteps go,
 And never meet but in thy name.
Fix on thyself our single eye;
Oh! May we on thyself rely
 For all the help which each conveys,
The help as from thy hands receive,
And still to thee all glory give,
 All thanks, all might, all love, all praise.

- 3 Whate'er thou dost on one bestow,
Let each the doubled blessing know,
 Let each the common burthen bear,
In comforts, and in griefs agree,
And wrestle for his friend with thee
 In all th' omnipotence of prayer.
Our mutual prayer accept, and seal,
In both thy glorious self reveal,
 Both with the fire of love baptize;
Thy kingdom in our souls restore,
And keep, 'till we can sin no more,
 'Till both in all thy image rise.

- 4 Witnesses of th' all-cleansing blood,
Long may we work the works of God,
 And do thy will like those above,
Together spread the gospel-sound,
And scatter peace on all around,
 And joy, and happiness, and love.

True yoke-fellows, by love compell'd
To labour in the gospel-field,
Our all let us delight to spend
In gathering in thy lambs and sheep,
Assur'd that thou our souls wilt⁷¹ keep,
Wilt⁷² keep us faithful to the end.

5 And if it be thy sovereign will,
Jesus, our heart's desire fulfil,
Thou knowst, dear Lord, what we would say:
To thee the matter we submit,
But if thy wisdom deems it fit,
Oh! Call us both at once away.
Let both at once the summons hear,
And bless the welcome messenger,
The angel of thy latest grace:
Let both at once our souls resign
Into those gracious hands of thine,
And see at once thy glorious face.

6 In thee together let us die,
Together mount above the sky,
Smooth-wafted on the angel's wings,
Together take the starry crown,
And sit with thee triumphant down,
Assessors of the King of kings;
Together on thy fulness feast,
In thee, and in each other blest,
The social joys of heaven improve,
Sing the new song which ne'er shall end,
And jointly in thy praises spend
An everlasting age of love.

⁷¹Charles Wesley changed "wilt" to "will" in All in All (1761).

⁷²Charles Wesley changed "Wilt" to "Will" in All in All (1761).

[Hymns for Christian Friends.]
Hymn V.

- 1 Father of lights, to thee I lift
 My humbly thankful heart and eyes,
 Giver of every perfect gift,
 Accept my grateful sacrifice;
 I own thy mercies never end:
 O God, I bless thee for my friend.

- 2 Thou only didst the gift bestow,
 Thou knowst it came unsought from thee:
 Thy will appointed him to go,
 And comfort one in misery,
 In all my griefs to claim his part,
 And bear me on his faithful heart.

- 3 Thou only didst our spirits join
 In bonds of everlasting love:
 I own, and bless the work divine,
 The work of thy descending Dove;
 From heaven he suddenly came down,
 And made our souls for ever one.

- 4 Hovering o'er both his wings he spread,
 And breath'd his love into our breast,
 The ground of heavenly friendship laid,
 And each to each he sweetly blest,
 He knit th' indissoluble tie,
 And with that soul I live, and die.

- 5 My first of comforts here below,
 My chief of all created good,
 Thro' him the grace I surely know
 On me, for Jesus' sake, bestow'd,
 Receive the blessing from above,
 And see my Lord's reflected love.

- 6 The God of love hath touch'd his breast,
And fill'd with softest sympathy,
With pity not to be exprest,
Pity for such a worm as me:
He loves me by myself abhor'd,
Loves in the bowels of my Lord.
- 7 Present in spirit, howe'er disjoin'd
In flesh, he carries me to God,
Supports my feebleness of mind,
And more than shares my nature's load,
He mentions me in all his prayers,
In faith's almighty arms he bears.
- 8 When weary oft I faint, and droop,
And Amalek prevails in fight,
My hands he, under God, lifts up,
And prays me strong in Jesu's might;
His prayer my sinking spirit stays,
And arms the minister of grace.
- 9 Snatch'd from ten thousand snares I prove
The power divine that set me free:
The channel of thy grace I love,
But give the glory all to thee:
Thou, Father, thou the work hast done;
Ador'd be thy great name alone.
- 10 I dare not, Lord, the gift refuse,
The gift, howe'er transfer'd, is thine:
If thou vouchsafe a worm to use,
I bless the ordinance divine,
And at thy hand the grace receive,
Which God, and only God, can give.

CXCVI.
[Hymns for Christian Friends.]
Hymn VI.⁷³

- 1 Fountain of good, from thee alone
 Our every gift and comfort flows,
 Whate'er we fondly call our own
 Thy freely streaming grace bestows,
 Thy blessings all thro' Christ descend,
 Our heavenly and eternal friend.

- 2 Meanest of all thy sons, on me,
 On me thou hast a gift bestow'd,
 Dearer than life, or liberty,
 And only less belov'd than God,
 I take the friend thy grace has given,
 And bless him, 'till we meet in heaven.

- 3 Thither he still points out my way,
 And arms my soul with mighty prayers,
 Stands by me in the evil day,
 And all my griefs and burthens bears,
 Blest minister of grace divine;
 But all the glory, Lord, is thine.

- 4 Thou only dost the power transfer,
 Thro' which a worm supports the weak,
 Thou only dost my spirit cheer
 By words which he receives to speak;
 Thy secret hand in all I see,
 And render all the praise to thee.

- 5 What tho' my every lucid hour,
 My every comfort here below,
 My all of hope, or peace, or power
 Thro' this, this only, channel flow,

⁷³A manuscript precursor of this hymn (in shorthand) appears in MS Clarke, 48.

The help which on our earth is done
Thou dost it, Lord, and thou alone.

- 6 Thou didst at first the grace impart,
The tender charity divine,
Will'd him to bear me on his heart,
And love me with a love like thine,
Pure heavenly love, on earth unknown,
A stream that issues from thy throne.
- 7 And can I, dearest Lord, not love
A soul thyself in dear'st to me?
So like the blessed spirits above,
So restless to be all like thee,
So long desir'd, so late bestow'd,
So honour'd, and belov'd of God!
- 8 But (for I know my wretched heart
Would still thy noblest gifts abuse)
A second benefit impart,
And grant me grace thy grace to use,
From all the dross of nature free,
Give me to love that soul for thee.
- 9 O may I never, never seek
My own delight, my own applause,
Ready thy gifts to render back,
To nail my Isaac to the cross,
My all of comfort to resign,
And say, Thy will be done, not mine.
- 10 Refrain my soul, and keep it low,
Wean'd as a child from creature-good,
Thee, only thee, resolv'd to know,
My Jesus, and thy sprinkled blood:
All other comforts I disdain,
And more than all in thee I gain.

- 11 What are thy gifts, compar'd to thee!
 A beam from that bright-shining sun,
 A drop from that unfathom'd sea!
 Fountain of life, and love unknown,
 Into thy depths, O God, I fall:
 O God, thou art mine all in all.

CXCVII.

[Hymns for Christian Friends.]

Hymn VII.⁷⁴

- 1 See, Jesu, see that much lov'd soul,
 For whom thy pretious life was given,
 Hasten to renew, and make him whole,
 And fill him now with all thy heaven.
- 2 Now, Saviour, now (if after God
 I ask) the second gift impart,
 And shed thy glorious love abroad,
 And give him the pure sinless⁷⁵ heart.
- 3⁷⁶ Remove the stumbling-block within,
 The possible offence remove,
 Say to his soul, "Thou canst not sin,
 Forever sav'd by perfect love."
- 4 Answer on him thine own request,
 Answer in us thy Spirit's groan,
 Speak him into thy people's rest,
 And tell his inmost soul 'tis done!
- 5 When inbred sin is all destroy'd,
 Long let him here thy witness live,
 In love's angelic task employ'd,
 And free what he receives to give.

⁷⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 77–78; MS Clarke, 85–87; and MS Shent, 146a–146b.

⁷⁵John Wesley substituted "spotless" for "sinless" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁷⁶John Wesley crossed out this stanza in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6 Greatest of all O let him be,
 And ever in thy footsteps go,
 And gladly minister to thee,
 A servant of thy church below.
- 7 Let him thro' thine almighty name
 A father in our Israel rise,
 Cherish the followers of the Lamb,
 And nurse them 'till they reach the skies.
- 8 Thus may he still his faith approve,
 And make the lambs his tenderest care,
 The little ones that lisp thy love
 Delighted in his arms to bear.
- 9 Jesu, fulfil his heart's desire,
 And gather in thy lambs and sheep,
 Bid them into thy fold retire,
 And far from sin and danger keep.
- 10 Far from the world a place provide,
 Ev'n in this howling wilderness,
 And in thy sanctuary hide
 The vessels of thy perfect grace.
- 11 Who the good fight of faith have fought,
 And found the love that casts out⁷⁷ fear,
 Within the sacred verge be brought,
 And rest from all their labours here.
- 12 In answer to thy Spirit's prayer
 Now let the polish'd pillars rise,
 Firm as the throne of God, and bear
 Thy glorious temple to the skies.

⁷⁷Ori., "our"; corrected in 2nd edn (1756).

CXCVIII.
[Hymns for Christian Friends.]
Hymn VIII.⁷⁸

- 1 O thou whose special grace
 Did kindly condescend
 Of all the chosen race
 To single out a friend,
 To shower on him above the rest,
 Thy richest favours down,
 And press him closest to thy breast
 Thy best-beloved John!
- 2 I lift my heart to thee,
 To thee, who knowst the whole,
 Its dearest amity
 For one distinguish'd soul:
 The soft unutterable love
 Wherewith I one embrace
 With gracious smiles behold, approve,
 And turn it to thy praise.
- 3 To thee, and thy great name
 My whole affection turn,
 And let the hallow'd flame
 For thy pure glory burn;
 From all idolatrous excess,
 From earthly dross refine,
 And on my simple heart impress
 The character divine.
- 4 No more may I provoke
 My God to jealousy,
 Or to thy creature look
 For what proceeds from thee:
 Fountain of life, and joy, and peace
 Thee may I always own,
 And find my total happiness,
 Laid up in God alone.

⁷⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 20–21; and MS Friendship II, 7–8.

5 My all of comfort here,
 Whoe'er the grace transmit,
 To thee may I refer,
 And worship at thy feet,
 From thee may I my partner take
 (That pretious loan of thine)
 And wait thy call to give him back,
 And bless the name divine.

6 On thee, my God, on thee
 Alone would I depend,
 And taste thy love, and see
 Thy image, in my friend,
 My bosom-friend at thy demand
 I promise to restore;
 But let us meet at thy right-hand,
 And praise thee evermore!

Hymn IX.⁷⁹

1 Jesus, with kindest pity see
 Two souls that would be one in thee,
 If now accepted in thy sight,
 Thou dost our upright hearts unite,
 Allow us, while on earth to prove,
 The noblest joys of heavenly love.

2 Before thy glorious eyes we spread
 The wish which doth from thee proceed,
 Our love from earthly dross refine,
 Holy, angelical, divine
 Thee let it its great author shew,
 And back to the pure fountain flow.

3 A drop of that unbounded sea
 O God, resorb it into thee,

⁷⁹Charles sent this hymn to Sarah Gwynne with a letter dated December 23, 1748. Other manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 1–2; and MS Friendship II, 9.

While both our souls with restless strife
 Spring up into eternal life,
 And lost in endless raptures prove
 Thy whole immensity of love.

- 4 A spark of that ethereal fire,
 Still let it to its source aspire,
 To thee in every wish return,
 Intensely for thy glory burn,
 With both our souls fly up to thee,
 And blaze thro' all eternity!

Hymn X.⁸⁰

- 1 My Jesus, my all,
 Thy name I confess,
 My freedom in thrall,
 My help in distress,
 Thy boundless compassion
 The cordial did send,
 The strong consolation
 Convey'd in a friend.
- 2 The hallow'd delight
 With thanks I receive,
 And give thee thy right,
 In praises I give:
 The bliss-giving power
 And glory be thine,
 The plentiful shower
 Of blessings is mine.
- 3 I now on the scale
 Of friendship arise,
 The kingdom assail,
 And press to the skies,

⁸⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 3–4; and MS Friendship II, 10–11.

To joys never ending
My comforts improve,
From earthly ascending
To heavenly love.

4 Thy goodness I taste,
Thy goodness proclaim,
And joyfully haste
To sup with the Lamb;
Together invited
Our Lord we pursue,
With vigour united
We fight our way thro'.

5 Caught up in the air
I soon shall ascend,
The kingdom to share
With thee and my friend,
(On earth, to each other,
In heaven, well known)
And I with my brother
Shall sit on thy throne.

Hymn XI.⁸¹

1 What shall I do my God to love,
Who pours his blessings from above,
And comforts without end!
Let all my grateful soul embrace
His rich inestimable grace
Vouchsaf'd me in a friend.

2 My former friend (forever dear, Forever mention'd with a tear)
Did long ago depart:

⁸¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 5–6; and MS Friendship II, 11–13.

On honour's fatal Gilboa
He vilely cast his shield away,
And broke my faithful heart.

3 But lo! When Jonathan was dead,
I found an Hushai in his stead,
Restorer of my peace,
A friend in all my conflicts tried,
Who never parted from my side,
Or left me in distress.

4 A minister of heavenly love,
In paths that tend to joys above
My shining pattern treads:
He meets me still in Jesu's name,
And back to him from whom he came,
My thankful spirit leads.

5 Friend of my soul, its griefs he shares,
Confirms my hands by mighty prayers,
And props my feeble knees;
On earth he helps me to look down,
And bids me seize with him the crown
Of life, and righteousness.

6 Oh! Might I rise by love restor'd,
And following him, as he his Lord,
These storms of care outfly,
This cloudy atmosphere transcend,
And claim, and grasp my happy friend
In purer worlds on high!

Hymn XII.⁸²

1 See, dearest Lord, thy servant see,
And graciously approve

⁸²Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 18–19; and MS Friendship II, 13–14.

My other self, and next to thee
The object of my love:
The love, wherewith my heart runs o'er,
I dare to thee present,
Thine all-indulging grace adore,
And bless thine instrument.

2 My gifts and comforts all, I know,
From thee alone descend;
Thou only couldst on me bestow
So true, and kind a friend.
Cast in one mould by art divine
Our blended souls agree,
And pair'd above our spirits join
In sacred harmony.

3 As sent, to bless me, from above
Thy creature I receive,
To turn my utmost strength of love
On him for whom I live;
To raise, and help my weakness on,
Th' angelic power is given,
He comes in human form sent down,
And guards my soul to heaven.

4 Thankful from thy blest hands I take
Th' inestimable loan,
And stand prepar'd to give him back,
To render thee thine own:
I dare not to thy creature cleave,
Thy creature, Lord, recall,
Thy glory still to thee I give,
That thou art all in all.

Hymn XIII.⁸³

- 1 Thou God of truth and love,
 We seek thy perfect way,
 Ready thy choice t' approve,
 Thy providence t' obey,
Enter into thy wise design,
And sweetly lose our will in thine.
- 2 Why hast thou cast our lot
 In the same age and place,
 Or why together brought
 To see each other's face,
To join with softest sympathy,
And mix our friendly souls in thee?
- 3 Didst thou not make us one,
 That both might one remain,
 Together travel on,
 And bear each other's pain,
'Till both thine utmost goodness prove,
And rise renew'd in perfect love.
- 4 Surely thou didst unite
 Our kindred spirits here,
 That both hereafter might
 Before thy throne appear,
Meet at the marriage of the Lamb,
And all thy glorious love proclaim.
- 5 Then let us ever bear
 The blessed end in view,
 And join with mutual care
 To fight our passage thro',

⁸³Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 7–8; and MS Friendship II, 14–16.

And kindly help each other on,
'Till both receive the starry crown.

6 O might thy Spirit seal
Our souls unto that day,
With all thy fulness fill,
And then transport away,
Away to our eternal rest,
Away to our Redeemer's breast.

7 There, only there we shall
Fulfil thy great design,
And in thy praise with all
Our elder brethren join,
And hymn in songs which never end
Our heavenly everlasting friend.

Hymn XIV.⁸⁴

1 Come, let us arise,
And press to the skies,
The summons obey,
My friend, my beloved, and hasten away!
The master of all
For our service doth call,
And deigns to approve
With smiles of acceptance our labour of love.

2 His burthen who bear,
We alone can declare
How easy his yoke,
While to love, and good works we each other provoke:
By word and by deed,
The bodies in need,
The souls to relieve,
And freely as Jesus hath given to give.

⁸⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 36–37; and MS Friendship II, 16–17.

3 Then let us attend
 Our heavenly friend,
 In his members distrest,
 With want, or affliction, or sickness opprest:
 The prisoner relieve,
 The stranger receive,
 Supply all their wants,
 And spend, and be spent in assisting his saints:

4 Thus while we bestow
 Our moments below,
 Ourselves we forsake,
 And refuge in Jesus's righteousness take:
 His passion alone
 The foundation we own,
 And pardon we claim,
 And eternal redemption in Jesus's name.

Hymn XV.⁸⁵

1 God of all good gifts the donor,
 God, whose mercies never end,
 Thee with lips and heart I honour,
 Bless thee for my darling friend,
 Thankful at thy hands receiving,
 Ever longing to fulfil
 All thy wise design in giving,
 All my Father's welcome will.

2 If for this th' uniting Spirit
 Hath on me his burthen laid,
 Give me joyfully to bear it,
 Him with all my prayers to aid:
 Fill my heart with supplication,
 Let in me thy bowels move,
 Softness of divine compassion,
 Tenderness of heavenly love.

⁸⁵Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 47–48; and MS Friendship II, 17–19.

- 3 Sanctify our mutual care,
More and more let it increase,
Strengthen us hereby to share
Every tempted soul's distress:
Stir us up to toil unceasing,
Lay on both the common load,
Make our love a general blessing,
Turn it all to Sion's good.
- 4 While with just peculiar kindness
We each other's souls embrace,
Save us from that doting blindness,
Fatal to our fallen race;
From the mean contracting passion
Keep us free, and unconfin'd,
Raise our generous inclination,
Fix our love on all mankind.
- 5 As a wide-extended river,
Let thy love our hearts o'erflow,
Purest love that lasts for ever,
Reaching every soul below;
Love that doth with free election
Some beyond the rest approve,
Bless us with thy whole affection,
Special, universal love.

Hymn XVI.⁸⁶

- 1 Author of the peace unknown,
Lover of my friend and me,
Who of twain hast made us one,
One preserve us still in thee,
All our heighthen'd blessings bless,
Crown our hopes with full success.

⁸⁶Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 32; and MS Friendship II, 19–20.

- 2 Center of our hopes thou art,
End of our enlarg'd desires:
Stamp thine image on our heart,
Fill us now with holy fires,
Cemented by love divine,
Seal our souls for ever thine.
- 3 All our works in thee be wrought,
Level'd at one common aim,
Every word, and every thought
Purge in the refining flame,
Lead us thro' the paths of peace
On to perfect holiness.
- 4 Let us both⁸⁷ together rise,
To thy glorious life restor'd,
Here regain our paradise,
Here prepare to meet our Lord,
Here enjoy the earnest given,
Travel hand in hand to heaven.

Hymn XVII.⁸⁸

- 1 How happy the pair,
Whom Jesus unites
In friendship to share
Angelic delights,
Whose chaste conversation
Is coupled with fear,
Whose sure⁸⁹ expectation
Is holiness here!
- 2 My Jesus, my Lord,
Thy grace I commend
So kind to afford
My weakness a friend!

⁸⁷Charles Wesley changed “both” to “all” in All in All (1761), to render the hymn more general.

⁸⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 49–50; and MS Friendship II, 20–22.

⁸⁹Ori., “sore”; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

Thy only good-pleasure
On me hath bestow'd
An heavenly treasure,
A servant of God.

3 Appointed by thee,
We meet in thy name,
And meekly agree
To follow the Lamb,
To track thy example,
The world to disdain,
And constantly trample
On pleasure and pain.

4 Rejoicing in hope
We humbly go on,
And daily take up
The pledge of our crown,
In doing and bearing
The will of our Lord,
We still are preparing
To meet our reward.

5 The heavenly prize
Is ever in view,
'Till both shall arise,
Created anew;
That first resurrection
We pant to attain,
Go on to perfection,
And suffer to reign.

6 O Jesus, appear,
No longer delay
To sanctify here,
And bear us away:
The end of our meeting
On earth let us see,
Triumphantly sitting
In glory with thee.

Hymn XVIII.⁹⁰

- 1 Holy sanctifying Dove,
 God of truth, and God of love,
 On my feeble soul descend,
 On my dearest earthly friend.
 Come, and all our wants supply,
 Now the pardon'd sanctify,
 Now our little faith increase,
 Fill us now with perfect peace.

- 2 Lead us thou our constant guide,
 Witness in our hearts abide,
 Earnest of the joys to come,
 Make our souls thy glorious home:
 Every pretious promise seal,
 All the depths of God reveal,
 Keep us to that happy day,
 Bear us on thy wings away.

- 3 If thou didst the grace impart,
 Mad'st us of one mind and heart,
 Still our friendly souls unite
 Partners in the realms of light;
 Let us there together soar,
 Quickly meet to part no more,
 There our ravish'd spirits join,
 Mingled, lost in love divine.

At Parting.

- 1 Lord, we thy will obey,
 And in thy pleasure rest,

⁹¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 16–17; and MS Friendship II, 23–24.

We, only we, can say
 Whate'er is, is best,
 Joyful to meet, and glad to part,
 Assur'd we still are one in heart.

2 Hereby we sweetly know
 Our love proceeds from thee,
 We let each other go,
 From every creature free,
 And cry, in answer to thy call,
 Thou art, O Christ, our all in all!

3 Our husband, brother, friend,
 Our Counsellor divine,
 Thy chosen ones depend
 On no support but thine;
 Our everlasting Comforter,
 We cannot want, if thou art here.

4 Still let us, dearest⁹² Lord,
 Sit loose to all below,
 And to thy love restor'd
 No other comfort know,
 Stand fast in glorious liberty,
 And live and die wrapt up in thee.

Hymn XX.⁹³

1 Thou heavenly love, from whom
 All holy passions come,
 Hear my faith's availing cry,
 Now the peaceful answer send,
 Author of the social tie,
 Giver of my bosom-friend.

⁹²John Wesley substituted "gracious" for "dearest" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

⁹³Charles sent this hymn to Sarah Gwynne with a letter dated August 9, 1748. Other manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 23–24; and MS Friendship II, 24–26.

- 2 My bosom-friend receive,
 Whom back to thee I give:
Strengthen'd by thy Spirit's power,
 Him I cheerfully resign,
Him I thankfully restore,
 Leave him in the arms divine.
- 3 Far from the soul remov'd,
 Whom next to thee I lov'd,
Still I bear him on my heart,
 To thy tenderest care commend:
With us both if now thou art,
 Be our everlasting friend.
- 4 With us thro' life abide,
 And to thy glory guide,
Give us, Lord, if not below,
 Give us soon to meet above,
All the dignity to know,
 All the heighth of heavenly love.
- 5 My longing soul prepare
 To meet my brother there;
Him to see at thy right-hand,
 Fair in loveliness divine,
With him in thy sight to stand,
 With him in thy praise to join.
- 6 For this immortal hope
 I freely give him up:
Only keep us to that day—
 Or if more I may request,
Let me first escape away,
 Let me find an earlier rest.
- 7 My residue of days
 Add to his lengthen'd race:
Or if mercy hath ordain'd
 Both at once should take our flight,

Let us suddenly ascend,
Now obtain the blissful sight.

- 8 Now; or whene'er thy will
 Shall call us to the hill:
Only give us hearts to pray
 'Till thine arms receive us home,
Come, Redeemer, come away,
 King of saints triumphant, come.

Hymn XXI.⁹⁴

- 1 Thou Son of God, whose flaming eyes,
 Mark every wish and thought that rise
 In this poor troubled heart,
 Disclose, drag out to open light
 All things displeasing in thy sight,
 And bid them all depart.
- 2 Wretched, and void of God, and blind,
 Wouldst thou that I should comfort find
 And ease in aught below?
 Or rather bear my utmost load,
 And shrink from every creature-good,
 And only Jesus know?
- 3 Spite of myself resolv'd t' obey,
 I tear the dear right-eye away,
 If it my Lord offend;
 I bow me to the will divine,
 My life, and more than life resign,
 I give thee back my friend.
- 4 Thy will be done, whate'er it be,
 Thy blessed will concerning me

⁹⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 11–12; and MS Friendship II, 26–27.

I awfully adore:
 If thou demand my only prop,
 I yield, I yield—to give him up,
 And see his face no more.

5 No more; 'till that thrice welcome day,
 When earth and heaven shall pass away
 Before thy glorious face:
 We then shall both to thee repair,
 And catch each other in the air,
 And fly to thy embrace.

6 For this I part with him below,
 Let us but meet above, and know
 Each other in the throng,
 Partake the heavenly bridal feast,
 And sing reclining on thy breast
 The Lamb's eternal song.

Hymn XXII.⁹⁵

1 Come the heavenly peace divine,
 Enter this sad heart of mine,
 Come the everlasting rest,
 Visit my companion's breast,
 Dwell within my other soul,
 Let our social joy be full.

2 Whom thy grace to me hath lent,
 Lord, I at thy throne present,
 Object of my tenderest care,
 Mention him in every prayer,
 Instant ask, that both may be
 One, for ever one, in thee.

⁹⁵Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 9–10; and MS Friendship II, 29–30.

- 3 What thou dost on one confer
 Let us both delight to share,
 Both the heighten'd blessing taste,
 Both to thy embraces haste,
 Sweetly on thy bosom prove
 All the pleasantness of love.
- 4 Let us thus with even pace⁹⁶
 Measure out our quiet days,
 Calmly thro' the valley glide,
 Led by our celestial guide,
 Lovely in our lives beneath,
 Not divided in our death.

Hymn XXIII.⁹⁷

- 1 Jesus, to thy preserving care
 My choicest blessing I commend,
 Receive, and in thy bosom bear
 The soul, whom thou hast made my friend.
- 2 My friend! By pitying grace bestow'd
 On me, a man of woe and strife,
 To lighten my severest load,
 And sooth the pain of irksome life.
- 3 My former desp'rate wound to heal,
 To draw the dire invenom'd dart,
 The sting of injur'd love expel,
 And drive the vipers from my heart.
- 4 Thou, Lord, by him, and thou alone
 Hast forc'd me to let go my pain,
 Hast chear'd thy long-forgotten son,
 And turn'd me to my rest again.

⁹⁶Ori., "with thine even pace"; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

⁹⁷Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 30–31; and MS Friendship II, 30–32.

- 5 Thro' him thou hast restor'd my hope,
(The hope my madness cast away)
Strangely reviv'd, and stir'd me up,
And forc'd my heart again to pray.
- 6 And can I the dear soul forget
The choicest instrument divine,
And not my instant suit repeat
That all his heart may still be thine.
- 7 Must I from him so much receive
(To thee ascribing all the praise)
Yet want the blessedness to give,
To minister thy heavenly grace.
- 8 O that I might his burthen bear,
Imploy my all to do him good,
My utmost strength, my total care,
My life, my latest drop of blood!
- 9 If I may be so greatly blest,
Thy blessings to my friend to deal,
This moment breathe into his breast,
And fill him with celestial zeal.
- 10 Ten thousand blessings on his head!
Ten thousand goods in one impart,
Thy Spirit with thy love be shed,
And dwell forever in his heart.

Hymn XXIV.⁹⁸

- 1 Father of mercies hear,

In answer to this faithful prayer
Presented thro' thy Son:

⁹⁸Charles sent this hymn to Sarah Gwynne with a letter dated December 23, 1748. Other manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 25; and MS Friendship II, 32–33.

The friend, whom for his sake
 Thou hast on me bestow'd,
 Into thy arms, thy bosom take,
 And fill his soul with God.

2 Ev'n now his heart inspire
 With wisdom from above,
 And pure delight, and chaste desire,
 And everlasting love:
 Him of thy pardning grace
 This moment certify,
 And make him meet to see thy face,
 And reign above the sky.

3 Do for him, dearest⁹⁹ Lord,
 Above what I can say,
 And keep, to all thy love restor'd,
 His soul against that day!
 To him with glory crown'd
 The highest throne be given,
 But let me too in heaven be found,
 Found at his feet in heaven!

Hymn XXV.¹⁰⁰

1 O all-loving Lamb,
 I call on thy name,
 Thy grace for my drooping companion I claim:
 Whose burthen I bear,
 And wrestle in prayer,
 'Till all thy salvation to him thou declare.

2 Thou knowst his distress
 For the sense of thy grace,
 The permanent sight of thy heavenly face:

⁹⁹John Wesley substituted "gracious" for "dearest" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

¹⁰⁰Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 28–29; and MS Friendship II, 33–34.

His sorrow controul,
 Speak peace to his soul,
 And pronounce him accepted, and perfectly whole.

3 If sometimes he believes,
 And his Saviour receives,
 Yet again overwhelm'd at thy absence he grieves:
 Allow his request,
 Forever to rest,
 Forever to lean on his Jesus's breast.

4 His suit is my own;
 Myself I bemoan,
 And doubly distress for the Comforter groan,
 'Till in us he reside,
 And we fully confide
 In the blood which we feel every moment applied.

5 O wouldst thou appear
 This moment to cheer
 Thy mourners, and banish our trouble and fear!
 In us, and in all
 For the blessing who call,
 The witness implant, and redeem from our fall.

6 Thy kingdom restore
 In the spirit of power,
 That prays, and exults, and gives thanks evermore;
 Thy nature make known,
 And perfect in one,
 And receive us as gods to a share of thy throne.

Hymn XXVI.¹⁰¹

1 O thou that on all
 The wretched dost call

¹⁰¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 40–41; and MS Friendship II, 35–36.

To come, and be happy in thee,
Thy promise make good,
And sprinkle with blood
The heart of my partner, and me.

2 The blessing we want
Thou art ready to grant,
More ready than we to request:
The guilty forgive,
The weary receive
In the arms of thy mercy to rest.

3 That taste of thy grace,
That glimpse of thy face
To thy sorrowing servants restore:
Now, Saviour, return,
And leave us to mourn,
And lament for thy absence no more.

4 Our Jesus appear
To thy followers here,
Who commune of thee, and are sad;
Thy Spirit afford
To unfold the good word,
And our hearts they again shall be glad.

5 The promise apply,
And whisper "'Tis I,
Who your sins and your sorrows have borne,
I have pacified God,
I have bought you with blood,
To your merciful owner return."

6 We come at thy call,
Thou Redeemer of all,
By the power of thy rising we rise,
Thro' a paradise led,
With joy on our head,
We return to our place in the skies.

Hymn XXVII.¹⁰²

- 1 Jesus, if from thee I find
 This sudden call to pray,
 Suffer not my feeble mind
 To cast the grace away:
 Lest I quickly faint, and droop
 Heartless, helpless, and alone,
 Stir my absent partner up,
 And bring him to the throne.
- 2 Wake in him the strong desire
 Which now for thee I feel,
 Touch our lips with hallow'd fire,
 Our breasts with heavenly zeal,
 Let us for thy glory pant,
 And follow on thy face to see,
 Always pray, and never faint,
 'Till both are lost in thee.
- 3 See us now, as side by side,
 Before thy mercy-seat:
 Let us feel thy blood applied,
 And kiss thy wounded feet,
 Let our tears incessant flow,
 'Till both the height of mercy prove,
 'Till the length and breadth we know,
 And depth of perfect love.
- 4 O that both might soon arise
 By perfect love prepar'd,
 Meet the Bridegroom in the skies,
 And find our full reward!

¹⁰²Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 38–39; and MS Friendship II, 36–38.

Touching this we both agree
 To ask the Father in thy name,
 Father, make us meet to see
 The marriage of the Lamb.

- 5 Send the witness from above,
 The Spirit of thy Son,
 Seal of thy eternal love,
 And pledge of joys unknown,
 Let him in our hearts reside,
 'Till Jesus comes in person down:
 Jesus comes—to fetch his bride,
 And crown us with his crown.

Hymn XXVIII.¹⁰³

- 1 Great searcher of hearts,
 In our innermost parts
 Declare the whole counsel divine,
 Our evils remove,
 Our graces improve,
 And secure us eternally thine.
- 2 On me and my friend
 The Comforter send,
 The fountain of blessings unknown,
 On both let him flow,
 For we neither can know,
 Or inherit a blessing alone.
- 3 Yet, Lord, if it be
 Unpleasing to thee
 Our oneness of mind and of heart,
 We call for the sword,
 We acknowledge our Lord,
 And agree at thy bidding to part.

¹⁰³A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Friendship II, 38–39.

4 Thy favour to know,
 We each other forego,
 If our love be an hindrance to thine;
 Thy counsel we take,
 And each other forsake,
 To recover the friendship divine.

5 At Jesus's call
 We freely sell all
 The delights of reciprocal love;
 For that better hope
 We calmly give up,
 And reposit our treasure above.

6 Made perfect thro' woe,
 From our parting below
 To our last happy meeting we rise,
 Our friendship renew,
 (For who promis'd is true)
 And embrace evermore in the skies.

Hymn XXIX.¹⁰⁴

1 Jesus, Lord, whose only merit
 Can the dying sinner save,
 Let me render up my spirit,
 Quickly find my long-sought grave:
 Come in this thrice welcome hour,
 Thy sad captive to release,
 Snatch me from the adverse power,
 Change, and bid me die in peace.

2 Is there in this low creation
 That for which I wish to live?

¹⁰⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 13–14; and MS Friendship II, 40–41.

All my bliss and consolation
Would I not from thee receive?
Earthly joys I long to lose 'em,
Lest my Saviour I offend:
Let me sink into thy bosom,
Let me leave to thee my friend.

- 3 Him to the all-gracious lender
Lo! I cheerfully restore,
Thou, my God, be his defender,
'Till he follows me to shore:
Let him trust in thy protection,
Live from sin and sorrow free,
Place on thee his whole affection,
Rest his happy soul on thee.
- 4 Jesus, crown thine own desire,
Take the soul I thee bequeath,
His accept, and mine require,
Open now the gate of death,
Draw me thro' the bloody fountain,
Closing now my willing eyes,
Now escaping to the mountain,
Let me wake in paradise.

Hymn XXX.

- 1 Thou God, that hearst the prayer,
And dost in secret see,
I tell my softest care,
My closest grief to thee,
To thy divine compassion
I earnestly commend
My friend in tribulation,
My poor afflicted friend.

- 2 Thou seest him sore tormented,
 With fears and sorrows torn,
Afraid he ne'er repented,
 And griev'd for power to mourn;
Thou hearst him deeply groaning
 At thy severe delay,
And still himself bemoaning,
 He cannot, cannot pray.
- 3 In hellish toils o'ertaken,
 As at the point to die,
He seems of God forsaken,
 Nor knows that thou art nigh:
Throughout the dreary hour
 Thou dost thy servant hide;
But let him feel thy power,
 And know thee pacified.
- 4 Thou never wilt relinquish
 Thine own in time of need,
The smoaking flax extinguish,
 Or break the bruised reed:
The bowels of my Saviour
 Toward all the tempted move:
But manifest thy favour,
 But shew his heart thy love.
- 5 End, Lord, the fierce temptation,
 And bring him thro' the fire;
With joy and consolation
 His panting breast inspire,
Thy love's abiding witness,
 Thy pretious self impart,
And let him taste the sweetness
 Of Jesus in his heart.
- 6 By Jesus's dying merit,
 Father, I thee conjure

To help his fainting spirit,
And speak his pardon sure:
Or hear our friend before thee,
Thine interceding Son,
And shew us both thy glory,
And take us to thy throne.

Hymn XXXI.

In Danger of Losing His Friend.¹⁰⁵

- 1 Gracious, Lord, how long shall I
Tremble at thy comforts nigh,
Taste with fear my pleasant food,
Start from every creature-good?
- 2 Kept in awe by my own heart,
Lest thy gifts I still pervert,
Still thy holy things prophane,
Turn thy blessings into bane,
- 3 Never sure was heart like mine,
Heart so contrary to thine,
None so wholly lost as me,
Lost in vile idolatry.
- [4]¹⁰⁶ Thus I from my birth have been
Grace abusing into sin,
Poorer for the plenty given,
Wretched thro' the smiles of heaven.
- [5] But, my Lord, I cry to thee,
Must it thus forever be?
Must I still thy gifts abuse,
Lose them all, and more than lose?

¹⁰⁵The original manuscript version of this hymn can be found in Wesley's letter to Sarah Gwynne Jr., November 12, 1748.

¹⁰⁶Ori., "5." Next stanza: ori., "6." Error corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

- 6 Shall I force thee still to take
Thy perverted blessings back?
Blast with my infectious breath,
Doom my fondled joys to death?
- 7 Shall my most suspected love
Hurtful to its object prove,
Soon in double ruin end,
Fatal to my dearest friend!
- 8 Rather let my soul depart,
Stop the panting of my heart,
Speak again my sins forgiven,
Sweep me off—from earth to heaven!

Hymn XXXII.

- 1 Fluttering soul, what dost thou here,
Pinion'd with a load of clay?
Poor, afflicted sojourner,
Shake thy wings, and fly away,
From the mournful valley fly,
Break the cage, and reach the sky.
- 2 What doth this low earth afford
Worthy an immortal mind?
Man, its miserable lord,
Can he here his equal find?
Fallen, yet in ruins great,
Sinks the world beneath his weight.
- 3 All on earth is vanity,
This I surely feel and know,
Good itself is ill to me,
Seeming joy but real woe,

Comforts double my distress,
Edge the pain they cannot ease.

4 Friendship self, celestial guest,
Can she make me happy here?
Answer this distracted breast,
Answer this foreboding fear!
Fear to lose outweighs my gain,
Heighten'd bliss is heighten'd pain.

5 Oh! That all the pain were past,
Never, never to return!
Might I but escape at last,
Cease at once to live and mourn,
Grasp thro' death th' immortal prize,
Meet my friend in paradise.

Hymn XXXIII.

1 And must I give him up?
And doth the Lord recall
My only joy, my latest prop,
My friend, my earthly all!
I must—I will—comply
With Jesus' just demand,
I do pluck out the dear right-eye,
Cut off the dear right-hand.

2 Wherefore should I complain
In pining discontent,
If God requires his own again,
Resumes the good he lent?
The potter, sure, has power
Over the passive clay,
And whom my God bestow'd this hour,
My God may take away.

- 3 'Twas on these terms alone
 That first I call'd him mine,
And vow'd without a murm'ring groan
 The blessing to resign:
 And if my friend he claim,
 And hold me to my word,
I bless and magnify his name,
 And own him for my Lord.
- 4 The fatal blow I feel
 Of his almighty hand,
My grief commanded to conceal,
 I bow to his command.
 But thou hast not forbid
 My secret tears to flow,
And all my griefs, from mortals hid,
 Thou dost with pity know.
- 5 Of this assur'd I rest
 Thou wouldst not put to pain
(For me if anguish were not best)
 This helpless child of man;
 The griev'd thou wouldst not grieve,
 Increase the sufferer's load,
Me of so great a good bereave
 But for my greater good.
- 6 Or if, my faith to prove,
 Thou dost resume thine own,
Thou shalt by a strange turn of love
 Restore the rendred loan,
 The offering father's hand
 Shall drop the lifted knife,
And still thy merciful command
 Shall save my Isaac's life.

Hymn XXXIV.

- 1 Come my partner in the patience
 Of our once afflicted King,
 Out of all these tribulations
 Rise with me his praise to sing:
 For that happy day prepare,
 And when our desire comes down,
 Sure as now his cross we share,
 We shall then obtain his crown.

- 2 When our lovely Lord appears,
 Folding us in his embrace,
 He shall wipe away the tears,
 Kiss the sorrow from our face:
 Tho' we in continual mourning
 The short night of life employ,
 Joy shall come with Christ returning,
 Heavenly everlasting joy.

- 3 O what cordial consolation
 Doth this blessed hope afford!
 We shall gain his full salvation,
 We shall meet our smiling Lord:
 We shall soon appear before thee,
 Shall the stars and sun outshine,
 Shout among the sons of glory,
 All immortal, all divine.

- 4 Jesus, our exalted Jesus,
 Cloath'd in light, shall bow the sky,
 Shall from all our griefs release us,
 All our wants at once supply:

Grief, and curse, and death are over,
Pain and sin no more molest,
When we once the port recover,
Land on our Redeemer's breast.

- 5 Shall we there in plaintive passion
Our disastrous lot bewail,
There regret our separation
For a moment in the vale?
Or in Christ again united,
Heart to heart, and soul to soul,
Triumph each in each delighted,
While eternal ages roll?
- 6 For this hope display'd before us
Bear we now the destin'd cross,
Waiting, 'till our Lord restore us,
Amplly recompense our loss,
Crown our soul's supreme ambition,
Bid us hand in hand ascend,
Rapt into the blissful vision
Of our everlasting friend.

Hymn XXXV.

- 1 Away my needless fears,
And doubts no longer mine!
A ray of heavenly light appears,
A messenger divine:
Thrice comfortable hope
That calms my stormy breast,
My Father's hand prepares the cup,
And what he wills is best.

- 2 He knows whate'er I want,
 He sees my helplessness,
And always readier is to grant
 Than I to ask his grace:
 My fearful heart he reads,
 Secures my soul from harms,
And underneath his mercy spreads
 Its everlasting arms.
- 3 Here is firm footing, here,
 My soul, is solid rock,
To break the waves of grief and fear,
 And trouble's rudest shock:
 This only can sustain
 When earth and heaven remove:
O turn thee to thy rest again,
 Thy God's eternal love.
- 4 To God again I turn,
 And shelter in his breast,
His will (let me rejoice or mourn)
 His will is surely best:
 His skill infallible,
 His providential grace,
His power, and truth, that never fail,
 Shall order all my ways.
- 5 The random-blows of chance,
 The being I defy,
Whose life's minutest circumstance
 Is subject to his eye:
 He hears the ravens call;
 Nor can his children grieve,
Nor can a worthless sparrow fall
 Without my Father's leave.
- 6 Why then was I cast down,
 And troubled without cause,
And trembled at the creature's frown,
 And fear'd the threatned loss?

Shall I mistrust his care
 My blessings to defend,
 Or dread (who cannot lose an hair)
 To lose a bosom-friend?

7 If what I wish is good,
 And suits the will divine,
 By earth and hell in vain withstood,
 I know it shall be mine:
 Still let them counsel take
 To frustrate his decree,
 They cannot keep a blessing back
 By heaven design'd for me.

8 If what my soul requires
 Evil to me will prove,
 His love shall cross my fond desires,
 His kindly-jealous love:
 But would I for his sake
 With every rival part,
 My life, my all, my friend give back?
 He knows, he knows my heart.

9 Here then I doubt no more,
 But in his pleasure rest,
 Whose wisdom, love, and truth, and power,
 Engage to make me blest:
 T' accomplish his design
 The creatures all agree,
 And all the attributes divine
 Are now at work for me.

10 To know my final state
 I at his foot-stool bow,
 Who tells my soul THE HAND OF FATE
 IS ON THE CURTAIN NOW!
 His will the veil withdraws,
 And while I lift my eyes,
 Discovers there a glorious cross,
 And raps¹⁰⁷ me to the skies.

Hymn XXXVI.¹⁰⁸

- 1 Rais'd to-day above my sorrow,
 Happy now
 Shall I bow
 Burthen'd for to-morrow?
 Shall I anxiously forecasting
 Still destroy
 My own joy,
 Doubtful of its lasting?

- 2 Rather let me snatch th' occasion,
 In the friend
 God doth lend,
 Taste his consolation;
 (From his hands a glad receiver,)
 Taste in this
 Heavenly bliss,
 Bliss that lasts forever.

- 3 In the stream I drink the fountain,
 Drink, and haste
 To the feast
 On that holy mountain.
 With the wings of faith and prayer
 Fly we on
 To the throne,
 To the Saviour there.

- 4 There we fix our place of meeting,
 Gladly come
 To our home,
 Songs of praise repeating.

¹⁰⁸Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 43–44; and MS Friendship II, 42–43.

Careless which shall first pass over,
 Since we know
 Both shall go,
 Both the port recover.

- 5 Both shall reach the happy shore,
 Quickly meet
 At thy seat,
 Meet, and part no more.
 Who shall there our spirits sever?
 Friends beneath,
 Friends in death,
 Friends we live forever!

Hymn XXXVII.¹⁰⁹

- 1 Two are better far than one
 For counsel, and for fight:
 How can one be warm alone,
 Or serve his God aright?
 Join we then our hearts and hands,
 Each to love provoke his friend,
 Run the way of his commands,
 And keep them to the end.
- 2 Woe to him, whose spirits droop,
 To him, who falls alone!
 He has none to lift him up,
 And help his weakness on:
 Happier we each other keep,
 We each other's burthen bear;
 Never need our footsteps slip,
 Upheld by mutual prayer.
- 3 Who of twain hath made us one
 Maintains our unity,

¹⁰⁹This hymn was originally sent by Charles as a love poem to Sarah Gwynne, his fiancé, in a letter dated September 17, 1748. Other manuscript precursors appear in MS Friendship I, 33–34; and MS Friendship II, 44–45.

Jesus is the corner-stone,
 In whom we all agree;
 Servants of our common Lord,
 Sweetly of one heart and mind,
 Who can break a threefold cord,
 Or part whom God hath join'd?

4 Breathes as in us both one soul,
 When most distinct in place,
 Interposing oceans roll,
 Nor hinder our embrace;
 Each as on his mountain stands,
 Reaching hearts across the flood,
 Join our hearts, if not our hands,
 And sing the pardning God.

5 O that all with us might prove
 The fellowship of saints!
 Find supplied in Jesu's love
 What every member wants!
 Gain we our high calling's prize,
 Feel our sins thro' Christ forgiven,
 Rise, to all his image rise,
 And meet our head in heaven.

Gloria Patri.¹¹⁰

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 Mysterious One and Three,
 We with thy celestial host
 Presume to worship thee;
 Still thyself to thee we give,
 Who thyself to us hast given,
 Praise, and power, and love receive
 From all in earth and heaven.

Hymn XXXIX.¹¹¹

- 1 Oh! That the flaming chariot,
By grace peculiar given,
Might now descend,
And wrap my friend,
My friend, and me, to heaven!
Above this gloomy region,
This vale of sin and sadness,
We'd soar away
To endless day,
And everlasting gladness.
- 2 Head of thy church triumphant,
We long to see thy glory,
With joy to rise
Beyond the skies,
Where all thy hosts adore thee.
We look for thy appearing
With vehement expectation,
And swell the groan
Which from thine own,
Runs thro' the whole creation.
- 3 O might we now behold thee
In radiant clouds descending,
Sublime upon
The great white throne,
With all thy hosts attending!
Come in thy glorious kingdom,
Thou worthy judge eternal,
And seat us by
Thy side, to try
And doom the powers infernal.

¹¹¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 51–52; and MS Friendship II, 47–49.

4 Oh! Wouldst thou now receive us,
The heirs of full salvation,
To our reward,
For us prepar'd,
Before the world's foundation.
Now, Lord, assign his mansion,
And crown to each believer,
And let us rest,
In thee possesst
Of joy that blooms forever!

Hymn XL.¹¹²

1 Friend of all who seek thy favour,
Us defend
To the end,
Be our utmost Saviour.

2 Us, who join on earth t' adore thee,
Guard, and love,
'Till above
Both appear before thee.

3 Fix on thee our whole affection,
Love divine,
Keep us thine,
Safe in thy protection.

4 Christ, of all our conversation
Be the scope,
Lift us up
To thy full salvation.

5 Bring us every moment nearer;
Fairer rise
In our eyes,
Dearer still, and dearer.

¹¹²A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Friendship II, 49–50.

- 6 Infinitely dear and pretious,
 With thy love
 From above
 Evermore refresh us.
- 7 Strengthen'd by the cordial blessing
 Let us haste
 To the feast,
 Feast of joys unceasing.
- 8 Perfect let us walk before thee,
 Walk in white
 To the sight
 Of thy heavenly glory.
- 9 Both with calm impatience press on
 To the prize,
 Scale the skies,
 Take entire possession:
- 10 Drink of life's exhaustless river,
 Take of thee,
 Life's fair tree,
 Eat, and live forever!

Hymn XLI.¹¹³

- 1 Come, let us ascend,
 My companion, and friend,
 To a taste of the banquet above:
 If thy heart be as mine,
 If for Jesus it pine,
 Come up into the chariot of love.
- 2 Who in Jesus confide,
 We are bold to out-ride
 The storms¹¹⁴ of affliction beneath,
 With the prophet we soar
 To that heavenly shore,
 And outfly all the arrows of death.

¹¹³Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Friendship I, 45–46; and MS Friendship II, 45–47.

¹¹⁴Charles Wesley changed “storms” to “storm” in All in All (1761).

3 By faith we are come
 To our permanent home,
By hope we the rapture improve,
 By love we still rise,
 And look down on the skies;
For the heaven of heavens is love.

4 Who on earth can conceive,
 How happy we live
In the city of God the great King!
 What a concert of praise
 When our Jesus's grace
The whole heavenly company sing!

5 What a rapturous song,
 When the glorified throng
In the spirit of harmony join!
 Join all the glad quires
 Hearts, voices, and lyres,
And the burthen is mercy divine!

6 Hallelujah they cry
 To the King of the sky,
To the great everlasting I AM,
 To the Lamb that was slain,
 And liveth again,
Hallelujah to God, and the Lamb!

7 The Lamb on the throne
 Lo! He dwells with his own,
And to rivers of pleasure he leads,
 With his mercy's full blaze,
 With the sight of his face,
Our beatified spirits he feeds.

8 Our foreheads proclaim
 His ineffable name,
Our bodies his glory display,
 A day without night
 We feast in his sight,
And eternity seems as a day!

Hymn XLII.
At the Meeting of Friends.

- 1 Saviour of sinful men,
 Thy goodness we proclaim,
Which brings us here to meet again,
 And triumph in thy name!
 Thy mighty name hath been
 Our refuge, and our tower,
Hath sav'd us from the world, and sin,
 And all th' accuser's power.
- 2 Jesu, take all the praise,
 That still on earth we live,
Unspotted in so foul a place,
 And innocently grieve;
 Shut up in Sodom, we
 No pride of anger find,
But still compassionately see
 The baseness of mankind.
- 3 We mourn, 'till thou appear,
 Along the desert way:
Briers, and thorns are with us here,
 And we with scorpions stay;
 Constrain'd (alas! How long!)
 With human fiends to dwell,
Sinners of lying lips, whose tongue
 Is set on fire of hell.
- 4 Thro' calumny, and pain,
 Thro' a long vale of woe,
Far from the poisonous sons of men,
 To purer worlds we go:
 We shall from Sodom flee,
 When perfected in love,
And haste to better company,
 Who wait for us above.

- 5 The saints of antient days,
 We shall with them sit down,
Who fought the fight, and run the race,
 And then receiv'd the crown;
 Who first severely tried,
 And exercis'd beneath,
Broke thro' the world, with Christ their guide,
 And more than conquer'd death.
- 6 The prophets of the Lord,
 Who suffer'd for his name,
Who bore, by fiends and men abhor'd,
 The Galilean's shame,
 They that endur'd his cross,
 And did his cup receive,
Of whom the world unworthy was,
 Were deem'd not fit to live.
- 7 Swept from the earth away,
 They join'd the heavenly throng;
And now for us their brethren stay,
 And ever cry, "How long!"
 Jesus the cry doth hear,
 And he shall soon return,
With endless joy our souls to chear,
 Who for his coming mourn.
- 8 Awhile in flesh disjoin'd,
 Our friends that went before
We soon in paradise shall find,
 And meet to part no more;
 In yonder blissful seat,
 Waiting for us they are—
And, I shall there an husband meet,
 And I a parent there!
- 9 Oh! What a mighty change
 Shall Jesu's sufferers know,
While o'er the happy plains we range,
 Incapable of woe!
 No ill-requited love
 Shall there our spirits wound,

No base ingratitude above,
No sin in heaven is found.

10 There all our griefs are spent,
 There all our sufferings end,
We cannot there the fall lament
 Of a departed friend,
 A brother, dead to God,
 By sin, alas! Undone—
No father there, in passion loud,
 Cries, Oh! My son, my son!

11 Nor slightest touch of pain,
 Nor sorrow's least alloy
Can violate our rest, or stain
 Our purity of joy:
 In that eternal day
 No clouds or tempests rise;
These gushing tears are wiped away
 Forever from our eyes.

12 This languishing desire
 Which now for heaven we feel
Shall there delightfully expire
 In joy ineffable:
 The weight of glorious bliss
 That to our share shall fall
Not angel-tongues can half express;
 But we shall have it all.

Hymn XLIII.

At Parting.

[Part I.]

1 And let our bodies part,
 To different climes repair,
Inseparably join'd in heart
 The friends of Jesus are:
 Jesus the corner-stone,
 Did first our souls unite;
And still he holds, and keeps us one,
 Who walk with him in white.

- 2 Then let us still proceed
 In Jesu's work below,
And following our triumphant head,
 To farther conquests go;
 The vineyard of the Lord
 Before his labourers lies;
And lo! We see the vast reward
 That waits us in the skies.
- 3 O let our heart, and mind
 Continually ascend,
That haven of repose to find,
 Where all our labours end,
 Where all our grief is o'er,
 Our suffering, and our pain:
Who meet on that eternal shore
 Shall never part again.
- 4 O happy, happy place,
 Where saints and angels meet!
There we shall see each other's face,
 And all our brethren greet,
 The church of the first-born,
 We shall with them be blest,
And crown'd with endless joy return
 To our eternal rest.
- 5 With joy we shall behold
 In yonder blest abode
The patriarchs and prophets old,
 And all the saints of God;
 Abraham and Isaac there,
 And Jacob shall receive
The followers of their faith and prayer,
 Who now in bodies live.
- 6 We shall our time beneath
 Live out in chearful hope,
And fearless pass the vale of death,
 And gain the mountain-top:
 To gather home his own
 God shall his angels send,

And bid our bliss on earth begun
In endless¹¹⁵ triumphs end.

Part II.

- 1 O let us ever dwell
 On the transporting thought!
We shall the joys of Jesus feel,
 Up to his bosom caught;
 We shall his glory see,
 In silent raptures gaze,
The man that hung upon the tree
 We shall behold his face.

- 2 Shall soon behold our God,
 But not as crucified;
The Lamb his vesture dipt in blood
 At last hath laid aside:
 As God's eternal Son
 He now appears above,
And sits upon his dazling throne
 Of everlasting love.

- 3 Is this the Man of Woe,
 Whom glorious now we see!
The man who suffer'd want below,
 And shame, and agony!
 Who here insulted was,
 And scourg'd, and crucified,
Hung pierc'd, and naked on the cross,
 And bled, and groan'd, and died!

- 4 'Tis he! The Prince of Peace!
 'Tis he! The Lord of power!
Whom all these shining hosts of his
 Their Maker-God adore:
 He suffer'd in our stead,
 That we with him might reign;
But he shall never bow his head,
 Shall never die again.

Hymn XLIV.
At Meeting of Friends.

- 1 O Father receive our heartiest praise,
 For bidding us live to witness thy grace,
 For bringing us hither thy goodness to prove,
 And triumph together in Jesus's love.
- 2 Our confident trust in him we declare,
 Thro' Jesus the just accepted we are;
 Redeem'd by his passion, we joyfully join
 T' ascribe our salvation to mercy divine.
- 3 Thee, Lord, we adore, and dwell on thy praise,
 Preserv'd by the power of Jesus's grace;
 Thee, Jesus, the giver of all we proclaim,
 And publish forever thy wonderful name.
- 4 Thy name is release from sorrow, and sin,
 'Tis pardon, and peace, and goodness brought in;
 It speaks us forgiven, sinks into the soul,
 And spreads the pure leaven, and hallows the whole.

Hymn [XLV].¹¹⁶

- 1 Jesu, to thee our hearts we lift,
 Our hearts which now with love o'erflow,
 With thanks for thy continued gift,
 That still thy precious name we know,
 Retain the sense of sin forgiven,
 And wait for all our inward heaven.
- 2 What mighty troubles hast thou shewn
 Thy feeble tempted followers here!
 We have thro' fire, and water gone,
 But saw thee on the floods appear,
 But felt thee present in the flame,
 And shouted our deliverer's name.

¹¹⁶Ori., "Hymn XLVI"; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

- 3 When stronger souls their faith forsook,
 And lull'd in worldly hellish peace,
 Leap'd desp'rate from their guardian Rock,
 And headlong plung'd in sin's abyss,
 Thy power was in our weakness shewn,
 And still it keeps our souls thine own.
- 4 All are not lost, or wandred back,
 All have not left thy church, and thee:
 There are who suffer for thy sake,
 Enjoy thy glorious infamy,
 Esteem the scandal of thy cross,
 And only seek divine applause.
- 5 We do not shamefully desert
 Thy poor afflicted flock below,
 Yield to the reverend tempter's art,
 Or sell our friend, to buy our foe,
 T' increase the world's triumphant scorn,
 And make our blushing brethren mourn.
- 6 The grace which kept us to this hour,
 Shall keep us faithful to the end,
 When cloath'd with majesty and power,
 Our Jesus shall from heaven descend,
 His friends and confessors to own,
 And seat us on his glorious throne.

Hymn XLVI.¹¹⁷

- 1 And are we yet alive,
 And see each other's face?
 Glory, and thanks to Jesus give
 For his almighty grace:
 Preserv'd by power divine
 To full salvation here,
 Again in Jesu's praise we join,
 And in his sight appear.

¹¹⁷Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 69a–69b; and MS Thirty, 227–28.

2 What troubles have we seen,
 What mighty conflicts past,
 Fightings without, and fears within,
 Since we assembled last!
 Yet out of all the Lord
 Hath brought¹¹⁸ us by his love,
 And still he doth his help afford,
 And hide our life above.

3 Then let us make our boast
 Of his redeeming power,
 Which saves us to the uttermost,
 'Till we can sin no more:
 Let us take up the cross,
 'Till we the crown obtain,
 And gladly reckon all things loss,
 So we may Jesus gain.

4 Jesus, to thee we bow,
 And for thy coming wait:
 Give us for good some token now
 In our imperfect state;
 Apply the hallowing word,
 Tell each who looks for thee,
 Thou shalt be perfect as thy Lord,
 Thou shalt be all like me!

Hymn XLVII.¹¹⁹

1 Jesus, we look to thee,
 Thy promis'd presence claim,
 Thou in the midst of us shalt be
 Assembled in thy name:
 Thy name salvation is,
 (Which now we come to prove)
 Thy name is life, and joy, and peace,
 And everlasting love.

¹¹⁸Ori., "bought"; corrected in errata and 2nd edn. (1756).

¹¹⁹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 207–8; and MS Shent, 70a.

2 Not in the name of pride,
 Or selfishness we meet,
 From nature's paths we turn aside,
 And worldly thoughts forget.
 We meet, the grace to take
 Which thou hast freely given,
 We meet on earth for thy dear sake,
 That we may meet in heaven.

3 Present we know thou art,
 But Oh! Thyself reveal;
 Now, Lord, let every bounding heart
 The mighty comfort feel:
 Oh! Might thy quickning voice
 The death of sin remove,
 And bid our inmost souls rejoice
 In hope of perfect love.

4 Thou wilt to us make known
 Thy nature and thy name,
 Us who our utmost Saviour own
 From every touch of blame,
 From every word and deed,
 From every thought unclean,
 Our Jesus, 'till our souls are freed
 From all remains of sin.

Hymn XLVIII.¹²⁰

1 All thanks to the Lamb who gives us to meet!
 His love we proclaim, his praises repeat:
 We own him our Jesus continually near,
 To pardon, and bless us, and perfect us here.

2 In him we have peace, in him we have power,
 Preserv'd by his grace throughout the dark hour,

¹²⁰A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 71a.

In all our temptation he keeps us, to prove
His utmost salvation, his fulness of love.

- 3 Thro' pride and desire unhurt we have gone,
Thro' water and fire with us he went on;
The world and the devil by him we o'ercame,
Our Jesus from evil, forever the same.
- 4 When we would have spurn'd his mercy and grace,
To Egypt return'd, and fled from his face,
He hindred our flying, (his goodness to shew)
And stopt us by crying, "Will ye also go?"
- 5 Oh! What shall we do, our Saviour to love?
To make us anew, come, Lord, from above,
The fruit of thy passion, thy holiness give,
Give us the salvation of all that believe.
- 6 Come, Jesus, and loose the stammerer's tongue,
And teach even us the spiritual song,
Let us without ceasing give thanks for thy grace,
And glory, and blessing, and honour, and praise.
- 7 Pronounce the glad word, and bid us be free:
Ah! Hast thou not, Lord, a blessing for me?
The peace thou hast given, this moment impart,
And open thy heaven, O love, in my heart.

Hymn XLIX.¹²¹

- 1 See, Jesu, thy disciples see,
The promis'd blessing give,
Met in thy name, we look to thee,
Expecting to receive.
- 2 Thee we expect our faithful Lord,
Who in thy name are join'd,
We wait, according to thy word,
Thee in the midst to find.

¹²¹Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 71b–72a; and MS Thirty, 71–72.

- 3 With us thou art assembled here,
But O thyself reveal,
Son of the living God, appear,
Let us thy presence feel.
- 4 Breathe on us, Lord, in this our day,
And these dry bones shall live,
Speak peace into our hearts, and say
The Holy Ghost receive.
- 5 Whom now we seek O might we meet!
Jesus the crucified,
Shew us thy bleeding hands and feet,
Thou who for us hast died.
- 6 Cause us thy record to receive,
Speak, and the tokens shew,
“O be not faithless, but believe
In me, who died for you.”
- 7 Lord, I believe for me, ev’n me
Thy wounds were open’d wide,
I see the prints, I more than see
Thy feet, thy hands, thy side.
- 8 I cannot fear, I cannot doubt,
I feel the sprinkled blood:
Let every soul with me cry out
Thou art my Lord, my God!

Hymn L.¹²²

- 1 Come, Lord, with thy disciples sit
Assembled in thy name,
And let us kiss thy bleeding feet,
And let us love the Lamb.
- 2 Is this the time, say, Jesu, say,
Wilt thou, O Lord, restore
The kingdom to our souls to-day,
And bid us sin no more?

¹²²Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 72a–72b; and MS Thirty, 72–73.

- 3 Now wilt thou make an end of sin,
The kingdom of thy peace
The joy unspeakable bring in,
Th' eternal righteousness!
- 4 We wait, 'till thou the gift impart,
The unction from above:
Come quickly, Lord, in every heart
Set up thy throne of love.
- 5 Or, (for it is not ours to know
The times by God assign'd)
Give us, 'till thou thyself bestow,
An humble patient mind.
- 6 Thee let us praise with one accord,
And in thy temple stay,
Wait for the coming of our Lord,
And without ceasing pray:
- 7 Still at Jerusalem abide
In prospect of thy peace,
'Till thou shalt in our hearts reside,
And sin forever cease.
- 8 Give, when thou wilt, the blessing give,
The kingdom from above,
But let us all at last receive
The power of perfect love.

Hymn LI.¹²³

Invitation to Our Absent Friends.

- 1 Ye followers of the bleeding Lamb,
Before your Lord appear,
On you we call in Jesu's name,
Be all in spirit here.
- 2 Jesus with us assembled is,
Him in the midst we feel,

¹²³Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Cheshunt, 38–39; MS Clarke, 40–42; and MS Shent, 72b–73a.

Come share with us the glorious bliss,
The joy unspeakable.

- 3 Come all the members far and near,
Whoe'er to Christ are join'd,
Jesus our common head is here,
Ye cannot stay behind.
- 4 The body with the head is nigh:
Let every faithful soul,
Let every joint its strength supply
To edify the whole.
- 5 'Tis done: thro' faith our hands we join,
In Jesu's love we meet,
And cloath'd with righteousness divine
The body is compleat.
- 6 Then let us all at once aspire,
Our common Saviour praise,
And higher raise our hearts, and higher,
In honour of his grace:
- 7 His grace which hath salvation brought,
And rais'd us from our fall,
His grace which came to us unsought,
And comes unsought to all.
- 8 God of all grace, thy saving name
We thankfully confess;
Let all the world adore the Lamb,
The general blessing bless.
- 9 Ye that in strength divine excel,
Ye first-born church above,
Adore the depth unsearchable
Of all-redeeming love.
- 10 'Till we like you behold his face,
Angels, on you we call,
Forever, and forever praise
The Lamb, that died for all.

Hymn LII.¹²⁴

- 1 Ye followers of the Lamb,
 Who own the common Lord,
 And trust in Jesu's name
 And hang upon his word,
 In Jesu's sight with us appear,
 Be present all in spirit here.
- 2 Let us together wait
 For the descending power,
 Which to our first estate
 Shall all our souls restore,
 Nor ever from the promise move,
 'Till all are perfected in love.
- 3 Let us the word hold fast
 Which we of him have heard;
 We shall obtain at last
 A great and full reward,
 The Comforter shall surely come,
 And make us his eternal home.
- 4 The Father of our Lord
 Shall send the promis'd grace,
 Let us with one accord
 Continue in one place,
 Nor from Jerusalem depart,
 But keep the issues of our heart.
- 5 In sure and stedfast hope,
 In view of perfect peace,
 Let us to Christ look up,
 'Till all our troubles cease;
 The Lord our hope shall soon return,
 The Lord shall comfort all that mourn.
- 6 In Jesus we believe,
 And wait the truth to prove,
 We shall, we shall receive
 The blessing from above,

¹²⁴Manuscript precursors of this hymn appear in MS Shent, 73a–73b; and MS Thirty, 205–7.

Fulness of love, and peace, and power,
And live in Christ, and sin no more.

7 We all the truth shall know,
 Who in his word abide,
 Be freed from sin below,
 And wholly sanctified;
We all his witnesses shall be,
The truth, the truth shall make us free.

8 Shall make us free indeed
 From every spot of sin,
 Our pure and sinless head
 Shall bring his nature in,
We all his witnesses shall be,
The truth, the truth shall make us free.

9 The things he hath prepar'd
 For us, in sight of men,
 Their ear hath never heard,
 Their eye hath never seen,
Nor can their carnal heart conceive
How gloriously we soon shall live.

10 Poor abject slaves of sin
 They madly hug their chains,
 They will not be made clean¹²⁵
 From sin's belov'd remains;
But we thy saying, Lord, receive,
And trust a sinless¹²⁶ life to live.

11 Who for thy coming wait,
 And hang upon thy word,
 To our unsinning state
 We shall be here restor'd,
Thou shalt the second time appear,
And then we all are perfect here.

Hymn LIII.¹²⁷

1 Jesu, soft harmonious name,
 Every faithful heart's desire,

¹²⁵Ori., "be made be clean"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

¹²⁶John Wesley substituted "spotless" for "sinless" in manuscript in his personal copy of the 2nd edn. (1756).

¹²⁷A manuscript precursor of this hymn appears in MS Thirty, 82–83.

See thy followers, O Lamb,
 All at once to thee aspire;
 Drawn by thy uniting grace,
 After thee we swiftly run,
 Hand in hand we seek thy face,
 Come, and perfect us in one.

- 2 Mollify our harsher will,
 Each to each our tempers suit
 By thy modulating skill,
 Heart to heart, as lute to lute:
 Sweetly on our spirits move,
 Gently touch the trembling strings,
 Make the harmony of love,
 Music for the King of kings.
- 3 See the souls that hang on thee,
 Sever'd though in flesh we are,
 Join'd in spirit all agree,
 All thy only love declare;
 Spread thy love to all around:
 Hark, we now our voices raise,
 Joyful consentaneous sound,
 Sweetest symphony of praise!
- 4 Jesu's praise is all our song;
 While we Jesu's praise repeat,
 Glide our happy days along,¹²⁸
 Glide with down upon their feet:
 Far from sorrow, sin, and fear,
 'Till we take our seats above,
 Live we all as angels here,
 Only sing, and praise, and love.

Hymn LIV.

- 1 Ye souls, that own the common Lord,
 Who suffer'd once for all,
 And wait with us the hallowing word,
 Which saves us from our fall;

¹²⁸Ori., "long"; corrected in 2nd edn. (1756).

- 2 You, though in body distant far,
We now in spirit meet,
You (for our souls united are)
In Jesu's name we greet.
- 3 United in the closest bands,
Whom seas and mountains part;
The Spirit more than joins our hands,
He makes us one in heart.
- 4 Fellowship to the world unknown,
In Jesu's name we prove,
Jesus is our chief corner stone,
And cements us by love.
- 5 From him our mingled blessings flow,
We feel his blood applied,
And nothing seek, and nothing know,
But Jesus crucified.
- 6 The man who hung upon the tree
In every sinner's stead,
Him to receive we all agree,
And him we call our head.
- 7 To him let every member cleave,
And we shall never part,
We cannot each the other leave,
When God hath all our heart.
- 8 Then let us love our Lord alone,
'Till all his grace we prove,
And put his glorious image on,
Imparadis'd in love.

Hymn LV.¹²⁹

- 1 Lift up your hearts to things above,
Ye followers of the Lamb,
And join with us to praise his love,
And glorify his name.

¹²⁹A manuscript precursor of stanzas 8–12 of this hymn appears in MS Shent, 76a.

- 2 To Jesu's name give thanks, and sing,
Whose mercies never end,
Rejoice, rejoice, the Lord is King,
The King is now our friend.
- 3 Our bosom-friend, and brother too,
Our husband, and our head,
Who all he bids delight to do,
And in his footsteps tread.
- 4 Who for his sake count all things loss,
On earthly good look down,
And joyfully sustain the cross,
'Till we receive the crown.
- 5 Then let us stir each other up,
Our faith by works t' approve,
By holy purifying hope,
And the sweet task of love.
- 6 Love us, though far in flesh disjoin'd,
Ye lovers of the Lamb,
And ever bear us on your mind,
Who think, and speak the same.
- 7 You on our mind we ever bear,
Whoe'er to Jesus bow,
Stretch out the arms of faith, and prayer,
And lo, we reach you now!
- 8 Surely we now your souls embrace,
With you we now appear
Present before the throne of grace,
And you, and Christ is here.
- 9 Mercy, and peace your portion be,
To carnal minds unknown,
The hidden manna, and the tree
Of life, and the white stone.
- 10 The blessings all on you be shed,
Which God in Christ imparts,
We pray the Spirit of our head
Into your faithful hearts.

- 11 Let all, who for the promise wait,
The Holy Ghost receive,
And rais'd to your unsinning state
With God in Eden live.
- 12 Live, 'till the Lord in glory come,
And wait his heaven to share:
He now is fitting up your home—
Go on: we'll meet you there!

Hymn LVI.
Primitive Christianity.¹³⁰

[Part I.]

- 1 Happy the souls who first believ'd,
To Jesus, and each other cleav'd,
Join'd by the unction from above,
In mystic fellowship of love.
- 2 Meek, simple followers of the Lamb,
They liv'd, and spake, and thought the same;
Brake the commemorative bread,
And drank the Spirit of their head.
- 3 On God they cast their every care,
Wrestling with God in mighty prayer,
They claim'd the grace, thro' Jesus given;
By prayer they shut, and open'd heaven.
- 4 To Jesus they perform'd their vows,
A little church in every house;
They joyfully conspir'd to raise
Their ceaseless sacrifice of praise.
- 5 Propriety was there unknown,
None call'd what he possess'd his own;
Where all the common blessing share,
No selfish happiness was there.
- 6 With grace abundantly endu'd,
A pure, believing multitude;
They all were of one heart and soul,
And only love inspir'd the whole.

¹³⁰Published previously in Earnest Appeal to Men of Reason and Religion, 2nd edn. (Bristol: Farley, 1743), 52–55. A manuscript precursor appears in MS Cheshunt, 160–64.

- 7 Oh, what an age of golden days!
Oh, what a choice, peculiar race!
Wash'd in the Lamb's all-cleansing blood,
Anointed kings, and priests to God!
- 8 Where shall I wander now to find
The successors they left behind?
The faithful, whom I seek in vain,
Are minish'd from the sons of men.
- 9 Ye different sects, who all declare
Lo! Here is Christ, or Christ is there;
Your stronger proofs divinely give,
And shew me where the Christians live.
- 10 Your claim, alas! Ye cannot prove,
Ye want the genuine mark of love:
Thou only, Lord, thine own canst shew,
For sure thou hast a church below.
- 11 The gates of hell cannot prevail,
The church on earth can never fail:
Ah! Join me to thy secret ones,
Ah! Gather all thy living stones.
- 12 Scatter'd o'er all the earth they lie,
'Till thou collect them with thine eye,
Draw by the music of thy name,
And charm into a beauteous frame.
- 13 For this the pleading Spirit groans,
And cries in all thy banish'd ones:
Greatest of gifts, thy love impart,
And make us of one mind and heart.
- 14 Join every soul that looks to thee,
In bonds of perfect charity:
Now, Lord, the glorious fulness give,
And all in all forever live.

Part II.

- 1 Jesus, from whom all blessings flow,
Great builder of thy church below,

- If now thy Spirit moves my breast,
Hear, and fulfil thine own request.
- 2 The few that truly call thee Lord,
And wait thy sanctifying word,
And thee their utmost Saviour own,
Unite, and perfect them in one.
- 3 Gather them in on every side,
And in thy tabernacle hide;
Give them a resting-place to find,
A covert from the storm, and wind.
- 4 O find them out some calm recess,
Some unfrequented wilderness!
Thou, Lord, the secret place prepare,
And hide, and feed the woman there.
- 5 Thither collect thy little flock,
Under the shadow of their Rock:
The holy seed, the royal race,
The standing mon'uments of thy grace.
- 6 O let them all thy mind express,
Stand forth thy chosen witnesses!
Thy power unto salvation shew,
And perfect holiness below:
- 7 The fulness of thy grace receive,
And simply to thy glory live;
Strongly reflect the light divine,
And in a land of darkness shine.
- 8 In them let all mankind behold
How Christians liv'd in days of old;
(Mighty their envious foes to move,
A proverb of reproach—and love.)
- 9 O make them of one soul and heart,
The all-conforming mind impart;
Spirit of peace, and unity,
The sinless mind that was in thee.
- 10 Call them into thy wondrous light,
Worthy to walk with thee in white;

Make up thy jewels, Lord, and shew
The glorious spotless church below.

- 11 From every sinful wrinkle free,
Redeem'd from all iniquity;
The fellowship of saints make known;
And Oh! My God, might I be one!
- 12 O might my lot be cast with these,
The least of Jesu's witnesses!
O that my Lord would count me meet
To wash his dear disciples' feet!
- 13 This only thing do I require,
Thou knowst 'tis all my heart's desire,
Freely what I receive to give,
The servant of thy church to live.
- 14 After my lowly Lord to go,
And wait upon thy saints below,
Enjoy the grace to angels given,
And serve the royal heirs of heaven.
- 15 Lord, if I now thy drawings feel,
And ask according to thy will,
Confirm the prayer, the seal impart,
And speak the answer to my heart.
- 16 Tell me, or thou shalt never go,
"Thy prayer is heard, it shall be so."
The word hath pass'd thy lips, and I
Shall with thy people live, and die.
